

Shares and shareholders

The Electrolux share is listed on Nasdaq OMX Stockholm. At year-end 2011, Electrolux had 58,840 shareholders according to the share register kept by Euroclear Sweden AB. Of the total share capital, 66% was owned by Swedish institutions and mutual funds, 24% by foreign investors and 10% by Swedish private investors, see below. Investor AB is the largest shareholder, holding 15.5% of the share capital and 29.9% of the voting rights. The ten largest shareholders accounted for 41.4% of the share capital and 52.0% of the voting rights in the company.

Voting rights

The share capital of Electrolux consists of Class A-shares and Class B-shares. One A-share entitles the holder to one vote and one B-share to one-tenth of a vote. Both A-shares and B-shares entitle the holders to the same proportion of assets and earnings and carry equal rights in terms of dividends. Owners of A-shares can request to convert their A-shares into B-shares. Conversion reduces the total number of votes in the company. As of December 31, 2011, the total number of registered shares in the company amounted to 308,920,308 shares, of which 8,212,725 were Class A-shares and 300,707,583 were Class B-shares. The total number of votes in the company was 38,283,483. Class B-shares represented 78.6% of the voting rights and 97.3% of the share capital.

Dividend policy

Electrolux goal is for the dividend to correspond to at least 30% of the income for the period, excluding items affecting comparability. For a number of years, the dividend level has been considerably higher than 30%.

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) in March 2011 decided to adopt the Board's proposed dividend of SEK 6.50 per share for 2010. The Board of Directors proposes a dividend for 2011 of SEK 6.50 per share, for a total dividend payment of approximately SEK 1,850m.

Shareholders by the AGM

General Meetings of shareholders

The decision-making rights of shareholders in Electrolux are exercised at shareholders' meetings. The AGM of Electrolux is held in Stockholm, Sweden, during the first half of the year.

Extraordinary General Meetings may be held at the discretion of the Board or, if requested, by the auditors or by shareholders owning at least 10% of the shares.

Participation in decision-making requires the shareholder's presence at the meeting, either personally or through a proxy. In addition, the shareholder must be registered in the share register by a stipulated date prior to the meeting and must provide notice of participation in the manner prescribed. Additional requirements for participation apply to shareholders with holdings in the form of American Depositary Receipts (ADR) or similar certificates. Holders of such certificates are advised to contact the ADR depository bank, the fund manager or the issuer of the certificates in good time before the meeting in order to obtain additional information.

Individual shareholders requesting that a specific issue be included in the agenda of a shareholders' meeting can normally request the Electrolux Board to do so well in advance to the meeting via an address provided on the Group's website.

Decisions at the meeting are usually taken on the basis of a simple majority. However, as regards certain issues, the Swedish Companies Act stipulates that proposals must be approved by shareholders representing a larger number of votes than the number of votes cast and shares represented at the meeting.
