Additional information which might help us locate your data

For example: timeframe, application where your data is stored, newsletter which you would like to stop receiving, etc. If you are an applicant, please include the position and country where you applied.

In order to make sure we are releasing data to the correct person, we require you to provide us with proof of your identity

For consumers/prospective employees:

The information you already provided in the form will be sufficient in most cases. For employees/former employees:

Your identity can be verified by the following types of information/documents:

- Photo ID (e.g. Electrolux badge, driving license, ID card)
- Employee number
- Hire date
- Before accessing any documentation, you will also be asked to provide photo ID. The requested documentation will in most cases be provided by HR on your working premises or at your closest office.

We reserve the right to refuse requests if we are unable to confirm your identity and to request additional documentation in order to verify your identity or address in certain situations.

We will notify you if this is the case.

Please provide any additional information which may help us identify you e.g. employee number, Electrolux account number, etc...

Please join any document, if applicable.
