

AB ELECTROLUX (publ)

(Incorporated as a public company with limited liability under the laws of Sweden with Swedish registration number 556009-4178)

EUR 5,000,000,000

Euro Medium Term Note Programme

Under the EUR 5,000,000,000 Euro Medium Term Note Programme (the Programme), AB Electrolux (publ) (reg. no. 556009-4178) (the Issuer) may from time to time issue notes (the Notes) denominated in any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer (as defined below). The maximum aggregate nominal amount of all Notes from time to time outstanding under the Programme will not exceed EUR 5,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies calculated as described in the Programme Agreement as defined herein), subject to increase as described herein.

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under "General Description of the Programme" and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer (each a Dealer and together the Dealers), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Base Prospectus to the relevant Dealer shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

An investment in Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. For a discussion of these risks see "Risk Factors".

This Base Prospectus has been approved as a base prospectus by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the CSSF) as competent authority under the Luxembourg Law of 16 July 2019 relating to Prospectuses for securities (as amended, the Luxembourg Prospectus Law) and Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the Prospectus Regulation). The CSSF only approves this Base Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus Regulation. Approval by the CSSF should not be considered as an endorsement of the Issuer or of the quality of the Notes. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes. Pursuant to Article 6(4) of the Luxembourg Prospectus Law, by approving this Base Prospectus, in accordance with Article 20 of the Prospectus Regulation, the CSSF does not engage in respect of the economic or financial soundness of the transactions contemplated by this Base Prospectus or the quality or solvency of the Issuer.

Application has been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. References in this Base Prospectus to Notes being listed (and all related references) shall mean that such Notes have been admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market and have been admitted to the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market is a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on markets in financial instruments (as amended, MiFID II).

This Base Prospectus (as supplemented as at the relevant time, if applicable) is valid for 12 months from its date in relation to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area (the EEA) and will expire on 3 June 2027. This Base Prospectus succeeds the Base Prospectus of the Issuer relating to the Programme dated 8 May 2025. The obligation to supplement this Base Prospectus in the event of a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy does not apply when this Base Prospectus is no longer valid.

The requirement to publish a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation only applies to Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA and/or offered to the public in the EEA other than in circumstances where an exemption is available under Article 1(4) and/or 3(2) of the Prospectus Regulation.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and certain other information which is applicable to each Tranche (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes") will be set out in a final terms document (the Final Terms) which, with respect to Notes to be listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, will be filed with the CSSF on or before the date of issue of the Notes of such Tranche.

The Programme provides that Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on such other or further stock exchange(s) or market(s) as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. The Issuer may also issue unlisted Notes and/or Notes not admitted to trading on any market.

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the Issuer has an investment-grade rating from S&P Global Ratings (S&P) of BBB-. The Programme has been rated BBB- by S&P. S&P is established in the EEA and is registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (the EU CRA Regulation). As such, S&P is included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA) on its website (at <http://www.esma.europa.eu/page/List-registered-and-certified-CRAs>) in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation. S&P is not established in the United Kingdom (UK) and has not applied for registration under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the EUWA) (the UK CRA Regulation). Accordingly, the Programme rating issued by S&P has been endorsed by S&P Global Ratings UK Limited in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation and has not been withdrawn. S&P Global Ratings UK Limited is established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation.

Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated by the rating agency referred to above. Where a Tranche of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Programme by S&P. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Amounts payable on Floating Rate Notes will be calculated by reference to one of EURIBOR, NIBOR, STIBOR or TIBOR (the Programme Benchmarks), as specified in the applicable Final Terms. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the European Money Markets Institute (as administrator of EURIBOR), Norske Finansielle Referanser AS (as administrator of NIBOR) and the Swedish Financial Benchmark Facility (as administrator of STIBOR) are included in ESMA's register of administrators under Article 36 of Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (as amended) (the EU Benchmarks Regulation). As at the date of this Base Prospectus, JBA TIBOR Administration (as administrator of TIBOR) is not included in ESMA's register of administrators under the EU Benchmarks Regulation.

The date of this Base Prospectus is 3 June 2026

This Base Prospectus comprises a base prospectus for the purposes of Article 8 of the Prospectus Regulation. Prospectus Regulation means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

The Issuer accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer (having taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case) the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Subject as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the only persons authorised to use this Base Prospectus in connection with an offer of Notes are the persons named in the applicable Final Terms as the relevant Dealer or the Managers, as the case may be.

Copies of Final Terms will be available from the registered office of the Issuer and the specified office set out below of each of the Paying Agents (as defined below).

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with all information which is deemed to be incorporated herein by reference (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference"). This Base Prospectus shall be read and construed on the basis that such information is incorporated in and forms part of this Base Prospectus.

Other than in relation to the information which is deemed to be incorporated by reference (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference"), the information on the websites to which this Base Prospectus refers does not form part of this Base Prospectus and has not been scrutinised or approved by the CSSF.

Save for the Issuer, no other party has independently verified the information contained herein. Accordingly, no representation, warranty or undertaking, express or implied, is made and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Dealers as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained or incorporated in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme. No Dealer accepts any liability in relation to the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any other information provided by the Issuer in connection with the Programme.

No person is or has been authorised by the Issuer to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or not consistent with this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer or any of the Dealers.

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes (i) is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation or (ii) should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer or any of the Dealers that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or any Notes should purchase any Notes. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Notes should make its own independent investigation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness, of the Issuer and its subsidiaries (together, the Group). Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the issue of any Notes constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer or any of the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor the offering, sale or delivery of any Notes shall in any circumstances imply that the information contained herein concerning the Issuer or the Group is correct at any time subsequent to the date hereof or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date indicated in the document containing the same. The Dealers expressly do not undertake to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Group during the life of the Programme or to advise any investor in Notes issued under the Programme of any information coming to their attention.

Notes issued as Green Bonds or Sustainability-Linked Bonds - None of the Arranger, Dealers, nor any of their respective affiliates accepts any responsibility for any social, environmental and sustainability assessment of any Notes issued as Green Bonds or Sustainability-Linked Bonds or makes any representation or warranty or gives any assurance as to whether such Notes will meet any investor expectations or requirements regarding such "green", "sustainable" or similar labels (including in relation to Regulation (EU) 2020/852 on the establishment of a framework to facilitate sustainable investment (the EU Taxonomy Regulation) and any related technical screening criteria, Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 on European Green Bonds and optional disclosures for bonds marketed as environmentally sustainable and for sustainability-linked bonds (the EU Green Bond Regulation), Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 on sustainability-related disclosures in the financial services sector (SFDR) and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the UK or any market standards or guidance, including any green, sustainable or social bond principles, or other similar principles or guidance published by ICMA (the ICMA Principles) or any requirements of such labels or market standards as they may evolve from time to time. None of the Arranger, Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates have undertaken, nor are they responsible for, any assessment of the Eligible Green Assets (as defined in the risk factor headed "In respect of any Notes issued with the specific purpose of financing or refinancing Eligible Green Assets in accordance with the Issuer's Green Financing Framework, there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor"), any verification of whether the Eligible Green Assets meet any eligibility criteria set out in the Issuer's Green Financing Framework nor are they responsible for the use of proceeds (or amounts equal thereto) for any Notes issued as Green Bonds or Sustainability-Linked Bonds, nor the impact or monitoring of such use of proceeds or the allocation of the proceeds to particular Eligible Green Assets. The Issuer's Green Financing Framework, the Green Financing Second Party Opinion (as defined in the "Use of Proceeds" section of this Base Prospectus), the Issuer's Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework (as defined below), the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion (as defined in the "Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework" section of this Base Prospectus) and any public reporting by or on behalf of the Issuer in respect of the application of proceeds will be available on the Issuer's website at <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/2/2019/03/Electrolux-Group-Green-Financing-Framework-2025.pdf> and a link to the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion (as defined in the "Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework" section of this Base Prospectus) is available at the Issuer's website <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/en/green-financing-framework-29317/> but, for the avoidance of doubt, will not be incorporated by reference into this Base Prospectus. None of the Arranger, Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates make any representation or assurance as to the suitability or content of such materials, nor are any such materials a recommendation by the Arranger or any Dealer to buy, sell or hold any such Notes. In the event any such Notes are, or are intended to be, listed, or admitted to trading on a dedicated "green", "sustainable" or other equivalently labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market, no representation or assurance is given by the Arranger or the Dealers that such listing or admission will be obtained or maintained for the lifetime of the Notes.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is either one (or both) of the following: (i) not a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (EUWA); or (ii) not a qualified investor as defined in paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to the Public Offers and Admissions to Trading Regulations 2024 (the POATRs). Consequently no disclosure document required by the FCA Product Disclosure Sourcebook (DISC) for offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under DISC and the Consumer Composite Investments (Designated Activities) Regulations 2024.

MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "MiFID II product governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the MiFID Product Governance Rules), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR product governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

Notification under Section 309B(1)(c) of the Securities and Futures Act of Singapore, as modified or amended from time to time (the SFA) – Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, all Notes issued or to be issued under the Programme shall be prescribed capital markets products (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the Securities Act) or any U.S. State securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States or to, or for the account or the benefit of, U.S. persons as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act unless an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available and in accordance with all applicable securities laws of any state of the United States and any other jurisdiction (see "Subscription and Sale").

NOTICE TO CANADIAN INVESTORS – The Notes may be sold only to purchasers purchasing, or deemed to be purchasing, as principal that are accredited investors, as defined in National Instrument 45-106 Prospectus Exemptions or subsection 73.3(1) of the Securities Act (Ontario), and are permitted clients, as defined in National Instrument 31-103 Registration Requirements, Exemptions and Ongoing Registrant Obligations. Any resale of the Notes must be made in accordance with an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the prospectus requirements of applicable securities laws. Securities legislation in certain provinces or territories of Canada may provide a purchaser with remedies for rescission or damages if this Base Prospectus (including any amendment thereto) contains a misrepresentation, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province or territory for particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor. If applicable, pursuant to section 3A.3 (or, in the case of securities issued or guaranteed by the government of a non-Canadian jurisdiction, section 3A.4) of National Instrument 33-105 Underwriting Conflicts (NI 33-105), the Dealers are not required to comply with the disclosure requirements of NI 33-105 regarding underwriter conflicts of interest in connection with the offering of the Notes contemplated in this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto.

Certain information in respect of the description of ratings set out on page 13 of this Base Prospectus has been extracted from the website of S&P. The Issuer confirms that such information has been accurately reproduced and that, so far as it is aware and is able to ascertain from information published by the relevant rating agencies, no facts have been omitted which would render the reproduced information inaccurate or misleading.

This Base Prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any Notes in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make the offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. The distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Issuer and the Dealers do not represent that this Base Prospectus may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assume any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. In particular, no action has been taken by the Issuer or the Dealers which is intended to permit a public offering of any Notes or distribution of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Notes may come must inform themselves about, and observe, any such restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offering and sale of Notes. In particular, there are restrictions on the distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offer or sale of Notes in the United States, the EEA (including Belgium), the UK, Singapore and Japan (see "Subscription and Sale").

Neither this Prospectus nor any Final Terms nor any financial statements nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme or the Notes constitutes an offer by the Issuer or the Dealers to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Notes.

Capitalised terms which are used but not defined in any particular section of this Base Prospectus will have the meaning attributed to them in "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" or any other section of this Base Prospectus.

All references in this document to "U.S. dollars", "U.S.$" and "$" refer to the lawful currency of the United States of America, all references to "SEK" refer to the lawful currency of the Kingdom of Sweden, all references to "£" and "Sterling" refer to the lawful currency of the UK, and all references to "CHF" refer to the lawful currency of the Swiss Confederation. In addition, all references to "euro", "EUR" and "€" refer to the currency introduced at the start of the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union, as amended.

Certain figures and percentages included in this Base Prospectus have been subject to rounding adjustments; accordingly, figures shown in the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures which precede them.

In this Base Prospectus, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to a law or a provision or law is a reference to that law or provision of law as extended, amended or re-enacted.

Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and other professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including Notes where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;

- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes and is familiar with the behaviour of financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each potential investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (1) Notes are legal investments for it, (2) Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (3) other restrictions apply to its purchase or pledge of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisers or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules.

Some Notes are complex financial instruments. Sophisticated institutional investors generally do not purchase complex financial instruments as stand-alone investments. They purchase complex financial instruments as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Notes which are complex financial instruments unless it has the expertise (either alone or with a financial adviser) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of the Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche of Notes, the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However stabilisation may not necessarily occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche of Notes is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of Notes and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche of Notes. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager(s) (or persons acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROGRAMME

The following general description is taken from, and is qualified in its entirety by, the remainder of this Base Prospectus and, in relation to the terms and conditions of any particular Tranche of Notes, the applicable Final Terms. Words and expressions defined in "Form of the Notes" and "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" below shall have the same meanings in this general description.

This General Description constitutes a general description of the Programme for the purposes of Article 25(1) of Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 2019/980.

Issuer:	AB Electrolux (publ)
Legal entity identifier (LEI):	549300Y3HHZB1ZGFPJ93
Risk Factors:	There are certain factors that may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme. These are set out under " Risk Factors ". In addition, there are certain factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme. These are set out under " Risk Factors " and include the fact that the Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors, certain risks relating to the structure of particular Series of Notes and certain market risks.
Description:	Euro Medium Term Note Programme
Arranger:	Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft
Dealers:	Banco Bradesco BBI S.A. BNP PARIBAS Citigroup Global Markets Europe AG Danske Bank A/S Deutsche Bank Aktiengesellschaft HSBC Continental Europe J.P. Morgan SE Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken AB (publ) Svenska Handelsbanken AB (publ) Swedbank AB (publ) and any other Dealers appointed in accordance with the Programme Agreement.
Certain Restrictions:	Each issue of Notes denominated in a currency in respect of which particular laws, guidelines, regulations, restrictions or reporting requirements apply will only be issued in circumstances which comply with such laws, guidelines, regulations, restrictions or reporting requirements from time to time (see " Subscription and Sale ") including the following restrictions applicable at the date of this Base Prospectus.

Notes with a maturity of less than one year

Notes having a maturity of less than one year will, if the proceeds of the issue are accepted in the UK, constitute deposits for the purposes of the prohibition on accepting deposits contained in section 19 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the FSMA) unless they are issued to a limited class of professional investors and have a denomination of at least £100,000 or its equivalent, see "Subscription and Sale".

Under the Prospectus Regulation, prospectuses relating to money market instruments having a maturity at issue of less than 12 months and complying also with the definition of securities are not subject to the approval provisions stated therein.

Principal Paying Agent:	Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch.
Programme Size:	Up to EUR 5,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies calculated as described in the Programme Agreement) outstanding at any time. The Issuer may increase the amount of the Programme in accordance with the terms of the Programme Agreement.
Distribution:	Notes may be distributed by way of private or public placement and in each case on a syndicated or non-syndicated basis. The Notes will be issued in Series. Each Series may be issued in Tranches.
Currencies:	Subject to any applicable legal or regulatory restrictions, any currency agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.
Maturities:	The Notes will have such maturities as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer, subject to such minimum or maximum maturities as may be allowed or required from time to time by the relevant central bank (or equivalent body) or any laws or regulations applicable to the Issuer or the relevant Specified Currency.
Issue Price:	Notes may be issued on a fully-paid basis and at an issue price which is at par or at a discount to, or premium over, par. The issue price will be indicated in the applicable Final Terms.
Form of Notes:	The Notes will be issued in bearer form as described in " Form of the Notes ".
Fixed Rate Notes:	Fixed interest will be payable on such date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer and on redemption, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.
Floating Rate Notes:	Floating Rate Notes will bear interest at a rate determined on the basis of the reference rate set out in the applicable Final Terms. Interest on Floating Rate Notes in respect of each Interest Period, as agreed prior to issue by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer, will be payable on such Interest Payment Dates, and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction, as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. The margin (if any) relating to such floating rate will be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer for each Series of Floating Rate Notes. Floating Rate Notes may also have a maximum interest rate, a minimum interest rate or both.
Benchmark Event:	If a Benchmark Event occurs, such that any rate of interest (or any component part thereof) cannot be determined by reference to the original benchmark specified in the applicable Final Terms, then such rate of interest may be substituted (subject to certain conditions) with a successor or alternative rate (with consequent amendment to the terms of such Series of Notes and the application of an adjustment spread (which could be positive, negative or zero)) as described in Condition 4.2(vi).

Zero Coupon Notes:

Zero Coupon Notes will be offered and sold at a discount to their nominal amount and will not bear interest.

Sustainability-Linked Step Up Bonds:

Fixed Rate Notes and Floating Rate Notes may be subject to a Sustainability-Linked Step Up Option if the applicable Final Terms indicate that the Sustainability-Linked Step Up Option is applicable. The Rate of Interest for Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes will be subject to adjustment in the event of a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event or a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event. The Initial Rate of Interest or Initial Margin for Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes will be as specified in the applicable Final Terms provided that, for any Interest Period commencing on or after the Interest Payment Date immediately following a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event or a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event, if any, the Initial Rate of Interest or Initial Margin shall be increased by the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Step Up Margin or the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Step Up Margin specified in the applicable Final Terms. The increase in the Initial Rate of Interest or Initial Margin will be triggered by the occurrence of a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event and/or a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event, linked to the failure of the Group to achieve its sustainability performance target in relation to its greenhouse gas emissions or the failure of the Issuer to report on such key performance indicator in the required time periods, as further detailed in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and the applicable Final Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, an increase in the Rate of Interest may occur no more than once in respect of the relevant Sustainability-Linked Step Up Note.

Redemption:

The applicable Final Terms will indicate either that the relevant Notes cannot be redeemed prior to their stated maturity (other than for taxation reasons or following an Event of Default) or that such Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Issuer and/or the Noteholders upon giving notice to the Noteholders or the Issuer, as the case may be, on a date or dates specified prior to such stated maturity and at a price or prices and on such other terms as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer.

The applicable Final Terms may provide that, upon a Change of Control (as defined in Condition 6.6(b)) occurring and certain other conditions being satisfied, Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Noteholders, see "Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Redemption and Purchase – Redemption at the option of the Noteholders - Change of Control Put". If 75 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased, as the case may be, pursuant to Condition 6.6(b), the Issuer may redeem or purchase all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their principal amount together with interest accrued to but excluding the date for such redemption.

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer at least at 100 per cent. of its nominal value on its scheduled maturity date.

Notes having a maturity of less than one year may be subject to restrictions on their denomination and distribution, see "Certain Restrictions – Notes with a maturity of less than one year" above.

Make-Whole Redemption:

If the Make-Whole Redemption is specified as applicable in the Final Terms, the Issuer will have the option to redeem the Notes, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, prior to their stated maturity, at the Make-Whole Redemption Amount.

Sustainability-Linked Redemption Bonds:

If the applicable Final Terms indicates that the Sustainability-Linked Redemption Option is applicable to any Series of Notes, the Issuer may be required, in respect of each such Sustainability-Linked Redemption Note, to pay a Sustainability-Linked Redemption Premium on the date that such Notes are redeemed, each as specified in the applicable Final Terms. The requirement to make payment of the relevant Sustainability-Linked Redemption Premium on the date that such Notes are redeemed will be triggered by the occurrence of a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event or a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event, linked to the failure of the Group to achieve its sustainability performance target in relation to its greenhouse gas emissions or the failure of the Issuer to report on such key performance indicator in the required time periods, as further detailed in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and the applicable Final Terms.

Denomination of Notes:

Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer save that the minimum denomination of each Note will be such as may be allowed or required from time to time by the relevant central bank (or equivalent body) or any laws or regulations applicable to the relevant Specified Currency, see "Certain Restrictions – Notes with a maturity of less than one year" above, and save that Notes admitted to trading on a regulated market within the EEA or offered to the public in a Member State of the EEA in circumstances which would otherwise require the publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation will be issued in a denomination of not less than EUR 100,000 (or, if the Notes are denominated in a currency other than euro, the equivalent amount in such currency).

Taxation:

All payments in respect of the Notes will be made without deduction for or on account of withholding taxes imposed by any Tax Jurisdiction (unless required by law), subject as provided in Condition 7. In the event that any such deduction is made, the Issuer will, save in certain limited circumstances as provided in Condition 7, be required to pay additional amounts to cover the amounts so deducted.

Negative Pledge:

The terms of the Notes will contain a negative pledge provision as further described in Condition 3.

Cross Default:

The terms of the Notes will contain a cross default provision in respect of any indebtedness for borrowed money of the Issuer or any guarantee or indemnity given by the Issuer in respect of any borrowed money as further described in Condition 9.

Status of the Notes:

The Notes will constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and (subject to the provisions of Condition 2) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will rank pari passu among themselves and (save for certain obligations required to be preferred by law) equally with all other unsecured obligations (other than subordinated obligations, if any) of the Issuer, from time to time outstanding.

Rating:

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the Issuer has an investment-grade rating from S&P Global Ratings of BBB-.

The Programme is rated BBB- by S&P. As per the rating services of S&P, an obligation rated 'BBB' exhibits adequate protection parameters. However, adverse economic conditions or changing circumstances are more likely to weaken the obligor's capacity to meet its financial commitments on the obligation. The minus (-) sign shows relative standing within the rating categories.

Series of Notes issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Series of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the applicable Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Programme. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Approval, listing and admission to trading:

Application has been made to the CSSF to approve this document as a base prospectus. Application has also been made for Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

Notes may be listed or admitted to trading, as the case may be, on other or further stock exchanges or markets agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer in relation to each Tranche. Notes which are neither listed nor admitted to trading on any market may also be issued.

The applicable Final Terms will state whether or not the relevant Notes are to be listed and/or admitted to trading and, if so, on which stock exchanges and/or markets.

Governing Law:

The Notes and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with them will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

Selling Restrictions:

There are restrictions on the offer, sale and transfer of the Notes in, inter alia the United States, the EEA (including Belgium), the UK, Singapore and Japan and such other restrictions as may be required in connection with the offering and sale of a particular Tranche of Notes, see "Subscription and Sale".

RISK FACTORS

The Issuer believes that the following factors may affect its ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme. Certain risks which the Issuer currently deems not to be material as at the date of this Base Prospectus may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer believes that the following factors are the risks which are specific to the Issuer and/or to the Notes and which are material for making an informed investment decision.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are also described below.

The Issuer believes that the factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in Notes issued under the Programme, but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes may occur for other reasons which may not be considered significant risks by the Issuer based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently be able to anticipate. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out or incorporated by reference elsewhere in this Base Prospectus and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Factors that may have a material impact on (i) the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme and (ii) the assessment of market risks associated with Notes issued under the Programme are noted below, with the most material risk factors appearing first in each numbered category.

FACTORS THAT MAY AFFECT THE ISSUER'S ABILITY TO FULFIL ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

1. Risks related to the Issuer's business activities and industry

Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions

Demand for the Group's products is influenced by consumer confidence, which, in turn, is affected by macroeconomic and other conditions in the countries and regions where the Group operates, including the rate of growth in the global and local economies, disposable household income, unemployment levels, conditions in the real estate markets, population growth, currency rate fluctuations, tariffs and other measures restricting trade, commodity and energy prices and inflation. Political instability and uncertainties, armed conflicts, negative economic developments, inflationary pressures and high interest rates, increased financing costs, a lengthy recession, periods of sustained unemployment, loss of consumer confidence and the risk of further health crises, with a similar impact to the COVID-19 pandemic, are risks which could trigger a significant industry-wide decline in sales or could have a material adverse effect on the Group's net sales and operations in the markets in which it operates. Consumer demand in most of the Group's main markets in 2025 was impacted by geopolitical and economic uncertainty, with consumers shifting to lower price points in Europe, and inflation concerns related to tariffs weighing on consumer confidence in the United States. Whilst there are signs of recovery in Europe as a consequence of lower inflation and interest rates, market demand is expected to remain subdued due to continued dampening impact from geopolitical uncertainty, with this trend continuing into the first quarter of 2026. In April 2026, reflecting a close to 10 per cent. decline in the North American home appliance market in the first quarter of 2026, the Group revised its 2026 market outlook for North America from "Neutral to negative" to "Negative". A decline in consumer demand could, besides a decline in sales, also result in a shift in demand to lower priced products for which margins are often lower, which may particularly affect premium brands positioned at higher price points. Furthermore, the Group's sales and operational activity are subject to certain seasonal variations during the year, with demand typically higher in the third and fourth quarters, meaning that adverse macroeconomic developments occurring during this period may have a more pronounced impact on the Group's net sales, results and cash flows than similar events occurring at other times of the year.

The global economy has been impacted by geopolitical uncertainties, which have in turn affected and could potentially further affect the Group's results of operations. This includes for example, trade tensions involving the United States, China and other major economies (resulting in trade barriers and increased costs for the home appliances industry, which may be further exacerbated as geoeconomic uncertainty continues in North America, with general market pricing expected to adjust to reflect tariff-related costs, which may adversely impact consumer demand and market growth) and conflicts in the Middle East (including disruption to shipping in the Red Sea and trade barriers in the Strait of Hormuz following escalation of the Iran conflict). For example, in the fourth quarter of 2025, increased tariff costs in the United States had a significant negative impact on the Group's result in North America (with the Group's operating income in the region amounting to SEK -312 million in the fourth quarter of 2025, representing a deterioration year-on-year compared to SEK 45 million in the corresponding period in 2024), and in the first quarter of 2026, the Group's operating loss in North America increased (SEK -868 million compared to SEK -337 million in the first quarter of 2025). Primarily due to significant negative external factors, mainly related to tariff costs combined with challenging market conditions. Tariffs also had a negative impact on the Group's working capital in 2025 and the first quarter of 2026, since payment terms on tariffs are shorter term than those on receivables, hence they tie up more capital, mainly in higher inventory. The Group expects increased tariff costs to be a primary driver for significantly negative external factors in its business outlook for 2026. The United States administration's departure from established policy creates uncertainty with respect to future policy direction, which may result in unpredictable economic and geopolitical consequences. In general, increased protectionism and international trade restrictions may impact the business environment in which the Group and its various subsidiaries operate. Protectionist trade legislation in the United States, the European Union (EU) or other key markets, including changes in the current tariff structures, export or import compliance laws, or other trade policies may reduce the Group's ability to sell its products in such markets and increase the relative cost of the Group's products to local consumers, which could have a negative impact on demand. Any increase in protectionist policies could adversely affect the Group's revenue, costs, profits, business, financial condition, results or prospects. The global trend towards regionalisation may further result in international and/or regional trade measures, which may change rapidly, for example by causing retaliations against sanctions as well as increased tariffs. These issues create a complex business environment and increase the Group's risk exposure and are risks which could trigger a significant industry-wide decline in sales or could have a material adverse effect on the Group's net sales and operations in the markets in which it operates. In 2022 and 2023, for example, high inflation, increased interest rates and geopolitical tensions had a negative impact on the overall consumer demand, with the Group's organic sales declining by 2.8 per cent. and 4.0 per cent. respectively, and the Group's operating margin being -0.2 per cent. and -2.2 per cent. respectively in those years. The Group actively monitors geopolitical developments which may potentially negatively impact its operations and stakeholders. However, increasing inter-state competition amplifies traditional security threats and creates new unpredictable ones.

The ongoing conflict between Russia and Ukraine continues to have significant effects on the global economy, including labour and supply shortages, increased commodity prices, volatility in the financial markets, global inflation and increased energy prices (which have negatively impacted consumer behaviour and increased production costs). The Group successfully completed its exit from the Russian market in September 2022, and continues to regularly re-evaluate the risks associated with its limited operations in Ukraine. The Group may also be exposed to risks related to compliance with related sanctions, although the Group has policies and procedures in place to assist it with compliance (see "Risks related to compliance" below).

The geopolitical landscape has been further impacted by the ongoing conflict in the Middle East, the future trajectory of which remains uncertain. Related hostilities such as attacks (and various military retaliatory actions) on shipping in the Red Sea and the Strait of Hormuz, as well as increasing military activity and broader regional conflict in the Taiwan Strait and the South China Sea – all of which remain uncertain in nature, magnitude and duration. The possibility of further geopolitical tension, combined with renewed inflationary pressures from the recent escalation in the Middle East, are factors which have contributed to challenging economic conditions and ongoing market uncertainty, meaning a sustained period of low economic growth in some of the Group's markets may continue.

This, combined with ongoing macroeconomic uncertainty and principal supply chain risks could have an impact on the Group's utilisation of production capacity, which may adversely impact the operations of the Group. Emerging new geopolitical areas of concern can disrupt manufacturing and supply chain systems and affect the Group's costs for production, energy, raw material and transportation as well as currency exchange rate development, all of which could have a material adverse effect on the financial results of the Group.

Uncertainty about future economic and industry conditions makes it challenging for the Group to forecast its operating results, make business decisions, and identify and prioritise the risks that may affect its businesses, sources and uses of cash and financial condition. The Group's long-term borrowing targets include an average time to maturity of at least two years, an even spread of maturities and an average interest-fixing period of between zero and three years, and a maximum of SEK 8,000 million of the Group's long-term borrowings is typically allowed to mature in any 6-month period. These targets are subject to exceptions approved by the Board of Directors to retain financial and operational flexibility. Further macroeconomic downturns may increase the borrowing costs of the Group and result in the need for further financing to allow for financial flexibility. Any other adverse developments in the financial markets may also have a negative impact on the Group's ability to obtain sufficient or affordable financing, or access liquidity levels necessary to maintain its financial condition and ongoing operations. Building upon the Group-wide cost reduction programme announced in September 2022 and accelerated in late 2023, the Group's cost reduction activities in 2025 delivered SEK 4.0 billion in cost savings, with a further SEK 0.7 billion delivered in Q1 2026. However, there is a risk that these efforts may not be sufficient, and the Group may be required to implement additional cost reduction efforts, including restructuring activities, which may adversely affect its ability to capitalise on opportunities in a market recovery. If the Group does not adapt in a timely and appropriate manner to changes resulting from the uncertain macroeconomic environment and industry conditions or to difficulties in the financial markets, or if it is unable to continue to access the capital markets, the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme may be affected.

Any of the factors above may adversely affect the Group's business, results of operations and financial performance and may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Dependency on third-party suppliers

The Group's manufacturing process relies heavily on the availability and timely supply of components and raw materials, primarily from third-party suppliers, as well as the effective functioning of global logistics networks. The Group is also dependent on the availability and timely supply of finished products sourced from original equipment manufacturers (OEMs). The Group has approximately 1,500 direct material suppliers and approximately 120 OEM suppliers, as well as a large number of suppliers of indirect material. In addition, the Group relies on third-party providers of IT infrastructure and services, including cloud services, data hosting, connectivity and other digital solutions, providers of OT systems and services used in its manufacturing processes as well as on the continuous supply of energy, including electricity. Certain logistics, IT service providers (such as providers of core enterprise IT platforms, hosting and network services) and OT providers are material to the Group's operations due to their scale or system integration, which may limit the Group's ability to replace such providers on short notice, even where contractual exit mechanisms are in place. Any disruption in the supply chain, whether due to raw material shortages, transportation delays, geopolitical tensions, imposition of tariffs, or supplier-related challenges, could adversely affect the Group's production capacity, cost structure, and financial performance. In 2025, the cost of raw materials equated to approximately 37.3 per cent. of the Group's net sales. While supply problems can affect the performance of most of the Group's product lines, it is particularly sensitive to supply problems related to electronic components, specialised materials, compressors, steel, plastics, aluminium and copper. Moreover, shortages or delays in the supply of raw materials, components, finished products and commodities, whether due to capacity constraints, scarcity of certain materials, logistics bottlenecks, energy shortages or increased global demand, would adversely affect the Group's ability to manufacture or market its products. If a strategically important supplier, or a supplier with which the Group has an extensive relationship, ceases or interrupts production or deliveries or otherwise fails to supply the Group, there is a risk that the Group will be unable to obtain these finished products, components or raw materials for a certain period of time and/or at an acceptable cost.

Furthermore, the Group is dependent on its suppliers and other external parties fulfilling their contractual commitments in terms of quality and delivery time, and complying with the Group's guidelines and industry standards in the areas of environment, labour, anti-corruption, competition, human rights and business ethics. There is a risk that the Group's business partners will not deliver on time or in line with the cost or quality they have committed to and/or that they will not comply with applicable guidelines and industry standards. The Group is exposed to the risk of supply constraints as a result of unpredictable events, such as ocean capacity challenges (including unexpected port congestion, labour shortages and maritime transport delays) and geopolitical conflict in key logistics corridors and maritime chokepoints, for example the ongoing war in Ukraine, conflict in the Middle East (including disruption to shipping in the Red Sea and the trade barriers in the Strait of Hormuz following escalation of the Iran conflict), and elevated tensions in the Taiwan Strait and, the South China Sea (see also "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above), as well as unforeseeable production issues at suppliers' factories. The Group continues to work closely with its suppliers to avoid both temporary and ongoing supply-related problems and is increasing its supply of sourced finished products. The Group offers a select number of suppliers the opportunity to utilise supply chain finance programmes (which aid suppliers in releasing cash) in order to reduce supplier financial risk, but there can be no assurances that this will mitigate major supply chain vulnerabilities or that the Group will not otherwise encounter problems managing supply chain disruption in the future. The principal supply chain risks include escalations in geopolitical events, weather and climate-related disruptions and general supply shortages for key materials and components and finished products, as well as disruptions affecting critical IT infrastructure or digital service providers, which may create production issues and impact customers significantly as well as increase costs associated with manufacturing adaptation.

Both the Group's internal operations and external operations at suppliers' facilities are also subject to disruption for a variety of reasons, including, but not limited to, work stoppages, labour relations, breakdown in machinery, industrial accidents, intellectual property claims against suppliers, information technology (IT) failures, pandemic-related business shutdowns, conflicts and hazards such as fire, earthquakes, flooding, or other natural disasters, insurance for any of which may not be available, affordable or adequate (see also "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above). Such disruption could interrupt the Group's ability to manufacture certain products or interrupt the supply to the Group of certain sourced finished products. Any significant disruption could interrupt the Group's ability to manufacture certain products or interrupt the supply to the Group of certain sourced finished products, and could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Risks associated with international operations

As a result of its worldwide operations, the Group is subject to a wide range of local laws, regulations and controls, and various non-binding treaties and guidelines, such as those related to employee safety, employee relations, product safety and exchange controls. The Group's international footprint increases the complexity of ensuring consistent compliance with applicable laws and regulations, which may be subject to change, uneven interpretation or inconsistent enforcement across jurisdictions (see also "Risks related to compliance" below). Changes in regulatory requirements, economic and political instability, tariffs and other trade barriers and price or exchange controls could limit the Group's operations in certain countries, as well as in other markets where the Group operates, and make the repatriation of profits difficult.

In addition, terrorist attacks, armed conflicts (including Russia's ongoing invasion of Ukraine, current hostilities in the Middle East (including the escalation of the Iran conflict and the near-closure of the Strait of Hormuz), unrest in the Taiwan Strait and territorial disputes in the South China Sea), natural disasters, cyber-attacks or other major disruptions to the IT infrastructure, governmental actions as well as epidemics and pandemics that affect the Group's domestic and international operations in a significant way, disrupt its supply chain and impair its ability to produce and deliver its products, present a significant risk to the Group. Such events may directly impact the Group's physical facilities or those of its suppliers or customers around the world, which would adversely affect the Group's business and results of operations (see also "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above).

The Group's international operations expose the Group to other risks, including unfavourable political changes, unforeseen legislative changes, inconsistent application of existing laws and regulations, ambiguous regulatory systems, customs compliance, and tax systems as well as different methods and routines for conducting business operations. In 2022, the Group decided to exit the Russian market following Russia's invasion of Ukraine; the Group may exit other international markets in the future where it is unfavourable to continue business from a reputational and legal standpoint. International operations in certain jurisdictions also expose the Group to potentially longer payment cycles, difficulties in obtaining payment of accounts receivable and repatriating cash funds from certain countries, as well as increased risks of customer losses. Such factors may lead to a decline in sales and thus adversely affect the Group's operations in the jurisdictions and region concerned. Uncertainty of the legal environment in some of the countries in which the Group operates could limit its ability to effectively enforce its rights in those markets.

Development of new products

The Group competes in the highly competitive home appliance industry characterised by rapidly changing technologies, evolving industry standards and continual improvements in performance characteristics and product features. Due to the highly volatile nature of the markets across the Group's product categories, innovation and development of products and related solutions are critical factors in improving margins and enabling net sales growth in all of the Group's product lines. The pace, focus and nature of innovation and development, as well as competitive dynamics, may differ between the Group's product categories, reflecting differences in product functionality, consumer usage, regulatory requirements and technology adoption. To meet the customers' needs across these markets, the Group must continuously design new products, and update existing products and services as well as invest in and develop new technologies and functionalities, including digital, connected and smart solutions. For example, in 2024, the Group introduced a new AEG kitchen range with AI-assisted cooking features and in 2025, the Group launched a stone-baked pizza mode in one of Frigidaire's cooker ranges. Product development is also driven by customer demand for better environmental performance and lower cost of use, such as improved energy and water efficiency. Introducing new products and solutions requires significant management time and a high level of financial and other commitments to research and development, which may not result in success.

The global economy and the home appliance industry are moving towards digitalisation and there is increasing reliance in premium segments of the worldwide market on connected and Internet of Things-enabled (IoT) products for enhanced appliance performance, user experience and product features. The pace of these changes has accelerated in recent years, including through increased usage of artificial intelligence (AI). The Group must closely monitor how it participates in the global digital transformation and develops connected products as well as IoT and AI solutions by creating electronics and software platforms that span across product categories, and the Group must rely heavily on talent attraction, retention and upskilling in order to achieve this (see also "Retaining executives and qualified employees" below). For example, the Group is seeking to scale and embed AI across multiple domains, including connected products, autonomous planning and e-commerce solutions. There is a risk that the Group's investments in connectivity, IoT, AI or other advanced technologies will not be successful, will not function as intended, or will not keep pace with technological developments or innovation by competitors, including more integrated smart home platforms and ecosystems or disruptive innovations that may materially alter product functionality or consumer expectations. Any failure to execute these initiatives effectively and in a timely manner may adversely affect the Group's delivery of sustainable consumer experience, innovation, and profitable growth. The Group's sales and the Issuer's net income may suffer if it fails to successfully anticipate and appropriately react to changes in customer preferences or if investments are made in solutions or technologies that do not function as expected or are not accepted in the marketplace.

Risks relating to the relocation of manufacturing capacity

As part of its cost reduction strategy, the Group has in the past, and may in the future, relocate, transfer or discontinue some of its manufacturing and production capacity and it is continuously evaluating such projects in order to optimise production.

The relocation, transfer, downsizing or closure of production can be a costly and complex process and presents a risk of additional disruptions and delays during the transition period. Such measures may also result in restructuring costs, impairment charges, labour-related challenges and other costs associated with winding down operations. In addition, during such relocations and transfers the Group is dependent on cost-efficient deliveries of components and half-finished goods from suppliers. Furthermore, the Group may continue to incur additional costs after the relocation process during the time that the new facility is in the ramp-up stage and the Group might be unable to successfully transition production to different facilities or to third parties. For example, in 2025 the Group inaugurated the Gralha Azul facility in Brazil, representing the Group's most significant expansion initiative within Latin America to date. During the initial operational phase, the factory commenced production of Wellbeing products, including fans and blenders, with plans underway to expand output with the forthcoming transfer of additional product lines, such as pressure washers and water purifiers.

Further, as part of its global manufacturing footprint optimisation, the Group announced on 31 March 2026 the closure of its Santiago, Chile factory (effective end of April 2026) and, during the first quarter of 2026, implemented downsizing measures in respect of its operations in Argentina, together resulting in a combined negative non-recurring item of SEK 463 million (recorded within cost of goods sold) affecting the Group's operating income in the first quarter of 2026, and subsequently announced on 22 April 2026 the closure of its Jászberény, Hungary factory effective end of 2026, resulting in a negative non-recurring item of SEK 0.6 billion that will affect the Group's operating income in the second quarter of 2026. In addition, the Group announced in April 2026 a long-term strategic partnership with Midea Group in North America, which will be structured as three Joint Ventures and involve the re-purposing of the Anderson (South Carolina) facility into a Fabric Care factory, with up to approximately 1,200 employees expected to be hired gradually across 2027 and 2028. The ramp-up of such new or re-purposed facilities may result in additional costs or production inefficiencies during the transition period. By way of further example, whilst the Group's transition of U.S. food preparation appliance manufacturing (which includes, amongst other things, the production of wall ovens and new front control cookers) in Springfield, Tennessee contributed to a positive earnings effect from cost efficiencies in 2024, the ramp-up of the new factory resulted in certain production inefficiencies during the year. During a transitional period, the Group operated parallel manufacturing facilities, which led to additional costs, and delays in the ramp-up, combined with insufficient safety stock, limited the Group's ability to fully meet customer demand during the period. Any prolonged disruption in the operations of any of its manufacturing facilities or any unforeseen delay in shifting manufacturing operations to new facilities or to third parties, or in connection with closures, whether due to technical or labour difficulties or delays in regulatory approvals, could result in delays in shipments of products to the Group's customers, increased costs, and reduced revenues. There is also a risk that, in the future, the Group will be unable to build new plants or make investments in existing plants on favourable terms, or will be unable to rationalise production, if required, or to adopt advanced manufacturing technologies at a pace comparable to its competitors. Any such limitations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's manufacturing capabilities and, in turn, on the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Market competition and price pressure

The Group operates in a highly competitive business environment and faces intense competition from a number of competitors, many of which have strong consumer brand equity. In recent years, competition from manufacturers headquartered in China, other parts of Asia and Turkey has intensified in several markets. The Group may also face competition from smaller and more agile competitors, including digital-first brands and new market entrants in specific product segments. For example, the floor care market has in recent years experienced an inflow of Chinese companies developing robot vacuum cleaners with a high pace of innovation and rapid time-to-market. Furthermore, the growth of retailers' own brands has created further options for consumers and increased competition. Competition in the global appliance market is based on several factors including selling price, product features and design, performance, innovation, reputation, energy efficiency, quality, cost, distribution, and financial incentives, such as cooperative advertising, co-marketing funds, salesperson incentives, volume rebates and terms. This is compounded by the impact of global economic circumstances on customer behaviour (see also “Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions” above). In addition, the Group's results are affected by estimates relating to customer rebates and other commercial incentives, which may need to be revised in response to changes in pricing conditions or market dynamics. Any such revisions could adversely affect the Group's operating income, as illustrated in the first quarter of 2026, when changes in accounting estimates for customer rebate provisions, reflecting prior price volatility, negatively impacted the operating income. Tariffs and other trade barriers may adversely affect the pricing of the Group's products and its competitive position as certain competitors may be better positioned to absorb such costs without increasing prices. The Group may not be able to offset increased tariff-related costs through price increases, which could result in lower sales, reduced margins and loss of market share for the Group. For example, price increases implemented by the Group in North America in 2025 to cover increased U.S. tariff-related costs had to be reduced in the fourth quarter of 2025 due to a challenging pricing environment, which had a negative effect on the region's operating margin. In the first quarter of 2026, the Group was unable to offset external cost headwinds in North America through pricing actions given the prevailing market conditions, as market price levels did not yet reflect tariff-related cost increases. As of 6 April 2026, the United States implemented changes to its Section 232 import tariffs, which are expected to result in significant additional tariff costs for the Group (see also “Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions” above). The extent to which the Group will be able to offset these additional costs through price increases in a challenging market environment remains uncertain and constitutes a significant risk to the Group's margins and results of operations. In addition, tariffs and other measures restricting trade affecting access to certain markets, including the United States, may lead competitors, particularly manufacturers based in Asia, to redirect excess production or inventory to other regions, including Europe, which could increase competitive intensity and price pressure in those regions.

The Group's competitors continue to introduce new products and solutions to increase market share and are increasingly expanding into new geographies, including through acquisitions of local appliance companies. In recent years, acquisitions of European appliance companies by Chinese manufacturers have increased their presence in Europe, enabling them to compete more directly with both locally manufactured products and products imported from Asia. At the same time, the home appliance sector in Europe has been characterised by weak market dynamics, structurally higher-cost conditions and increasing operational complexity. Competitors may also develop alternative business and revenue models, such as leasing, subscription-based or pay-per-use solutions, which could alter consumer purchasing patterns and competitive dynamics. The Group may lack the business agility to respond to or be unable to foresee such external expansions or product, technology and business model developments, including more integrated smart home platforms and ecosystems or disruptive product innovations and technologies, that could impact overall consumer behaviour (see also “Development of new products” above). A number of the markets served by the Group have been experiencing, and continue to experience, strong price competition. This is particularly severe in the low-cost segments and in product categories serviced by several of the Group's competitors. Downturns in market conditions, including shifts by consumers to lower price points as seen in Europe and North America in 2025 and the first quarter of 2026 can increase such price competition.

Some markets in which the Group operates, such as the European and North American major home appliance markets, are characterised by a high degree of consolidation, which may result in stronger competitors and a change in the Group's relative market position. In response to an increasingly competitive environment, the Group and other manufacturers may be forced to increase efficiency by further reducing costs along the value chain, including through the implementation of advanced or disruptive manufacturing processes and automation technologies. Increased competition that requires the Group to lower its prices in order to retain customers and market shares could have a material adverse effect on its margins and results of operations. Furthermore, the development of alternative distribution channels, such as online sales, could also contribute to further price pressure within the Group's markets. The Group may not be able to carry out price increases to a sufficient extent (or at all) to offset these potential negative effects, and there is a risk that the Group may not be able to adapt to these changes or increase or maintain its market share.

Exposure to retail chains and dependence on large customers

In the markets in which the Group operates, the Group sells appliances mainly in the wholesale market to a sophisticated customer base of large trade customers (retailers) that have significant leverage as buyers over their suppliers. The customers can choose from several suppliers and demand competitive products, services, and prices. Most of the Group's products are sold through short-term contracts, which allow for flexibility in pricing and volume terms and facilitates the trade customers' ability to change volume among suppliers. As a result, the Group has limited long-term contractual visibility over sales volumes, pricing and customer commitments, and may be exposed to sudden changes in demand or pricing at short notice. As the Group's trade customers continue to become larger, they may seek to use their position to improve their profitability by various means, including more stringent commercial terms, lower pricing, and increased promotional programmes, which could exert increased pressure on the Group's pricing, margins and commercial terms and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's profitability and cash flows. In addition, increasing cross-border consolidation and the expansion of large international retail and e-commerce groups into certain of the Group's key markets may further increase customer concentration and bargaining power as well as alter competitive dynamics. Such developments could result in changes to retailers' product assortment or promotional focus that may adversely affect the Group's sales volumes and market position.

In addition, the loss of market share by any of the Group's key retail customers, major buying groups, or any other trade customers to which the Group sells a significant volume of products, or the loss of any one or more of such trade customers, could result in a substantial decline in the Group's sales volumes and adversely affect its financial performance. Moreover, in the event of a loss of a key trade customer, end consumers may choose to purchase products from alternative companies who are not customers of the Group. There is also a risk that the Group's key retail customers, major buying groups or other trade customers face financial difficulties, insolvency or bankruptcy or, due to geopolitical factors or catastrophic events, fail in their sales efforts (see further "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above and "Exposure to credit risk from its customers" below). If the Group were to experience a material reduction in orders by volume or revenues, it would adversely impact its net sales and results of operations.

Risks relating to the business transformation initiatives

On 23 April 2026, the Group launched business transformation initiatives, including a plan to improve efficiency across its organisation through an optimisation of the Group's global manufacturing footprint to further increase agility across the organisation, as well as a long-term strategic partnership in North America with Midea, a global publicly listed smart home solutions and commercial and industrial solutions provider, headquartered in China.

The operational efficiency plan involves efforts to improve capacity utilisation and drive cost efficiencies in addition to staff reductions globally, across functions. As a result of these initiatives, the Group is expected to report total negative non-recurring items of approximately SEK 2.2 billion over the next two years, of which approximately SEK 1.5 billion is cash related. Furthermore, the Group expects to invest SEK 0.6 billion over three years to implement the plan. The targeted optimisation is expected to result in a net reduction of approximately 3,000 employees globally over the next three years.

The long-term strategic partnership with Midea, which is expected to commence in the third quarter of 2026, covers food preservation (refrigeration) manufacturing and sales and fabric care (laundry) manufacturing in North America. The partnership involves three joint ventures pursuant to which the Group and Midea will (i) jointly co-develop and sell food preservation products for North America, with the Group and Midea each holding a 50 per cent. stake in the joint venture, (ii) jointly operate the Group's current food preservation manufacturing facility in Juárez, Mexico, with the Group holding a 35 per cent. stake in the joint venture, and (iii) jointly operate the Group's current manufacturing facility in Anderson, South Carolina, which will be repurposed from food preservation into fabric care, with the Group holding a 55 per cent. ownership stake in the joint venture. As a result of the partnership, the Group expects to report total negative non-recurring items of approximately SEK 2.4 billion in the second quarter of 2026, of which approximately SEK 0.9 billion will be cash-related. Furthermore, the partnership is expected to require approximately SEK 1.1 billion in capital expenditure by the Group over the next three years. The partnership is expected to result in the reduction of approximately 1,500 employees in 2026.

While the business transformation initiatives, including the partnership with Midea, are intended to achieve certain operational and financial objectives, the implementation of the initiatives is complex and subject to substantial risks and uncertainties, including the risk that the implementation may take longer or become more costly than anticipated. The Group may also encounter delays in phasing out or ramping up production, challenges in reallocating capacity, delays in regulatory approvals, supply chain disruptions or unforeseen operational inefficiencies. The expected cost reductions, operational and financial efficiencies, competitive advantages or other anticipated benefits may not be realised to the extent or within the timeframe currently expected, or at all. Moreover, the relocation of production, increased reliance on third-party suppliers, including in Asia, and the strategic partnership in North America may trigger political scrutiny, affect customer relationships and impact brand perception. The initiatives also involve workforce reductions and organisational changes, which may give rise to employee-related risks, including loss of key personnel, difficulties in attracting and retaining qualified employees, delays in labour consultations and potential labour disputes or other industrial actions, such as strikes, in jurisdictions affected by the business transformation initiatives. Any such labour actions could disrupt operations, delay implementation and adversely affect the Group's operations and performance (see also "Risks associated with employment law"). In addition, restructuring measures may give rise to asset impairments, additional provisions or write-downs if anticipated benefits do not materialize or if market conditions deteriorate.

Due to the nature of the joint ventures, the Group will not unilaterally control the operating, strategic and financial policies of the joint ventures. If the Group and Midea, as joint venture partners, are unable to agree on strategic, operational or financial matters, this could result in delays, operational inefficiencies or other material adverse consequences on the joint ventures or the Group. If the Group and Midea cannot reach an agreement regarding significant and material business decisions that require the consent of both parties, a deadlock event could occur, which, if invoked, could be time-consuming, expensive, and disruptive to resolve, and could result in outcomes that are unfavourable to the Group. Midea may have interests, strategic priorities, commercial incentives or regulatory constraints that differ from those of the Group, and the Group may not be able to prevent actions or decisions with which it disagrees. Any failure by Midea to fulfil its obligations, including any funding, operational, supply, compliance or other obligations under the partnership agreements, or any disputes between the parties, could adversely affect the joint ventures and the Group's prospects. Further, any failure by the Group to fulfil its obligations under the partnership agreements, including any funding, operational, supply, compliance or other obligations, could adversely affect its reputation, prospects and its ability to enter into similar ventures and other cooperative arrangements in the future.

The partnership also involves operational transitions and integration efforts, and the anticipated efficiencies, cost reductions or other synergies may not be realised to the extent or within the timeframe expected, or at all. The success of the joint ventures will depend on market demand, timely product development and effective coordination between the parties. While the joint ventures are expected to commence in the third quarter of 2026, the joint ventures may not commence on the terms or timeline currently contemplated, or at all, because closing is subject to conditions outside the Group's control, including regulatory approvals and other closing conditions, including the satisfaction of the closing conditions in the other joint venture agreements. If implementation is delayed, more costly than anticipated, or if the joint ventures fail to execute their business plans or require additional financial support, the Group may not realise the expected strategic or financial benefits, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial position and results of operations. In addition, the accounting treatment of joint ventures, including their consolidation in the Group's financial statements, is subject to applicable accounting standards and their interpretation, which may change or be applied differently over time and could affect the Group's reported financial results and position.

The joint ventures may also require additional capital contributions, and the Group may be required to provide additional funding or other support to one or more joint ventures. If Midea does not provide its share of funding or other support, or if the joint ventures incur losses, the Group may be exposed to additional costs, impairments or operational disruption. If the Group is unable to successfully implement the business transformation initiatives, or if the anticipated benefits are not realised, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's competitiveness, cost structure, financial position and results of operations, and may limit its ability to achieve its strategic objectives.

The joint ventures will rely on intellectual property licensed by Electrolux Group and Midea, respectively, on a royalty-free basis, as well as on intellectual property developed within the joint ventures. Such arrangements may create risks relating to the scope, use and continued availability of licensed intellectual property, including with respect to the intellectual property that Midea will license to the joint ventures, including in connection with the long-term nature of the joint venture agreements and potential termination thereof. In particular, the Group has limited visibility into and control over the intellectual property of Midea, including any third-party claims or encumbrances that may affect the intellectual property licensed by Midea to the joint ventures. In addition, intellectual property developed by the joint ventures will be owned by the relevant joint venture, and, upon termination of any of the joint ventures, the parties have agreed to broad mutual access rights with respect to the intellectual property developed by such joint venture. Any limitations on the use of such intellectual property, or disputes regarding its ownership, scope or use, could adversely affect the Group's ability to operate or compete in the relevant product areas.

IT system failures and breaches in data security

The Group depends on IT and operational technology (OT) systems to improve the effectiveness of its operations and to interface with its customers, as well as to maintain financial accuracy and efficiency. Cyber-attacks, IT system failures and failures in OT systems (including suppliers' or vendors' system failures) could disrupt the Group's operations by causing transaction errors, processing inefficiencies, delays or cancellation of customer orders, the loss of customers, impediments to the manufacture or shipment of products, other business disruptions, or the loss of or damage to intellectual property through security breach. Developing areas of the business, including connected factories, smart products and the increasing use of automation, connectivity and AI-enabled systems, as well as remote working, could increase the IT and cyber risk exposure and the complexity of managing OT environments. A significant IT system failure, failures in OT systems or security breach could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme. This risk has been heightened since the acceleration of the digital transformation with an increased number of the Group's employees working from home on a regular basis, and more customers and suppliers working remotely.

IT system failures in the Group's key applications or hardware may have significant impacts on delivery, production, sales and other critical systems and functions. The Group's cyber-security risk lies primarily in its sales and manufacturing, supply chain or connected products being hacked. Information about products, contracts, selling prices and costs constitutes sensitive information that could be subject to cyber threats. The Group is primarily exposed to the risk of malware and ransomware attacks (including potential retaliatory cyber-attacks arising out of the ongoing Russia-Ukraine war or triggered by the implementation of sanctions against Russia), including increasingly sophisticated attacks that may leverage automation, connectivity or AI, but cyber-related risks may also arise as a consequence of loss of data due to insufficient or erroneous internal processes, unauthorised access, privacy violations, outages or technical faults, human error or natural disasters. These risks may occur at the Group's suppliers, customers and other external parties with whom the Group interacts. In the event of a breach affecting the Group's connected products, such products may become partially or fully inoperable, which could adversely impact end-consumers. Whilst the Group continuously prepares for cyber-attacks by assessing its cyber risk profile, implementing remediation measures where needed, and proactively managing its cyber defences, the Group's efforts may not be sufficient or effective, and cyber-related incidents could lead to business disruptions, loss of important data, reputational damage and financial losses.

In its operations, the Group processes personal data relating to, for example, customers, employees, suppliers and other individuals. Accordingly, the Group is subject to data protection and privacy laws in multiple jurisdictions, including the EU General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) (the GDPR). Greater connectivity and IoT functionality in the Group's products increases the volume of personal data processed by the Group and heightens data protection and cyber security risks. The Group also collects and processes confidential information necessary for the secure and efficient operations of its business. Any failure by the Group to comply with applicable data protection, privacy or information security laws or to adequately safeguard personal or confidential data, including as a result of deficiencies in the Group's IT systems or controls, could result in regulatory investigations, fines, sanctions, claims for damages and reputational harm, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations (see also "Risks related to compliance" below).

Acquisitions, partnership and disposals

As a tool to complement organic growth and/or as a result of, for example, changes in strategic focus or market conditions, the Group has in the past adjusted its operations, and may in the future do so, through acquisitions and strategic partnerships as well as divestments of businesses or assets. For example, in 2024, the Group divested its water heater business in South Africa and its potential legacy asbestos exposure in the United States by selling three U.S. subsidiaries, and in 2025, the Group divested its Kelvinator trademark portfolio in India. Furthermore, the Group announced a long-term strategic partnership with Midea on 23 April 2026 (see "Risks relating to the business transformation initiatives").

Transactions that the Group has entered into, or which it may enter into in the future, can also involve significant challenges and risks, including difficulties in integrating employees, operations, technologies and products. The Group may incur significant acquisition, administrative and other costs in connection with any such transactions, including costs related to the integration of acquired or restructured businesses. These costs may include unanticipated costs or expenses, including post-closing asset impairment charges, legal, regulatory and contractual costs, and expenses associated with eliminating duplicate facilities. In addition, the Group may incur unanticipated costs, expenses or other liabilities as a result of an acquisition target's violation of applicable laws and regulations, such as anti-bribery and anti-corruption regulations, and other issues that the Group fails to identify during due diligence reviews, if carried out. Furthermore, contractual protections obtained in connection with acquisitions may be subject to limitations and hence not fully protect the Group. There can be no assurances that the Group will be able to successfully integrate any businesses it acquires into existing operations or that any acquired business or partnership will perform according to expectations. Partnerships may also give rise to risks relating to governance, decision-making, operational dependence on partners, differing business practices or objectives, and the actions or financial condition of partners, which may adversely affect the Group. Similarly, divestments of businesses or certain assets may involve significant execution risk and may be more complex, time-consuming or costly than anticipated, or may not be completed on the expected timetable or on favourable terms, which may adversely affect the Group's net sales, results of operations and cash flows. Divestments may also involve difficulties in separating operations, systems, employees and contractual arrangements, potential disruption to ongoing business activities, transaction-related costs and stranded costs, and may not generate the anticipated strategic or financial outcomes. Divestments may also require the Group to establish transitional service arrangements or continue to provide operational, administrative, IT, finance, procurement, logistics or other support services to divested businesses for a period of time, which may be resource-intensive, costly and divert management attention from the Group's remaining operations. Moreover, notwithstanding any contractual allocation of liabilities in connection with a divestment, the Group may remain subject to liabilities or third-party claims relating to divested businesses or assets, and any indemnities or other contractual protections may prove insufficient.

Risks relating to integrating and achieving expected benefits from past and future acquisitions

The Group may not realise the degree or timing of benefits it anticipated when it first entered into a transaction. Anticipated synergies may not materialise, revenue improvements and cost savings may be less than expected and sales of products may not meet expectations. The Group cannot guarantee that recently acquired businesses or the integration of any future acquisitions will generate benefits for the Group that are sufficient to justify the purchase price, necessary investments and acquisition expenses .

Part of the Group's strategy depends on accelerating growth through profitable acquisitions. Execution of this strategy will require the continued pursuit of acquisitions and investments and will depend on the Group's ability to identify suitable acquisition candidates and investment opportunities. The Group cannot be certain that it will be able to identify and acquire, on reasonable terms, if at all, suitable acquisition candidates or investment opportunities. With continuing consolidation being a likely industry trend, the Group could be faced with increasing competition for attractive acquisition candidates. Compliance with antitrust or any other regulations may delay proposed acquisitions or prevent the Group from closing such acquisitions or investments in the manner proposed, if at all. Such delay or failure to close proposed acquisitions could impair the Group's ability to achieve its strategic objectives. Moreover, the Group may be required to incur additional indebtedness or issue equity to finance acquisitions and such financing may not be available on favourable terms, or at the required times. Also, failure to identify and/or acquire or the acquisition of unsuitable candidates or the making of unsuitable investments could impair the Group's ability to achieve its strategic objectives.

Inventory and other asset risk

The Group keeps a significant stock of raw materials, components and work-in-progress at its production units and stores finished products mostly at its sales units and distribution centres. Valuation of inventory is important for a fair presentation of key performance indicators such as gross margin. The Group writes down product and component inventories that have become obsolete or do not meet anticipated demand or net realisable value. In 2025, the Group's write-downs of inventories due to obsolescence amounted to SEK 106 million, while reversals of previous write-downs, due to inventories either scrapped or sold, amounted to SEK 350 million, with both amounts affecting the Group's cost of goods sold.

The Group also reviews its non-current assets, including goodwill, for impairment whenever events or changed circumstances indicate the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. As of 31 March 2026, the Group reported goodwill of SEK 4,906 million as well as other intangible assets of SEK 4,509 million, corresponding in total to 8.2 per cent. of the Group's total assets. If the Group determines that impairment has occurred, it records a write-down to adjust carrying value to fair value. If no market data is available to determine the fair value, the Group estimates fair value by using the discounted cash-flow method based on expected future results. Differences in the estimation of expected future results and the discount rates used could have resulted, or result in the future, in different asset valuations. Such differences and any inventory or asset-related write-downs, or management estimates in respect thereof that prove to be materially inaccurate, could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Risks relating to product quality

The Group's value chain comprises all the steps in its operations, from research and development, through production, marketing and sales. Operational and other failures in the Group's value chain processes (including through the use of components and finished products sourced from third-party suppliers and original equipment manufacturers (OEMs)) could result in quality problems or give rise to potential product, labour safety, regulatory or environmental risks. As the Group operates globally, including through production and sales activities in emerging markets, it is also exposed to operational, compliance and control risks in certain parts of its value chain, which, if not effectively managed, could adversely affect the consistency and quality of products (see also "Risks associated with international operations" above). In addition, failure to consistently meet applicable product quality, performance and safety standards across the Group's product portfolio could result in increased customer complaints, reduced customer satisfaction and damage to the Group's brands and reputation. Unforeseen product quality problems in the development, sourcing and production of new and existing products could result in loss of market share and significantly higher warranty expenses. There is also a risk that the provision in the Group's financial statements to cover warranty commitments will not be adequate to cover all future contingencies. Any such failures or quality issues could result in increased warranty costs and remediation measures, and have a material adverse effect on the Group's operating profit, cash flows and reputation, which in turn could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme (see also "Risks associated with product recalls and product liability actions" below).

Risks related to a failure to maintain the Group's reputation and brand image

Several of the Group's brands, such as Electrolux, AEG and Frigidaire, have broad international recognition, while others are primarily recognised in specific regional markets. The Group's success depends on its ability to maintain and enhance its reputation and brand image. Maintaining, promoting and growing the Group's brand image depend on its design and marketing efforts, including advertising and consumer campaigns, as well as product innovation. The Group could be adversely impacted if it fails to achieve any of these objectives or if, whether or not justified, the reputation or image of any of its brands is tarnished or receives negative publicity. This risk is particularly pronounced in relation to the Group's premium product offerings, where customer expectations regarding quality, reliability, service and overall customer experience are generally higher. In addition, adverse publicity about regulatory or legal action (or a threat of such action) against the Group could damage its reputation and brand image, undermine customer confidence in the Group and reduce long-term demand for its products, even if the regulatory or legal action is unfounded or not expected to have a material impact on its operations.

In addition, the Group's success in maintaining, extending and expanding its brand image depends on its ability to adapt to a rapidly changing media environment, including its increasing reliance on social media and online dissemination of advertising campaigns. Negative posts or comments about the Group or its products or services on social networking and other websites that spread rapidly through such forums could seriously damage its reputation and brand image.

Following the spin-off and listing in 2020 of Electrolux Professional AB (Electrolux Professional) on Nasdaq Stockholm, there are two separate global groups whose brands and trademarks consist of "Electrolux". Accordingly, since both Electrolux Professional and the Group use a commercial name and trademark that include "Electrolux", any negative occurrences or publicity about Electrolux Professional could also affect the Group's reputation and brand image, undermine confidence in the Group and reduce demand for its products, even if the Group is not involved in the potential negative occurrence or publicity, which may affect the Group's net sales and results of operations. In addition, through its global brand licensing business unit, the Group licenses its brands to certain industry partners. Failures by such licensees to maintain appropriate product standards may also damage the Group's brands and reputation.

Retaining executives and qualified employees

Dedicated employees and committed managers play an important role in the Group achieving its targets and visions. The Group depends upon the continued services and performance of its key executives, senior management and skilled personnel, particularly its professionals with experience across the Group's operations and value chain and in the home appliance industry. The Group may face challenges in retaining these individuals, particularly in times of financial constraints and business reorganisations. Hiring and developing replacement personnel when skilled personnel leave the Group is time-consuming and may require significant internal resources and additional costs. In addition, as digitalisation, connectivity, automation and AI are becoming increasingly important differentiators within the industry, hiring and retaining engineers possessing the relevant qualifications is key for the Group. An inability to hire, develop, engage and retain a sufficient number of qualified employees could materially hinder the Group's business by, for example, impairing its ability to successfully develop new products, solutions and technologies, delaying its ability to bring new products to market or impairing its ability to successfully identify new business opportunities and execute its strategy (see also "Development of new products" above).

In a highly competitive business environment, the Group's ability to attract and retain a workforce with relevant skills and experience is important to its operations. Recruitment and retention can be particularly challenging in emerging markets, where there is intense competition for skilled employees and the overall pool of skilled personnel may be limited. Furthermore, not being able to accommodate flexible working preferences may make it more difficult to attract and retain skilled employees. An increase in remuneration levels to attract and retain talent could adversely affect the Group's results of operations. Conversely, if the Group were to offer remuneration levels that do not align with prevailing market expectations, there is a risk that the Group experiences increased employee turnover, which could adversely affect the Group's operations and performance.

2. Risks related to the Issuer's financial situation

Liquidity and financing risks

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk of the Group not being able to meet its payment obligations due to lack of liquidity or due to the inability to convert assets into liquidity without incurring a loss. The Group is also exposed to the risk that financing of the Group's capital requirements and refinancing of existing borrowings becomes more difficult, costly or impossible, which may in turn arise from matters outside of its control, such as a credit crisis or severe adverse economic conditions in the countries in which the Group operates (see further "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above). The Group's long-term borrowing targets include an average time to maturity of at least two years, an even spread of maturities and an average interest-fixing period of between zero and three years, and a maximum of SEK 8,000 million of the Group's long-term borrowings is typically allowed to mature in any 6-month period. As of 31 March 2026, the Group's total interest-bearing liabilities amounted to SEK 40,452 million, of which SEK 29,852 million referred to long-term borrowings including maturities within 12 months. The Group's short-term borrowings amounted to SEK 11,415 million. Further macroeconomic downturns may increase the borrowing costs of the Group and result in the need for additional financing to allow for financial flexibility. Any other adverse developments in the financial markets may also have a negative impact on the Group's ability to obtain sufficient or affordable financing, or access liquidity levels necessary to maintain its financial condition and ongoing operations. In addition, the Group's ability to utilise cash across the Group may be affected by restrictions on the repatriation of funds between Group companies, which could adversely affect the Group's liquidity and financial position (see "Risks associated with international operations" above).

Certain adverse developments in the financial markets, over the past years, such as the increase of interest rates, have increased the general cost of borrowing, and this could be further exacerbated in the future by uncertain market conditions. Higher borrowing costs may limit the Group's ability to fund critical capital expenditure, investment within the Group, acquisitions and other expenditure, impeding its competitiveness and exacerbating its exposure to market risks. Several of the Group's financing agreements contain, and may also in the future contain, certain restrictive conditions with respect to, for example, divestments and pledging of assets. Such conditions may limit the Group's ability to obtain additional capital or financing through new loans or the sale of assets. In addition, the Group's ability to utilise cash across the Group may be affected by restrictions on the repatriation of funds between Group companies, which could adversely affect the Group's liquidity and financial position (see further "Risks associated with international operations" above).

As at 31 March 2026, the Group's financial net debt amounted to SEK 30,597 million. Whilst the Group maintains its long-term borrowing targets (see further "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above), any significant increase in the Group's indebtedness could increase the Group's vulnerability to, and reduce its flexibility to address, general economic and industry-related conditions. Moreover, it would restrict the Group's flexibility with respect to planning for, or reacting to, changes in the Group's business, competitive landscape and the industry in which the Group operates, and adversely affect the Group's competitiveness, especially if its indebtedness exceeds that of its competitors.

There is a risk that significant decreases in the Group's creditworthiness or profitability, significant increases in interest rates and considerable decreases in the availability of credit, a downgrade in the Group's credit rating (as occurred in August 2025) or the tightening of terms or lending standards required by lenders would limit the Group's access to capital, including its ability to issue additional debt and equity, and that the Group may therefore not be able to meet its payment obligations, which could have consequences under its financing arrangements and materially disrupt the Group's operations and financial position, and may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Exposure to credit risk from its customers

The Group sells products to a substantial number of customers in the form of large retailers, buying groups, independent stores, and individual consumers. The Group has a concentration of credit exposures to a number of major customers, particularly in the United States, Latin America and Europe. The uncertain market conditions and intense competition in some of the Group's major markets in recent years has impacted the Group's customers, some of which are facing difficult business and financial conditions. Financial difficulties, including bankruptcy, of any of the Group's key trade customers could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business and financial performance. If the Group were to become unable to fully collect its accounts receivable from any major trade customer, its net sales and results of operations could be adversely affected. Prolonged payment cycles or a deterioration in the ability to collect trade receivables when due (resulting, for example, from prevailing economic conditions) could have a negative effect on the Group's liquidity and cash flow and require an increase of provisions for expected credit losses (see further "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above). As per 31 March 2026, the Group's provision for expected credit losses was SEK 300 million. Concentration of credit risk related to a single counterparty did not exceed 8.5 per cent. of the Group's total trade receivables at any time during 2025, though expected credit losses are subject to uncertainty and may increase over time. Any changes in circumstances such as significantly higher than expected defaults or changes in the financial situation of a significant customer could lead to significantly different valuations and could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme (see also "Exposure to retail chains and dependence on large customers" above).

Risks related to changes in commodity prices

The Group is subject to risks related to changes in commodity prices (including prices for raw materials, components, energy and other production-related resources) as the ability to recover increased costs through higher pricing may be limited by the competitive environment in which the Group operates. The Group is exposed to fluctuations in commodity prices through agreements with suppliers, whereby the price is linked to the raw material price on the world market or to indices for energy or other commodities. Raw materials and components account for a substantial share of the Group's costs. The raw materials to which the Group is mainly exposed to are carbon steel, stainless steel, plastics, copper and aluminium. The Group typically enters into fixed-price supplier agreements under which prices for carbon steel and stainless steel are typically set for periods of nine to twelve months and for plastics on a quarterly basis. While such arrangements provide cost visibility and reduce short-term price volatility, they may also limit the Group's ability to benefit from favourable movements in raw material prices, and consequently, the Group's hedging and pricing arrangements may, under certain market conditions, result in higher costs than those prevailing in the market and have an adverse effect on the Group's profitability. On a global, as well as a regional, basis, the sources and prices of those materials and components are susceptible to significant fluctuations due to supply/demand trends, transportation costs, government regulations and tariffs, changes in currency exchange rates, price controls, the economic climate and other unforeseen circumstances. For instance, market prices for certain electronic components, including memory components, have increased significantly since late 2025 and into early 2026 due to supply-demand imbalances, including strong demand from AI and data centre infrastructure. The EU's Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism (EU CBAM) is a carbon border tax on the carbon emitted during the production of carbon intensive goods that are entering the EU. The EU CBAM entered its definitive phase and applies to EU importers of aluminium and steel (among other goods) as of 1 January 2026. The UK government has announced that a similar mechanism will come into force on 1 January 2027. These, and other new regulations, could affect the Group by increasing costs, should importing core materials become more expensive. Furthermore, the trade tensions between the EU and the United States, including uncertainties around tariffs and reciprocal trade measures and the implementation of the 2025 trade framework, as well as the possibility of future tariff actions affecting the Group's core raw materials (including steel), the continuing Russia-Ukraine war, and the ongoing hostilities in the Middle East, plus other unpredictable global logistics challenges (such as disruptions to the Strait of Hormuz and Red Sea shipping routes and other ocean capacity challenges) have had, and may continue to have, significant adverse effects on the global supply chain and commodity prices (see also “Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions” and “Dependency on third-party suppliers” above).

Additionally, pressure to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and to adapt to climate changes and resource limitations may drive manufacturers towards circular business models that promote resource efficiency, reduced use of hazardous chemicals and waste reduction. In respect of finite resources, the Group may experience increased competition with other manufacturers of consumer goods. The Group's commodity risk is, to an extent, addressed through bilateral contracts with suppliers but there is a risk that this activity will not be sufficient or effective in reducing the costs associated with increased commodity prices, and a significant change could affect the Group's results of operations.

Risks in currency exchange and interest rates

The Group operates in approximately 120 countries around the world and as a result is subject to the risks associated with cross-border transactions, including foreign currency exchange rate risks. Foreign exchange risk refers to the potential adverse effects that changes in foreign exchange rates may have on the Group's income and equity. The Group is subject to currency exchange rate risks arising from the sourcing of materials and products, export and import of products and sales outside the country of manufacture, (transaction exposure from commercial flows) as well as through translation of balance sheets and income statements of foreign subsidiaries to SEK (translation exposure). Geopolitical factors are expected to continue to influence foreign exchange rates in the near-term (see further “Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions” above). The uncertain nature of these factors makes the extent or magnitude of any potential impact on the Group difficult to predict, and could ultimately have a material adverse impact on the Group's net sales, financial position and results of operations. For example, the Group's sales growth (change in net sales adjusted for currency effects) was 3.0 percent in 2025, while currency translation had a negative impact of -6.6 percent. In the first quarter of 2026, currency translation effect had a negative impact of -8.8 percent on the Group's net sales.

While the Group's geographically widespread production, its hedging transactions (if any) and its ability to increase prices reduce the effects of changes in exchange rates, there can be no assurances that these measures will be sufficient to protect the Group from currency exchange movements.

In addition, the Group holds assets and liabilities to manage the liquidity and cash needs of its day-to-day operations. These interest rate-sensitive assets and liabilities are subject to interest rate risk. While these interest rate exposures are minimised to some extent by the use of derivative financial instruments, there can be no assurances that these hedging activities will be effective or sufficient. Interest rates have stabilised at lower levels in 2026; however, geopolitical tensions and the related resurgence in energy-driven inflation (including as a result of the escalation of the Iran conflict and the near-closure of the Strait of Hormuz) have increased the risk that interest rates may rise again. If interest rates rise, including in response to inflationary pressures or other adverse economic developments, this may further increase interest rate risk within the Group, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's interest expense, results of operations and cash flows.

Risks related to its insurance coverage

The Group maintains third-party insurance coverage and self-insures through wholly owned insurance subsidiaries (captives) for a variety of exposures and risks, such as property damage, business interruption and product liability claims. However, while the Group believes it has adequate insurance coverage for all anticipated exposures in line with industry standards, there can be no assurances that (i) the Group will be able to maintain such insurance on acceptable terms, if at all, at all times in the future or that claims will not exceed, or fall outside of, its third-party or captive insurance coverage or that its third-party insurers at all times will be able to meet its undertakings, or

(ii) its provisions for uninsured or uncovered losses will be sufficient to cover its ultimate loss or expenditure. Any such limitations could result in significant uninsured losses or liabilities and adversely affect the Group's operating profit, cash flows and financial position.

The Group has two wholly-owned captive insurance companies, Electrolux Försäkrings AB and Equinox Insurance Company, which form part of the global risk management programme implemented by the Group with a view to providing improved oversight and a more cost-efficient management of the Group's risk and insurance matters. The captives provide insurance coverage in respect of, for example, property damage and business interruption, general liability and product liability, cyber security as well as insurance relating to extended warranties offered to consumers. Such insurance activities are subject to extensive regulatory requirements and supervision as well as changes in applicable laws and regulations, and any failure to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, or any changes in laws, regulations or supervisory practices, could adversely affect the insurance operations, financial condition and results of operations of the captives. Further, the reserves of the captives are subject to periodic adjustments based upon actuarial evaluations, and there is a risk that these periodic adjustments may be unfavourable, which would negatively affect the Group's financial position.

Pension commitments

The Group has defined pension and healthcare benefit obligations in various countries of which the main part is funded via investments in equities, bonds, and other external assets in pension schemes. Changes in the value of assets and obligations year-on-year depend primarily on trends in interest rates and stock markets. Changes in the assumptions regarding average life expectancy and the costs of health care are also factors that affect pension obligations. Any shortfall in the Group's funding obligations may require significant additional funding to the detriment of the Issuer.

Significant differences between actual results and estimates of the amount of future funding for the Group's pension obligations, and significant changes in funding assumptions or significant increases in funding obligations, could require significant additional funding to the detriment of the Group.

The Group continues to sponsor defined benefit pension plans in several of the jurisdictions in which it operates, some of which are closed for future accruals and new applicants. These plans are subject to various risks, including the potential increase of actual pension payments payable by the Group due to a combination of increased longevity and inflation of salaries, investment return risks due to exposure to market fluctuations and the potential underperformance of underlying assets, and measurement risks related to changes in discount rates and assumptions about inflation and mortality. These risks could potentially impact the Group's financial condition and therefore the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations in connection with any Notes issued under the Programme.

3. Environmental, social and governance risks

Environmental risks

The Group's operations are subject to numerous international, national and local environmental, health and safety directives, laws and regulations, including those pertaining to the storage, handling, treatment, transportation and disposal of hazardous and toxic materials, the construction and operation of its plants and standards relating to energy efficiency and the discharge of pollutants to air, soil and water.

Certain of the Group's manufacturing facilities require environmental permits for their operations, including permits relating to emissions, discharges and noise levels, which include thresholds or maximum permissible amounts for air- and water-borne emissions and noise, and also require the Group to submit notifications to the relevant authority. There is a risk that breaches of permit thresholds may occur from time to time and could result in sanctions, such as fines or, in severe cases, changes to or revocation of the relevant permit, which could adversely affect the Group's operations. While the Group monitors that its manufacturing facilities adjust their operations, apply for necessary permits and report to the authorities in accordance with applicable environmental legislation, any significant non-compliance or disputes could adversely affect the Group's operations, reputation, and financial performance.

Although the Group believes its operations are in substantial compliance with presently applicable environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, violations of such laws and regulations have occurred from time to time and may occur in the future and could result in the imposition of fines, penalties, or give rise to civil or criminal liability. For example, claims for damage to property or injury to persons resulting from environmental, health or safety impacts of the Group's past or present operations, including assets or operations that the Group has disposed of, could expose the Group to liability and costs. Risks of substantial costs and liabilities, including for the investigation and remediation of past or present contamination, are inherent in the Group's ongoing operations and its ownership or occupation of industrial properties.

Other developments, such as increased requirements under environmental, health and safety laws and regulations that are applicable to the Group's operations and products, increasingly strict enforcement of them by governmental authorities, and any material new requirements, could prevent or restrict the Group's operations and increase the Group's compliance costs.

Moreover, any material change in, or in the interpretation of, applicable regulatory requirements and/or any material new requirements or reporting standards, including those relating to increased carbon taxes, or changes to energy labelling standards, could require the Group to update existing products and processes and/or develop new products, which could result in significant unanticipated costs.

The Group maintains liability insurance at levels that management believes are appropriate and in accordance with industry practice. In addition, the Group maintains provisions on its balance sheet for certain environmental remediation matters which, as of 31 March 2026 amounted to SEK 279 million. There can be no assurances, however, that (i) the Group will not incur environmental losses beyond the limits, or outside the coverage of any insurance or that any such losses would not have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, results of operations or financial condition, or (ii) the Group's provisions for environmental remediation will be sufficient to cover the ultimate loss or expenditure.

4. Legal and regulatory risk

Risks associated with increased or additional tax liabilities

The Group is subject to taxes in Sweden and other foreign jurisdictions where the Group operates. The Group's future effective tax rates are affected by the mix of earnings in countries where the Group operates with differing tax rates. Furthermore, any future changes in corporate or other taxes (including withholding taxes) or changes in tax laws or their interpretation may impact the Group's future effective tax rate. Any of these changes could have a material adverse effect on the Group's tax cost. Similarly, the Group's profitability could be affected by changes in customs duty legislation, tariffs or other indirect taxes. Certain jurisdictions in which the Group operates, such as Brazil and other emerging markets, are characterised by more complex and evolving tax regimes and administrative practices, which may increase the compliance burden and create uncertainty regarding tax positions, including an elevated risk of disputes or differing interpretations by tax authorities. The Group is regularly subject to tax examination by the tax authorities in the countries where the Group operates. The Group routinely assesses the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations to determine the adequacy of its provision for taxes. The Group's provisions for uncertain outcome of tax examinations and tax litigations are based on management's best estimates and recorded in the balance sheet. These estimates might differ from the actual outcome and the timing of the potential effect on the Group's cash flow is normally not possible to predict. In recent years, tax authorities have been focusing on transfer pricing, which is normally very complex, includes high amounts and might take several years to reach a conclusion. The Group is also from time to time subject to re-assessment from tax authorities that may, depending on provision coverage, have additional negative impact on the Group's tax cost and/or profitability. Such processes can lead to drawn-out proceedings over many years.

Any significant adverse outcome of any such tax examination and/or tax investigation, and/or any other increased or additional tax liabilities for the Group, could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Risks related to compliance

The Group's global operations expose the Group to risks related to ethics and sustainability factors such as human rights (including privacy aspects) and employment conditions, across several phases of the production chain, such as in purchasing and sales. In addition, developments regarding sustainability have resulted in increased regulatory requirements for sustainability reporting (such as the EU's Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive regulation, the European Sustainability Reporting Standards and the Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive) and may result in new regulatory requirements (such as the EU energy labelling standards and the newly tightened EU minimum energy performance standards), which could impact product development, supply base, operations, sales and customer behaviour. Carbon taxes are expected to have an impact on energy intensive industries such as power generation, transport, steel, aluminium, and plastics producers. Finished goods could also be directly impacted through carbon import duties, such as EU CBAM (see also "Risks related to changes in commodity prices" above).

Regional or international attempts to streamline or reshape existing regulatory frameworks also present an ongoing risk to the Group. The European Commission has adopted a series of proposals with the aim of consolidating and simplifying existing regulation and reducing red tape (the "Omnibus Package"). The first Omnibus Package (Directive (EU) 2026/470) was adopted by the Council on 24 February 2026 and published in the EU Official Journal on 26 February 2026, resulting in significant changes to key EU laws on sustainability reporting and due diligence, including narrowing the scope of the Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive and the Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive and extending their application timelines. Whilst these proposals could achieve their stated objective of simplifying EU rules and reducing the cost of business operations in the EU, a significant change to the EU regulatory landscape could pose challenges for the Group to plan and adapt its operations to new regulation, which may have an adverse impact on the Group's business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Violations of anti-corruption legislation that lead to extensive fines and other criminal, civil or administrative sanctions or lead to the Group being excluded from participating in public tenders could have a material adverse effect on the Group's reputation, business, results of operations and financial position. Corruption-related incidents or accusations against suppliers and other third parties with whom the Group has a commercial relationship risk leading to adverse publicity that could damage the Group's reputation, even if the Group is not involved.

The Group is also exposed to risks related to economic or political sanctions, or other trade embargoes in force, though policies and procedures intended to prevent the Group breaching sanctions and other such restrictions are in place and timely updated. Sanctions laws are adopted by various countries around the world, and each country's sanctions laws are unique, often driven by specific national policies or goals. Political or economic sanctions are imposed at an increasing rate and change frequently. For example, the sanctions imposed by governments in response to Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022 required the Group to adapt its operations rapidly in order to ensure compliance with such sanctions (see also "Global economic factors and geopolitical conditions" above). Restrictions range from extremely targeted measures to country-wide embargoes. Enforcement of these laws is increasing, notably in Europe, and certain enforcement actions can be taken against companies who cause another third party to violate applicable sanctions or companies who engage with a non-compliant third-party. Given their complexity, specificity and the fact that they are often imposed without much notice, there is a risk that the Group will not be fully compliant with all applicable political or economic sanctions laws at all times. Compliance with such laws may also expose the Group to contractual liability vis-à-vis third parties. Finally, there is a risk of loss of business in existing markets if they become prohibited or restricted by newly imposed sanctions.

The Group's product portfolio has historically been of such a nature that the products have generally been deemed not to be subject to export control rules. However, the increasing importance of digitalisation and connectivity means that the Group's products in the future will contain more advanced technology and software solutions. As several major trading parties around the world are creating and broadening their regulations concerning, for example, export controls and national security, there is a risk that the Group's products may, in the future, fall within the scope of export control rules, which could demand greater future cash flows, increased administration, additional internal controls and, in certain cases, trading restrictions.

The Group has implemented management information and internal control systems to seek to ensure compliance with laws and regulations, corporate governance practices, internal guidelines and policies throughout the Group and that unfavourable developments within the Group are identified and adequately responded to. There can be no assurances that these management information and internal control systems are and will be at all times adequate and fully effective, particularly if the Group is confronted with risks that it has not fully or adequately identified or anticipated. The Group faces the risk that its executives make decisions that are not in compliance with the Group's strategies, corporate governance practices, internal guidelines and policy documents. Furthermore, employees of the Group and others with a close relation to the Group, as well as its customers and suppliers, could commit acts that are unethical, illegal or that otherwise conflict with applicable laws and regulations or the Group's internal guidelines and policy documents. Such behaviour include, for example, non-compliance with laws and regulations related to public procurement and competition law, anti-corruption and anti-bribery laws, money laundering, IT security and data protection (including the General Data Protection Regulation), corporate governance, export controls and trade sanctions, International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and other rules relating to accounting and financial reporting, sustainability reporting, the environment, the work environment, business ethics and equal treatment. The Group's risk management and internal control systems may not always be able to detect such acts. If the Group's internal controls and other measures to safeguard compliance with laws, regulations, internal guidelines and policies prove insufficient, the Group's reputation could be damaged, the Group could be subject to fines, penalties and other sanctions and/or exposed to civil or criminal liability.

Intellectual property rights

The Group's intellectual property rights, including patents, trademarks, design, copyright, trade secrets and licensing agreements, are a significant and valuable aspect of its business. This includes, for example, the Group's three main brands Electrolux, AEG and Frigidaire, other brands with broad recognition (such as Zanussi), and a large global portfolio of registered patents and patent applications. The Group's ability to protect its intellectual property rights relies on a combination of patent, trademark, design, copyright and trade secret laws, as well as licensing agreements and third-party non-disclosure and assignment agreements. The Group's failure to obtain, renew or adequately protect its intellectual property, products, new features of its products or processes may diminish its competitiveness.

The Group has applied for patent protection in multiple jurisdictions with respect to certain innovations and new products, product features, and processes. There can be no assurances that the applications for patent protection in any of these jurisdictions will be approved by the relevant authority. When developing new innovative products, the Group may seek to use technology that is already patented, registered, or otherwise protected by intellectual property rights held by others and there can also be no assurances that the Group will be able to obtain a licence to use those technologies. Additionally, the patents that the Group owns could be challenged, invalidated, or others could design around its patents and the patents may not be of sufficient scope or strength to provide the Group with any meaningful protection or commercial advantage.

Further, the laws of certain foreign countries in which the Group operates, or contemplates operating in the future, do not recognise intellectual property rights or protect them to the same extent as, for example, European intellectual property rights or United States intellectual property rights. This could weaken the Group's competitive advantage with respect to its products, services, and brands in those countries, which could affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Given the nature of the Group's business operations, the Group is from time to time alleged to infringe intellectual property rights of third parties which may cover some of its technology, brands, products, or services. Any litigation regarding patents or other intellectual property could be costly and time-consuming and could divert the attention of the Group's management and key personnel from the Group's business operations. Claims of intellectual property infringement might also require the Group to enter into costly license agreements. The Group also may be subject to significant damages or injunctions against development, production and sale of certain products.

Pending lawsuits in the United States claiming asbestos-related personal injuries

Litigation and claims related to asbestos were previously pending against the Group in the United States (until the Group divested such exposure in December 2024). The majority of the cases referred to externally supplied components used in industrial products manufactured by the Group's discontinued operations prior to the early 1970s. The cases involved plaintiffs who have made substantially identical allegations against other defendants who are not part of the Group.

While the Group has divested its legacy exposure, the Group cannot rule out the possibility that additional lawsuits will be filed against subsidiaries in the future. It is not possible to predict the number of any such future lawsuits. In addition, the outcome of any potential asbestos lawsuits is difficult to predict and the Group cannot provide any assurances that the resolution of these types of lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on its business or on results of operations in the future.

Legal disputes and investigations

The Group is currently involved in other disputes in the ordinary course of business. The disputes concern, among other things, warranty undertakings, alleged defects in delivery of goods and services, patent and other intellectual property rights, employment-related matters and other rights and other issues relating to rights and obligations in connection with the Group's operations. There is also a risk that the Group may be exposed to product liability claims in the event that one of its products is alleged to have caused property damage, bodily injury or other adverse effects, including through the use in such products of components received from third-party suppliers. Disputes may also arise in connection with mergers and acquisitions and divestments undertaken by the Group, about which more information is contained in the "Business Overview" section of this Base Prospectus.

The Group is, and may in the future also be, subject to investigations and legal proceedings brought by antitrust or competition authorities. An example of this is the ongoing investigation of Electrolux Poland by the Polish Competition Authority (the Authority) regarding a possible violation of antitrust rules. The Authority has so far not communicated any conclusions. Given the nature of the investigation, it cannot be ruled out that the outcome could have a material impact on the Group's financial result and cash flow. In December 2024, the French Competition Authority (the FCA) completed its second investigation regarding alleged breaches of antitrust rules in France by the Group and various other parties within the home appliance sector during 2009 to 2014. Following a settlement that was reached in 2023 between the FCA and the Group, the FCA decided on a fine of €44.5 million.

In the fourth quarter of 2023, the Brazilian Supreme Federal Court issued a ruling regarding a specific state value added tax for the 2022 fiscal year. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the Group concluded that the consequences of this ruling would not have a material impact on the Group's financial results.

In 2019 an order was issued by the Italian Environmental Authorities for certain remediation actions connected to contamination at a manufacturing site in Aviano, Italy that the Group had previously divested in 2001. Pursuant to that order, the current operator of the site is obligated to, inter alia, improve the groundwater quality in the Friuli region, Italy (including interventions at a cost of €42 million) and to clean 42 cubic meters of contaminated groundwater in the region. Although the Group is not liable to perform the obligations under the order, it is possible that the situation may evolve and result in a liability for the Group in its capacity as a former owner and operator or seller of the site. However, it is at this stage not possible to evaluate the extent of such a potential liability.

Current and future disputes and investigations may prove costly and time consuming and may disrupt normal operations. In addition, the outcome of complicated disputes and investigations is difficult to foresee. It cannot be ruled out that a disadvantageous outcome of any such dispute or investigations may prove to have a material adverse effect on the Group's earnings and financial position.

Risks associated with product recalls and product liability actions

Under laws in many countries regulating consumer products, the Group may be forced to recall or repurchase some of its products under certain circumstances, and more restrictive laws and regulations may be adopted in the future. Product recalls are not uncommon in the home appliance industry, and in recent years the Group has experienced such recalls relating to various product categories, including in North America, Europe and Australia. For example, in March 2026, the Group voluntarily recalled approximately 180,000 Frigidaire gas ranges in North America following 62 reports of delayed oven bake burner ignition, including 30 reports of associated burn injuries and, together with a change in accounting estimates for customer rebate provisions, resulted in a combined negative impact of SEK 0.3 billion on the Group's operating income in the first quarter of 2026. Any repurchase or recall of products could be costly to the Group and may damage its reputation. If the Group were to be required to remove, or if it voluntarily removed, its products from the market, the Group's reputation could be tarnished and it might have large quantities of finished products that could not be sold.

The Group also faces exposure to product liability claims in the event that its products are alleged to have caused property damage, bodily injury or other adverse effects (including through the use in such products of components received from third-party suppliers). The United States is generally characterised by a more litigious environment and a higher risk of significant product liability claims, including claims seeking substantial damages, and product liability claims (including in the United States) may involve lengthy litigation, class actions or significant damages. The Group has become implicated in certain lawsuits in the ordinary course of its business, including suits involving allegations of product liability and product defects and quality problems. The Group is largely self-insured for product liability matters expected to occur in the normal course of business and funds these risks, for the most part, through wholly owned insurance subsidiaries. The Group accrues for such self-insured claims and litigation risks when it is probable that an obligation has been incurred and the amount can be reasonably estimated. In addition, for large losses, the Group maintains excess product liability insurance with third-party carriers in amounts that it believes are reasonable. However, there can be no assurances that product recalls or product liability claims will not affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme.

Risks associated with employment law

The Group thus needs to comply with numerous employment-related laws and regulations with various levels of employee protection in the jurisdictions in which it operates. If such laws and regulations were to be amended in a way that reduces the employer's flexibility or imposes additional administrative or financial burden on the employer, it could have negative effects on the Group's business.

The Group is subject to separate collective bargaining agreements with certain trade unions, with different durations. The Group continuously negotiates with trade unions representing its employees and may be subject to employee work stoppages. There is a risk that the Group will not be able to renew collective bargaining agreements, whether negotiated directly or through employer organisations, on the same or similar terms as before, or at all on acceptable terms. Such renegotiations may also cause disruptions to the operations and increase the risk of industrial conflict measures. Accordingly, within its own business or within the business of suppliers or other third parties, the Group is exposed to risks related to strikes or other industrial conflict measures, which, if they last for a long period or encompass a substantial part of the workforce in a major or important part of the business, could create disruptions and delays in the operations. Furthermore, there is a risk that redundancy, for example as a consequence of efficiency improvements, rationalisation or relocations of the operations or discontinued manufacturing, which is not handled properly and in consultation with trade unions, damages the Group's reputation and deteriorates its relationship with trade unions, or requires the Group to compensate employees. Such measures could also result in strikes or other industrial action. For example, the operational efficiency plan, announced on 23 April 2026, is expected to result in the net reduction of approximately 3,000 employees over three years, including already announced measures affecting approximately 400 employees in Chile, 600 in Hungary and 1,700 in Italy, where the announced measures have resulted in targeted strike action, causing temporary production and logistics disruptions. The long-term strategic partnership with Midea is expected to result in a reduction of approximately 1,500 employees in 2026.

In addition, the Group may from time to time be involved in employment law-related disputes or proceedings with employees, former employees or trade unions. Such disputes or proceedings, which are more frequent in certain of the Group's jurisdictions (including Brazil), may result in financial liabilities, management distraction or operational disruption. If any of these events were to occur, the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations under Notes issued under the Programme may be affected.

FACTORS WHICH ARE MATERIAL FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSESSING THE MARKET RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

5. Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer

An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

The regulation and reform of “benchmarks” may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”

As at the date of this Base Prospectus and following the amendments to the EU Benchmarks Regulation made by Regulation (EU) 2025/914 (which apply from 1 January 2026), and as far as the Issuer is aware, the EU Benchmarks Regulation applies only to critical benchmarks, significant benchmarks, EU Climate Transition Benchmarks, EU Paris-Aligned Benchmarks and certain commodity benchmarks. Of the Programme Benchmarks, as far as the Issuer is aware, EURIBOR, NIBOR and STIBOR remain within the scope of the EU Benchmarks Regulation, whereas TIBOR is outside its scope.

Interest rates and other indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks” (including the Programme Benchmarks) are the subject of national and international regulatory guidance and reform, generally aimed at supporting the transition to more reliable, transparent and robust benchmarks. Most benchmark reforms, including the transition away from LIBOR, have now reached their planned conclusion, however “benchmarks” remain subject to ongoing monitoring and some legacy contracts continue to require adjustment or conversion. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Notes referencing such a benchmark.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation applies, subject to certain transitional provisions to the provision of in-scope benchmarks, the contribution of input data to an in-scope benchmark and the use of an in-scope benchmark within the EU. Among other things, it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by EU-supervised entities of in-scope benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a Programme Benchmark which is in-scope of the regulation, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the relevant Programme Benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Such factors may have (without limitation) the following effects on certain benchmarks (including the Programme Benchmarks): (i) discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to a benchmark; (ii) triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in a benchmark; and/or (iii) leading to the disappearance of a benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to, referencing, or otherwise dependent (in whole or in part) upon a Programme Benchmark.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Terms and Conditions) occurs in respect of an Original Reference Rate or other relevant reference rate, including if an Original Reference Rate and/or any page on which an Original Reference Rate may be published, becomes unavailable, or if the Issuer, the Calculation Agent, any Paying Agent or any other party responsible for the calculation of the Rate of Interest (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) are no longer permitted lawfully to calculate interest on any Notes by reference to such an Original Reference Rate under the Benchmarks Regulation or otherwise. Such fallback arrangements include the possibility that the Rate of Interest could be set by reference to a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate (both as defined in the Terms and Conditions), with the application of an adjustment spread (which could be positive, negative or zero) and may include amendments to the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to ensure the proper operation of the new benchmark, all as determined by an Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) and after consultation with the Issuer and as more fully described at Condition 4.2(vi) (Benchmark Event). It is possible that the adoption of a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (including any adjustment spread) may result in any Notes linked to or referencing an Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form. There is also a risk that the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as expected or intended at the relevant time.

Furthermore, in certain circumstances, the ultimate fallback for the purposes of calculation of the Rate of Interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the Rate of Interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation or any of the international or national reforms and the possible application of the benchmark replacement provisions of Notes in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a Programme Benchmark.

The Issuer may have the right to redeem or purchase all Notes following a Change of Control Put

The applicable Final Terms may provide that, upon a Change of Control (as defined in Condition 6.6(b)) occurring and certain other conditions being satisfied, Notes will be redeemable at the option of the Noteholders. If 75 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased, as the case may be, pursuant to Condition 6.6(b) the Issuer may redeem or purchase all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their principal amount together with any interest accrued to, but excluding, the date of redemption. Investors who have not exercised their right to require the Issuer to redeem or purchase the Notes under Condition 6.6(b) may find, in this situation, that their Notes are redeemed. At that time, an investor generally may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Inverse Floating Rate Notes will have more volatile market values than conventional Floating Rate Notes

Inverse Floating Rate Notes have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate such as EURIBOR. The market values of those Notes typically are more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse Floating Rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes are Notes which bear interest at a rate that converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. Such a feature to convert the interest basis, and any conversion of the interest basis, may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes as the change of interest basis may result in a lower interest return for Noteholders. Where the Notes convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. Where the Notes convert from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on those Notes and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of such securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to more conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

In respect of any Notes issued with the specific purpose of financing or refinancing Eligible Green Assets in accordance with the Issuer's Green Financing Framework, there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor

The Final Terms relating to any specific Tranche of Notes may provide that it will be the Issuer's intention to apply an amount equal to the net proceeds from an offer of those Notes to finance or re-finance certain green assets that meet the eligibility requirements set out in the Issuer's Green Financing Framework (as defined below in the "Use of Proceeds" section) (Eligible Green Assets and thereto related Notes, Green Bonds). The Issuer's Green Financing Framework dated December 2025 and the second-party opinion from S&P Global Ratings (see the "Use of Proceeds" section below) are not, and shall not be deemed to be, incorporated in and do not form part of this Base Prospectus. The Issuer's Green Financing Framework may be amended at any time without the consent of Noteholders and none of the Issuer, the Arranger or any Dealer assumes any obligation or responsibility to release any update or revision to the Issuer's Green Financing Framework and/or information to reflect events or circumstances after the date of publication of the Issuer's Green Financing Framework.

In respect of Green Bonds, no assurance is given by the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer or any other person that the use of such proceeds for any Eligible Green Assets will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations (including, but not limited to, the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the UK or any market standards or guidance, including the ICMA Principles) or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or uses, the subject of or related to, any Eligible Green Assets. Neither the Arranger nor any Dealer shall be responsible for the ongoing monitoring of the use of proceeds in respect of any such Notes. Prospective investors should consult with their legal and other advisers before making an investment in any such Notes and must determine for themselves the relevance of the information set out in this Base Prospectus and the applicable Final Terms for the purpose of any investment in such Notes together with any other investigation such investor deems necessary.

It should be noted that the definition (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, or market consensus as to what constitutes or may be classified as, a “green” or “sustainable” or an equivalently-labelled project or investment that may finance such project is evolving. The EU Green Bond Regulation, among other things, establishes a voluntary label for European green bonds and lays down uniform requirements for issuers that wish to use the designation of European green bond, or EU Green Bond Regulation label, and the conditions for external review of bonds using such label. It also creates an alternative voluntary approach to sustainability disclosures for bonds not using the label but marketed as environmentally sustainable or sustainability-linked bonds. Whilst progress is being made towards the development of a clear definition, market consensus or label as to what constitutes “green”, “sustainable” or other equivalently-labelled bonds, there can be no assurance that any such clear definition, market consensus or label will develop over time or that, if it does, any Green Bonds or Eligible Green Assets will comply with such definition, market consensus or label.

In addition, no representation, warranty or assurance can be given by the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer or any other person to investors that the use of proceeds of any Green Bonds will satisfy, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply; this includes any present or future applicable law or regulations, including any present or future standards or requirements regarding any “green”, “sustainable” or other equivalently-labelled performance objectives, including (but not limited to) the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines, or any similar legislation in the UK, or other similar principles or guidance, including the ICMA Principles, or any requirements of such labels as they may evolve from time to time, and, accordingly, the status of any Notes as being “green”, “social”, “sustainable” (or equivalent) could be withdrawn at any time. Any Green Bonds issued under the Programme will not be compliant with the EU Green Bond Regulation or the EU Taxonomy Regulation and are only intended to comply with the requirements and processes in the Issuer’s Green Financing Framework. It is not clear if the establishment of the EU Green Bond Regulation of the “European Green Bond” or “EuGB” label and the optional disclosures regime for bonds issued as “environmentally sustainable” under the EU Green Bond Regulation could have an impact on investor demand for, and pricing of, green use of proceeds bonds that do not comply with the requirements of the “EuGB” label or the optional disclosures regime, such as the Green Bonds issued under this Programme. It could result in reduced liquidity or lower demand or could otherwise affect the market price of any Green Bonds issued under this Programme that do not comply with those standards proposed under the EU Green Bond Regulation.

The Second Party Opinion provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. No assurance or representation is given by the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer or any other person as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of the Second Party Opinion or any opinion, report or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Notes and in particular with any Eligible Green Assets to fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. For the avoidance of doubt, the Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, report or certification is not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of any investment in any Notes, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security or any other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. Any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, report or certification is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Notes or that any Eligible Green Assets fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. The Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, report or certification is only current as of the date that opinion, report or certification was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of the Second Party Opinion and any other any such opinion, report or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of the Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, report or certification for the purpose of any investment in such Notes. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the providers of such opinions, reports and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The EU Green Bond Regulation will introduce a supervisory regime of external reviewers of European Green Bonds but this is not due to take full effect until 21 June 2026. Investors in such Notes shall have no recourse against the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers or the provider of any such opinion, report or certification for the contents of any such opinion, report or certification.

In the event that any such Notes are listed or admitted to trading on any dedicated “green”, “environmental”, “sustainable” or other equivalently-labelled segment of any stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given by the Issuer, any of the Dealers or any other person that such listing or admission satisfies, whether in whole or in part, any present or future investor expectations or requirements as regards any investment criteria or guidelines with which such investor or its investments are required to comply, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations (including, but not limited to, the EU Taxonomy Regulation and any related technical screening criteria, the EU Green Bond Regulation, SFDR, and any implementing legislation and guidelines or any similar legislation in the UK, or any market standards or guidance, including the ICMA Principles) or by its own by-laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact of any projects or assets or uses, the subject of or related to, any Eligible Green Assets. Furthermore, it should be noted that the criteria for any such listings or admission to trading may vary from one stock exchange or securities market to another. No representation or assurance is given or made by the Issuer, any of the Dealers or any other person that any such listing or admission to trading will be obtained in respect of any such Notes or, if obtained, that any such listing or admission to trading will be maintained during the life of the Notes.

In respect of any Notes issued with the specific purpose of financing or refinancing Eligible Green Assets in accordance with the Issuer’s Green Financing Framework, there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be applied in the manner intended or as summarised in this Base Prospectus

Whilst it is the intention of the Issuer to apply an amount equal to the net proceeds of any Notes so specified for Eligible Green Assets in, or substantially in, the manner summarised in this Base Prospectus, there can be no assurance that the relevant project or asset(s) or use(s) the subject of, or related to, any Eligible Green Assets will be capable of being implemented in or substantially in such manner and/or in accordance with any timing schedule and that accordingly such proceeds will be totally or partially disbursed for or towards such Eligible Green Assets. Nor can there be any assurance that such Eligible Green Assets will be completed within any specified period or at all or with the results or outcome (whether or not related to the environment) as originally expected or anticipated by the Issuer. Any such event or failure by the Issuer will not constitute an Event of Default under the Notes, nor a breach of contract or otherwise result in the Notes being redeemed prior to their maturity date.

Any such event or failure to apply the proceeds of any issue (or amounts equal thereto) of Notes for or towards any Eligible Green Assets as mentioned in the previous paragraph and/or the withdrawal of any such opinion or certification or any such opinion or certification attesting that the Issuer is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion or certification is opining or certifying on and/or any such Notes no longer being listed or admitted to trading on any stock exchange or securities market as mentioned above may have a material adverse effect on the value of such Notes and also potentially the value of any other Notes which are intended to finance or re-finance Eligible Green Assets and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for or towards a particular purpose.

There is no direct contractual link between any Green Bonds and any green, social or sustainability targets of the Issuer. Therefore, payments of interest, principal or other amounts payable in respect of any Notes and rights to accelerate under the Notes will not be impacted by the performance of Eligible Green Assets funded out of the proceeds of issue (or amounts equal thereto) of the Notes or by any other green, social or sustainable assets of the Issuer and/or the Group.

None of the Dealers will verify or monitor the proposed use of proceeds of Notes issued under the Programme.

Sustainability-Linked Bonds

Sustainability-Linked Bonds may not be a suitable investment for all investors seeking exposure to assets with sustainability characteristics

Although Notes issued as Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes or Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes (each Sustainability-Linked Bonds) may be structured either (i) with the interest rate relating to the Notes being subject to upward adjustment or (ii) through the payment of a premium upon early redemption or at maturity, as applicable, in certain circumstances specified in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, such Sustainability-Linked Bonds may not satisfy an investor's requirements or any future legal or quasi-legal standards for investment in assets with sustainability characteristics and no representation is made by the Issuer or the Dealers as to the suitability of the Sustainability-Linked Bonds to fulfil environmental or sustainability criteria required by prospective investors. Any such Notes are not 'green', 'social' or 'sustainable' bonds and are not being marketed as such and the Issuer expects to use the net proceeds of any issue of Notes issued as Sustainability-Linked Bonds for general corporate purposes. Therefore, the Issuer does not intend to allocate the net proceeds of any such Notes specifically to projects or business activities meeting environmental or sustainability criteria, or to be subject to any other limitations associated with green, social or sustainable bonds.

In addition, the interest rate adjustment or payment of premium in respect of any Notes issued as Sustainability-Linked Bonds depends on, inter alia, definitions of Scope 1 and Scope 2 GHG Emissions and/or Scope 3 GHG Emissions, as the case may be, that may be inconsistent with, or insufficient to, satisfy investor targets, requirements or expectations or other definitions relevant to these factors. The sustainability performance of the Issuer is calculated with reference to the Issuer's business, operations and capabilities and does not easily lend itself to benchmarking against the sustainability performance targets, and the related performance, of other companies.

Although the Group targets decreasing its direct and indirect greenhouse gas emissions, there can be no assurance of the extent to which it will be successful in achieving these aims or that any future investments it makes in furtherance of these targets will meet investor expectations or any binding or non-binding legal standards regarding sustainability performance, whether by any present or future applicable law or regulations or by its own by laws or other governing rules or investment portfolio mandates, in particular with regard to any direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impact. Adverse environmental or social impacts may occur during the design, construction and operation of any investments the Group makes in furtherance of these targets, or such investments may become controversial or criticised by activist groups or other stakeholders. Lastly, no Event of Default shall occur under the Sustainability-Linked Bonds, nor will the Issuer be required to repurchase or redeem such Sustainability-Linked Bonds, if the Group fails to satisfy any or all of (i) the Scope 1 and Scope 2 GHG Emissions Condition or (ii) the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Condition (all as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), as applicable.

The Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion, which provides an opinion on certain environmental and related considerations, is a statement of opinion, not a statement of fact. No assurance or representation is given by the Issuer or any Dealer as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion (including the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion), report, certification or validation of any third party in connection with the offering of the Sustainability-Linked Bonds or the sustainability performance targets set to fulfil any green, social, sustainability, sustainability-linked and/or other criteria.

The Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion providers and providers of similar opinions, certifications and validations are not currently subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. The Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion and any other such opinion, report or certification is not intended to address any credit, market or other aspects of any investment in any Note, including without limitation market price, marketability, investor preference or suitability of any security or any other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. Any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, any member of the Group, the Dealers, any Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion providers, any External Verifier or any other person to buy, sell or hold Sustainability-Linked Bonds. Noteholders have no recourse against the Issuer, any of the Dealers or the provider of any such opinion, report or certification for the contents of any such opinion, report or certification, which is only current as at the date it was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, report or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion, report or certification for the purpose of any investment in the Sustainability-Linked Bonds. Any withdrawal of any such opinion, report or certification or any such opinion, report or certification attesting that the Group is not complying in whole or in part with any matters for which such opinion, report or certification is opining on or certifying may have a material adverse effect on the value of the Sustainability-Linked Bonds and/or result in adverse consequences for certain investors with portfolio mandates to invest in securities to be used for a particular purpose. Any such opinion, report or certification is not, nor shall it be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus.

In the event any such Sustainability-Linked Bonds are, or are intended to be, listed, or admitted to trading on a dedicated “green”, “sustainable”, “social” or other equivalently labelled segment of a stock exchange or securities market (whether or not regulated), no representation or assurance is given that such listing or admission will be obtained or maintained for the lifetime of such Sustainability-Linked Bonds.

The Sustainability-Linked Bonds include certain triggers linked to sustainability key performance indicators

The terms of the Sustainability-Linked Bonds include certain sustainability-linked performance targets linked to one or more sustainability key performance indicators (see “Sustainability-Linked Bonds may not be a suitable investment for all investors seeking exposure to assets with sustainability characteristics” above). Failure to meet such sustainability performance targets will result in increased interest amounts being payable under the Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes or the payment of a premium amount at redemption under the Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes, either of which would increase the Group’s total cost of funding and may result in a significant negative impact on the reputation of the Group, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group, its business prospects, its financial condition or its results of operations.

Under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event may occur if, amongst other things and as applicable to the relevant Series of Sustainability-Linked Bonds, the Group’s greenhouse gas emissions (Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage and Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage, each as more fully described in Condition 4.4) in respect of the Reference Year specified in the applicable Final Terms, are not reduced by at least the relevant Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold or Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold, as applicable, specified in the applicable Final Terms, in each case by comparison to the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline and the Scope 3 Baseline, respectively.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes permit the Issuer to recalculate the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 3 Baseline, the KPIs and the SPTs in accordance with the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework to reflect any significant change in: (i) the calculation methodology of one or more the KPIs, (ii) any regulation which is relevant to the determination of one or more the KPIs; (iii) data due to better data accessibility or discovery of data errors; or (iv) the perimeter of the Group as a result of any acquisition, amalgamation, demerger, merger, corporate reconstruction, divestiture or disposal. Accordingly, while any such recalculation by the Group must be confirmed in a Recalculation Assurance Report prepared by an independent External Verifier, any such adjustments to the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 3 Baseline, the KPIs or the SPTs may have unforeseen consequences on the Group's overall sustainability profile. For example, an increase or decrease in the volume of greenhouse gas emissions comprising the relevant baseline, may, respectively, increase the total volume of greenhouse gas emissions that may be produced by the Group while still being able to satisfy the Scope 1 and Scope 2 GHG Emissions Condition and/or the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Condition and avoid the occurrence of a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event, or decrease the total volume of reduction in greenhouses gases that needs to be achieved by the Group in order to satisfy such conditions and avoid the occurrence of a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event.

6. Risks related to Notes generally

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions which may permit their modification without the consent of all investors

The conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform) to consider and vote upon matters affecting their interests generally, or to pass resolutions in writing or through the use of electronic consents. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting, or, as the case may be, did not sign the written resolutions or give their consent electronically and including those Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority. In addition, at the request of the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents and the Calculation Agent shall be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments in the circumstances and as otherwise set out in Condition 4.2(vi) without the consent or approval of the Noteholders or Couponholders.

The value of the Notes could be adversely affected by a change in English law or administrative practice

The conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of this Base Prospectus. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of this Base Prospectus and any such change could materially adversely impact the value of any Notes affected by it.

Investors who hold less than the minimum Specified Denomination may be unable to sell their Notes and may be adversely affected if definitive Notes are subsequently required to be issued

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in their account with the relevant clearing system would not be able to sell the remainder of such holding without first purchasing a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination. Further, a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in their account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes at or in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If such Notes in definitive form are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Potential conflicts of interest

The Issuer may appoint a Dealer as Calculation Agent in respect of an issuance of Notes under the Programme. In such a case, the Calculation Agent is likely to be a member of an international financial group that is involved, in the ordinary course of its business, in a wide range of banking activities out of which conflicting interests may arise. Whilst such a Calculation Agent will, where relevant, have information barriers and procedures in place to manage conflicts of interest, it may in its other banking activities from time to time be engaged in transactions involving an index or related derivatives which may affect amounts receivable by Noteholders during the term and on the maturity of the Notes or the market price, liquidity or value of the Notes and which could be deemed to be adverse to the interests of the Noteholders.

7. Risks related to the market generally

Credit ratings assigned to the Issuer or any Notes may not reflect all the risks associated with an investment in those Notes

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign (and have assigned) credit ratings to the Issuer or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the EU CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes in the EEA, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the EU CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by third country non-EEA credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EEA-registered credit rating agency or the relevant third country rating agency is certified in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by ESMA on its website (<https://www.esma.europa.eu/credit-rating-agencies/cra-authorisation>) in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation. As such, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. Note this is subject, in each case, to (a) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended, and (b) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes for the purposes of the EU CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EEA or the UK, as applicable, and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market.

Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings is set out on the cover of this Base Prospectus.

An active secondary market in respect of the Notes may never be established or may be illiquid and this would adversely affect the value at which an investor could sell their Notes

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market for the Notes does develop, it may not be very liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. This is particularly the case for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies, are being issued to a single investor or a limited number of investors or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes.

If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, they will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of their holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the Investor's Currency) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (1) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (2) the Investor's Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (3) the Investor's Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

The value of Fixed Rate Notes may be adversely affected by movements in market interest rates

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Market value of the Notes

The market value of the Notes may be affected by the creditworthiness or perceived creditworthiness of the Issuer and a number of additional factors, including market interest, yield rates and the market's perception of comparable debt instruments issued by other corporate or financial institutions.

General

Following the publication of this Base Prospectus a supplement may be prepared by the Issuer and approved by the CSSF in accordance with Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation. Statements contained in any such supplement (or contained in any document incorporated by reference therein) shall, to the extent applicable, be deemed to modify or supersede statements contained in this Base Prospectus or in a document which is incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not, except as so modified or superseded, constitute a part of this Base Prospectus.

Unless otherwise contained in this document or the documents referred to above, the contents of the Issuer's website are not incorporated by reference in, and do not form part of, this document.

To the extent any document incorporated by reference incorporates further information or documents by reference such further information or documents shall not form part of this Base Prospectus.

Any statement contained in a document which is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for the purposes of this Base Prospectus to the extent that a statement contained herein modifies or supersedes such earlier statement. Any statement so modified or superseded shall not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute part of this Base Prospectus.

Copies of documents incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus can be obtained from the registered office of the Issuer and from the specified offices of the Paying Agents for the time being in London and Luxembourg and on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com).

The Issuer will, in the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy relating to information included in this Base Prospectus which may affect the assessment of any Notes, prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus or publish a new Base Prospectus for use in connection with any subsequent issue of Notes in compliance with Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

Alternative Performance Measures

To supplement its consolidated financial statements presented in accordance with IFRS, the Group uses certain ratios and measures included or referred to in this Base Prospectus (including, without limitation, in the sections of the 2025 Annual Report incorporated by reference) that would be considered Alternative Performance Measures (APMs) as defined in the ESMA Guidelines. These measures are considered useful to investors to enhance their understanding of the Group's financial performance. The APMs should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information presented in compliance with IFRS. An explanation of each APM's components and calculation method can be found at page 183 (incorporated by reference herein) of the 2025 Annual Report (and within any future annual report incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus, as and when published).

FORM OF THE NOTES

Each Tranche of Notes will be in bearer form and will be initially issued in the form of a temporary global note (a Temporary Global Note) or, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, a permanent global note (a Permanent Global Note) and, together with a Temporary Global Note, each a Global Note) which, in either case, will:

- (i) if the Global Notes are intended to be issued in new global note (NGN) form, as stated in the applicable Final Terms, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common safekeeper (the Common Safekeeper) for Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and Clearstream Banking, S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg); and
- (ii) if the Global Notes are not intended to be issued in NGN form, be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository (the Common Depository) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Where the Global Notes issued in respect of any Tranche are in NGN form, the applicable Final Terms will also indicate whether such Global Notes are intended to be held in a manner which would allow Eurosystem eligibility. Any indication that the Global Notes are to be so held does not necessarily mean that the Notes of the relevant Tranche will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue or at any times during their life as such recognition depends upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria. The Common Safekeeper for NGNs will either be Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or another entity approved by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

While any Note is represented by a Temporary Global Note, payments of principal, interest (if any) and any other amount payable in respect of the Notes due prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below) will be made (against presentation of the Temporary Global Note if the Temporary Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) only to the extent that certification (in a form to be provided) to the effect that the beneficial owners of interests in the Temporary Global Note are not U.S. persons or persons who have purchased for resale to any U.S. person, as required by U.S. Treasury regulations, has been received by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable, has given a like certification (based on the certifications it has received) to the Principal Paying Agent.

On and after the date (the Exchange Date), which is 40 days after a Temporary Global Note is issued, interests in such Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge) upon a request as described therein for interests in a Permanent Global Note of the same Series against certification of beneficial ownership as described above unless such certification has already been given. The holder of a Temporary Global Note will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due presentation and due certification, exchange of the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note is improperly withheld or refused.

Payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts on a Permanent Global Note will be made through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (against presentation or surrender (as the case may be) of the Permanent Global Note if the Permanent Global Note is not intended to be issued in NGN form) without any requirement for certification.

The applicable Final Terms will specify that a Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable (free of charge), in whole but not in part, for bearer notes in definitive form (Definitive Notes) with, where applicable, Coupons and Talons attached upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event. For these purposes, Exchange Event means that (i) an Event of Default (as defined in Condition 9) has occurred and is continuing, (ii) the Issuer has been notified that both Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have been closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holiday, statutory or otherwise) or have announced an intention permanently to cease business or have in fact done so and no successor clearing system is available or (iii) the Issuer has or will become subject to adverse tax consequences which would not be suffered were the Notes represented by the Permanent Global Note in definitive form. The Issuer will promptly give notice to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 if an Exchange Event occurs. In the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (acting on the instructions of any holder of an interest in such Permanent Global Note) may give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange and, in the event of the occurrence of an Exchange Event as described in (iii) above, the Issuer may also give notice to the Principal Paying Agent requesting exchange. Any such exchange shall occur not later than 45 days after the date of receipt of the first relevant notice by the Principal Paying Agent.

The following legend will appear on all Notes (other than Temporary Global Notes), and Coupons relating to such Notes where TEFRA D is specified in the applicable Final Terms:

"ANY UNITED STATES PERSON (AS DEFINED IN THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF THE UNITED STATES) WHO HOLDS THIS OBLIGATION WILL BE SUBJECT TO LIMITATIONS UNDER THE UNITED STATES INCOME TAX LAWS, INCLUDING THE LIMITATIONS PROVIDED IN SECTIONS 165(j) AND 1287(a) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE."

The sections referred to provide that United States holders, with certain exceptions, will not be entitled to deduct any loss on Notes or Coupons and will not be entitled to capital gains treatment in respect of any gain on any sale, disposition, redemption or payment of principal in respect of such Notes or Coupons.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will only be transferable in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be.

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes"), the Principal Paying Agent shall arrange that, where a further Tranche of Notes is issued which is intended to form a single Series with an existing Tranche of Notes at a point after the Issue Date of the further Tranche, the Notes of such further Tranche shall be assigned a common code and ISIN which are different from the common code and ISIN assigned to Notes of any other Tranche of the same Series until such time as the Tranches are consolidated and form a single Series, which shall not be prior to the expiry of the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act) applicable to the Notes of such Tranche.

Any reference herein to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any successor operator and/or successor clearing system and/or any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms or as may otherwise be approved by the Issuer and the Principal Paying Agent.

A Note may be accelerated by the holder thereof in certain circumstances described in Condition 9. In such circumstances, where any Note is still represented by a Global Note and the Global Note (or any part thereof) has become due and repayable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of such Notes and payment in full of the amount due has not been made in accordance with the provisions of the Global Note then, unless within the period of 30 days commencing on the relevant due date payment in full of the amount due in respect of the Global Note is received by the bearer, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Global Note then the Global Note will become void at 8.00 p.m. (London time) on such day. At the same time, holders of interests in such Global Note credited to their accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, will become entitled to proceed directly against the Issuer on the basis of statements of account provided by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg on and subject to the terms of a deed of covenant (the Deed of Covenant) dated 8 May 2025 and executed by the Issuer.

The Issuer may agree with any Dealer that Notes may be issued in a form not contemplated by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, in which event, a new Base Prospectus will be made available which will describe the effect of the agreement reached in relation to such Notes.

APPLICABLE FINAL TERMS

Set out below is the form of Final Terms which will be completed for each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme with a denomination of at least EUR 100,000 (or its equivalent in another currency).

[PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (the EEA). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the Insurance Distribution Directive), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the PRIIPs Regulation) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.]¹

[PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – The Notes are not intended to be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (UK). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is either one (or both) of the following: (i) not a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA ; or (ii) not a qualified investor as defined in paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to the Public Offers and Admissions to Trading Regulations 2024. Consequently no disclosure document required by the FCA Product Disclosure Sourcebook (DISC) for offering, selling, or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering, selling or distributing the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under DISC and the Consumer Composite Investments (Designated Activities) Regulations 2024.]²

[³MiFID II PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS ONLY TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in [Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II)] [MiFID II]; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. [Consider any negative target market]. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a distributor) should take into consideration the manufacturer[s/s'] target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer[s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]

[⁴UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS ONLY TARGET MARKET – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is only eligible counterparties, as defined in the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook, and professional clients, as defined in Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (UK MiFIR); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following are the Terms and Conditions of the Notes which will be incorporated by reference into each Global Note (as defined below) and each Definitive Note (as defined below), in the latter case only if permitted by the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority (if any) and agreed by the Issuer and the relevant Dealer at the time of issue but, if not so permitted and agreed, such Definitive Note will have endorsed thereon or attached thereto such Terms and Conditions. The applicable Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) will be endorsed upon, or attached to, each Global Note and Definitive Note. Reference should be made to "Form of the Notes" for a description of the content of Final Terms which will specify which of such terms are to apply in relation to the relevant Notes.

This Note is one of a Series (as defined below) of Notes issued by AB Electrolux (publ) (the Issuer) pursuant to the Agency Agreement (as defined below).

References herein to the Notes shall be references to the Notes of this Series and shall mean:

- (i) in relation to any Notes represented by a global Note (a Global Note), units of each Specified Denomination in the Specified Currency;
- (ii) any Global Note; and
- (iii) any bearer note in definitive form (Definitive Notes) issued in exchange for a Global Note.

The Notes and the Coupons (as defined below) have the benefit of an Agency Agreement (such Agency Agreement as amended and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Agency Agreement) dated 8 May 2025 and made between the Issuer and Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch as principal paying agent and agent bank (the Principal Paying Agent, which expression shall include any successor principal paying agent) and the other paying agents named therein (together with the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents, which expression shall include any additional or successor paying agents).

Interest bearing Definitive Notes have interest coupons (Coupons) and, in the case of Notes which, when issued in definitive form, have more than 27 interest payments remaining, talons for further Coupons (Talons) attached on issue. Any reference herein to Coupons or coupons shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include a reference to Talons or talons. Global Notes do not have Coupons or Talons attached on issue.

The final terms for this Note (or the relevant provisions thereof) are set out in Part A of the Final Terms attached to or endorsed on this Note which complete these Terms and Conditions (the Conditions). References to the applicable Final Terms are to Part A of the Final Terms (or the relevant provisions thereof) attached to or endorsed on this Note.

Any reference to Noteholders or holders in relation to any Notes shall mean the holders of the Notes and shall, in relation to any Notes represented by a Global Note, be construed as provided below. Any reference herein to Couponholders shall mean the holders of the Coupons and shall, unless the context otherwise requires, include the holders of the Talons.

As used herein, Tranche means Notes which are identical in all respects (including as to listing and admission to trading) and Series means a Tranche of Notes together with any further Tranche or Tranches of Notes which are (i) expressed to be consolidated and form a single Series and (ii) identical in all respects (including as to listing and admission to trading) except for their respective Issue Dates, Interest Commencement Dates and/or Issue Prices.

The Noteholders and the Couponholders are entitled to the benefit of the Deed of Covenant (such Deed of Covenant as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Deed of Covenant) dated 8 May 2025 and made by the Issuer. The original of the Deed of Covenant is held by the common depository for Euroclear (as defined below) and Clearstream, Luxembourg (as defined below).

Copies of the Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant (i) are available for inspection or collection during normal business hours at the specified office for the time being of the Principal Paying Agent being at 21 Moorfields, London EC2Y 9DB and at the specified offices of the other Paying Agents or (ii) may be provided by email to a Noteholder following their prior written request to any Paying Agent and provision of proof of holding and identity (in a form satisfactory to the relevant Paying Agent). If the Notes are to be admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, the applicable Final Terms will be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.luxse.com). The Noteholders and the Couponholders are deemed to have notice of, and are entitled to the benefit of, all the provisions of the Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant and the applicable Final Terms which are applicable to them. The statements in these Terms and Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Agency Agreement.

Words and expressions defined in the Agency Agreement or used in the applicable Final Terms shall have the same meanings where used in the Conditions unless the context otherwise requires or unless otherwise stated and provided that, in the event of inconsistency between the Agency Agreement and the applicable Final Terms, the applicable Final Terms will prevail.

In the Conditions, euro means the currency introduced at the third stage of European economic and monetary union pursuant to the Treaty on the functioning of the European Union, as amended.

1. FORM, DENOMINATION AND TITLE

The Notes are in bearer form and, in the case of Definitive Notes, serially numbered, in the currency (the Specified Currency) and the denominations (the Specified Denomination(s)), which shall not be less than EUR 100,000 or its equivalent in any other currency) specified in the applicable Final Terms. Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Notes of another Specified Denomination.

This Note may be a Fixed Rate Note, a Floating Rate Note, a Zero Coupon Note or a combination of any of the foregoing, depending upon the Interest Basis shown in the applicable Final Terms.

Definitive Notes are issued with Coupons attached, unless they are Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to Coupons and Couponholders in the Conditions are not applicable.

Subject as set out below, title to the Notes and Coupons will pass by delivery. The Issuer and the Paying Agents will (except as otherwise required by law) deem and treat the bearer of any Note or Coupon as the absolute owner thereof (whether or not overdue and notwithstanding any notice of ownership or writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof) for all purposes but, in the case of any Global Note, without prejudice to the provisions set out in the next succeeding paragraph.

For so long as any of the Notes is represented by a Global Note held on behalf of Euroclear Bank SA/NV (Euroclear) and/or Clearstream Banking, S.A. (Clearstream, Luxembourg), each person (other than Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) who is for the time being shown in the records of Euroclear or of Clearstream, Luxembourg as the holder of a particular nominal amount of such Notes (in which regard any certificate or other document issued by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as to the nominal amount of such Notes standing to the account of any person shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes save in the case of manifest error) shall be treated by the Issuer and the Paying Agents as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes for all purposes other than with respect to the payment of principal or interest on such nominal amount of such Notes, for which purpose the bearer of the relevant Global Note shall be treated by the Issuer and any Paying Agent as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes in accordance with and subject to the terms of the relevant Global Note and the expressions Noteholder and holder of Notes and related expressions shall be construed accordingly.

Notes which are represented by a Global Note will be transferable only in accordance with the rules and procedures for the time being of, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be. References to, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg shall, whenever the context so permits, be deemed to include a reference to any successor operator and/or successor clearing system and/or any additional or alternative clearing system specified in the applicable Final Terms (or as may otherwise be approved by the Issuer and the Paying Agents).

2. STATUS OF THE NOTES

The Notes and the relative Coupons (if any) constitute unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and shall at all times rank pari passu without any preference among themselves and equally with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (subject to statutory preferred exceptions) of the Issuer.

3. NEGATIVE PLEDGE

For as long as any of the Notes remain outstanding the Issuer shall not grant or permit to exist any mortgage, pledge, lien (not being a lien arising by operation of law) or other encumbrance over its present assets or revenues to secure any indebtedness represented by notes, bonds or debentures or other forms of debt securities:

- (i) which are capable of being quoted, listed or ordinarily dealt in on any stock exchange, over-the-counter or other similar securities market; and
- (ii) which are (A) payable in a currency other than Swedish Krona or (B) if payable in Swedish Krona issued as to more than 25 per cent. in aggregate principal amount thereof outside Sweden, without at the same time equally and rateably according the same security to the Notes or such other security as shall have been approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of the Noteholders.

4. INTEREST

4.1 Interest on Fixed Rate Notes

Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date at the rate(s) per annum equal to the Rate(s) of Interest, Interest will be payable in arrear on the Interest Payment Date(s) in each year up to (and including) the Maturity Date.

If the Notes are in definitive form, except as provided in the applicable Final Terms, the amount of interest payable on each Interest Payment Date in respect of the Fixed Interest Period ending on (but excluding) such date will amount to the Fixed Coupon Amount. Payments of interest on any Interest Payment Date will, if so specified in the applicable Final Terms, amount to the Broken Amount so specified.

As used in the Conditions, Fixed Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date.

Except in the case of Notes in definitive form where an applicable Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount is specified in the applicable Final Terms, interest shall be calculated in respect of any period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Fixed Rate Notes represented by such Global Note; or
- (B) in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case, multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction.

The resultant figure (including after application of any Fixed Coupon Amount or Broken Amount, as applicable, to the Calculation Amount in the case of Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form) shall be rounded to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention.

Where the Specified Denomination of a Fixed Rate Note in definitive form comprises more than one Calculation Amount, the amount of interest payable in respect of such Fixed Rate Note shall be the aggregate of the amounts (determined in the manner provided above) for each Calculation Amount comprising the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 4.1:

- (a) if "Actual/Actual (ICMA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms:
 - (i) in the case of Notes where the number of days in the relevant period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (the Accrual Period) is equal to or shorter than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the number of days in such Accrual Period divided by the product of (I) the number of days in such Determination Period and (II) the number of Determination Dates (as specified in the applicable Final Terms) that would occur in one calendar year; or
 - (ii) in the case of Notes where the Accrual Period is longer than the Determination Period during which the Accrual Period ends, the sum of:
 - (A) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the Determination Period in which the Accrual Period begins divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
 - (B) the number of days in such Accrual Period falling in the next Determination Period divided by the product of (x) the number of days in such Determination Period and (y) the number of Determination Dates that would occur in one calendar year; and
- (b) if "30/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the period from (and including) the most recent Interest Payment Date (or, if none, the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the relevant payment date (such number of days being calculated on the basis of a year of 360 days with 12 30-day months) divided by 360.

In the Conditions:

Determination Period means each period from (and including) a Determination Date to (but excluding) the next Determination Date (including, where either the Interest Commencement Date or the final Interest Payment Date is not a Determination Date, the period commencing on the first Determination Date prior to, and ending on the first Determination Date falling after, such date); and sub-unit means with respect to any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, with respect to euro, means one cent.

4.2 Interest on Floating Rate Notes

(i) Interest Payment Dates

Each Floating Rate Note bears interest from (and including) the Interest Commencement Date and such interest will be payable in arrear on either:

- (A) the Specified Interest Payment Date(s) in each year specified in the applicable Final Terms; or
- (B) if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are specified in the applicable Final Terms, each date (each such date, together with each Specified Interest Payment Date, an Interest Payment Date) which falls the number of months or other period specified as the Specified Period in the applicable Final Terms after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.

Such interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period. In the Conditions, Interest Period means the period from (and including) an Interest Payment Date (or the Interest Commencement Date) to (but excluding) the next (or first) Interest Payment Date or the relevant payment date if the Notes become payable on a date other than an Interest Payment Date.

If a Business Day Convention is specified in the applicable Final Terms and (x) if there is no numerically corresponding day in the calendar month in which an Interest Payment Date should occur or (y) if any Interest Payment Date would otherwise fall on a day which is not a Business Day, then, if the Business Day Convention specified is:

- (1) in any case where Specified Periods are specified in accordance with Condition 4.2(i)(B) above, the Floating Rate Convention, such Interest Payment Date (i) in the case of (x) above, shall be the last day that is a Business Day in the relevant month and the provisions of (B) below shall apply mutatis mutandis or (ii) in the case of (y) above, shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (A) such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (B) each subsequent Interest Payment Date shall be the last Business Day in the month which falls the Specified Period after the preceding applicable Interest Payment Date occurred; or
- (2) the Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day; or
- (3) the Modified Following Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be postponed to the next day which is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day; or
- (4) the Preceding Business Day Convention, such Interest Payment Date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

In these Conditions, Business Day means a day which is:

- (A) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London and each Additional Business Centre (other than T2, as defined below) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (B) if T2 is specified as an Additional Business Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-Time Gross Settlement Express Transfer System or any successor or replacement for that system (T2) is open; and
- (C) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Melbourne and Wellington, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the T2 is open.

(ii) Rate of Interest

The Rate of Interest payable in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Period will be, subject as provided below, either:

- (A) the offered quotation; or
- (B) the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate (being either EURIBOR, NIBOR, STIBOR or TIBOR, as specified in the applicable Final Terms) which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time in the case of EURIBOR; Stockholm time, in the case of STIBOR and Tokyo time, in the case of TIBOR) or 12.00 noon (Oslo time, in the case of NIBOR) (the Specified Time) on the Interest Determination Date in question plus or minus (as indicated in the applicable Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of such offered quotations.

If the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, in the case of Condition 4.2(ii)(A) above, no offered quotation appears or, in the case of Condition 4.2(ii)(B), fewer than three offered quotations appear, in each case as at the Specified Time, the Issuer shall request each of the Reference Banks to provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate at approximately the Specified Time on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for the Interest Period shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the offered quotations plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable.

If on any Interest Determination Date one only or none of the Reference Banks provides the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with an offered quotation as provided in the preceding paragraph, the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period shall be the rate per annum which the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, determines as being the arithmetic mean (rounded if necessary to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards) of the rates, as communicated to (and at the request of) the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR), the Oslo inter-bank market (if the reference rate is NIBOR), the Stockholm inter-bank market (if the reference rate is STIBOR) or the Tokyo inter-bank market (if the reference rate is TIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any) or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, with offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean (rounded as provided above) of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, at approximately the Specified Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for the purpose) informs the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, it is quoting to leading banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market (if the reference rate is EURIBOR), the Oslo inter-bank market (if the reference rate is NIBOR), the Stockholm inter-bank market (if the reference rate is STIBOR) or the Tokyo inter-bank market (if the reference rate is TIBOR) plus or minus (as appropriate) the Margin (if any), provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (B):

Reference Banks means (a) in the case of a determination of EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of four major banks in the Euro-zone inter-bank market, (b) in the case of a determination of NIBOR, the principal Oslo office of four major banks in the Oslo inter-bank market, (c) in the case of a determination of STIBOR the principal Stockholm office of four major banks in the Stockholm inter-bank market or (d) in the case of a determination of TIBOR, the principal Tokyo office of four major banks in the Tokyo inter-bank market, in each case selected by the Issuer or an advisor selected by the Issuer;

(iii) Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Minimum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is less than such Minimum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Minimum Rate of Interest.

If the applicable Final Terms specifies a Maximum Rate of Interest for any Interest Period, then, in the event that the Rate of Interest in respect of such Interest Period determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (ii) above is greater than such Maximum Rate of Interest, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be such Maximum Rate of Interest.

(iv) Determination of Rate of Interest and Calculation of Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will at or as soon as practicable after each time at which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, determine the Rate of Interest for the relevant Interest Period.

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will calculate the amount of interest (the Interest Amount) payable on the Floating Rate Notes for the relevant Interest Period by applying the Rate of Interest to:

- (A) in the case of Floating Rate Notes which are represented by a Global Note, the aggregate outstanding nominal amount of the Notes represented by such Global Note; or
- (B) in the case of Floating Rate Notes in definitive form, the Calculation Amount;

and, in each case,

multiplying such sum by the applicable Day Count Fraction, and rounding the resultant figure to the nearest sub-unit of the relevant Specified Currency, half of any such sub-unit being rounded upwards or otherwise in accordance with applicable market convention. Where the Specified Denomination of a Floating Rate Note in definitive form comprises more than one Calculation Amount, the Interest Amount payable in respect of such Note shall be the aggregate of the amounts (determined in the manner provided above) for each Calculation Amount comprising the Specified Denomination without any further rounding.

Day Count Fraction means, in respect of the calculation of an amount of interest in accordance with this Condition 4.2:

- (i) if "Actual/Actual (ISDA)" or "Actual/Actual" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 (or, if any portion of that Interest Period falls in a leap year, the sum of (I) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a leap year divided by 366 and (II) the actual number of days in that portion of the Interest Period falling in a non-leap year divided by 365);
- (ii) if "Actual/365 (Fixed)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365;
- (iii) if "Actual/365 (Sterling)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 365 or, in the case of an Interest Payment Date falling in a leap year, 366;
- (iv) if "Actual/360" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the actual number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360;
- (v) if "30/360", "360/360" or "Bond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y1" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls:

"Y2" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M1" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M2" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D1" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number is 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

"D2" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31 and D1 is greater than 29, in which case D2 will be 30;

(vi) if "30E/360" or "Eurobond Basis" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y1" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls:

"Y2" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M1" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M2" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D1" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

"D2" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless such number would be 31, in which case D2 will be 30;

(vii) if "30E/360 (ISDA)" is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the number of days in the Interest Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$

where:

"Y1" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls:

"Y2" is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"M1" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Interest Period falls;

"M2" is the calendar month, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day of the Interest Period falls;

"D1" is the first calendar day, expressed as a number, of the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February or (ii) such number would be 31, in which case D1 will be 30; and

"D2" is the calendar day, expressed as a number, immediately following the last day included in the Interest Period, unless (i) that day is the last day of February but not the Maturity Date or (ii) such number would be 31 and in which case D2 will be 30.

(v) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified as applicable in respect of an Interest Period in the applicable Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Period shall be calculated by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate, one of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Designated Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Period provided however that if there is no rate available for a period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, shall calculate such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as the Issuer in consultation with an Independent Adviser (as defined in Condition 4.2(vi) below) determines appropriate.

Designated Maturity means the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

(vi) Benchmark Event

Notwithstanding the provisions above in this Condition 4.2, if the Issuer, in consultation with the party responsible for determining the Rate of Interest (being the Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent or such other party specified in the applicable Final Terms, as applicable), determines that a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate at any time when the Conditions provide for any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the following provisions shall apply:

- (A) the Issuer shall use reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate and in either case, an Adjustment Spread and any Benchmark Amendments (each as defined and as further described below) no later than five Business Days prior to the Interest Determination Date relating to the next succeeding Interest Period (the IA Determination Cut-off Date) for the purposes of determining the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for such next succeeding Interest Period and for all future Interest Periods (subject to the subsequent further operation of this Condition 4.2(vi) during any other future Interest Period(s));
- (B) if the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determines that:
 - (1) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 4.2 (vi)(C)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the subsequent further operation of this Condition 4.2(vi)); or
 - (2) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate (as adjusted by the applicable Adjustment Spread as provided in Condition 4.2(vi)(C)) shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the subsequent further operation of this Condition 4.2(vi));

- (C) if a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined in accordance with Condition 4.2(vi)(B), the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) shall determine an Adjustment Spread (which may be expressed as a specified quantum or a formula or methodology for determining the applicable Adjustment Spread (and, for the avoidance of doubt, an Adjustment Spread may be positive, negative or zero)), which Adjustment Spread shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) for each subsequent determination of a relevant Rate of Interest (or a relevant component part thereof) by reference to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable), subject to the subsequent further operation and adjustment as provided in this Condition 4.2(vi);
- (D) if any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 4.2(vi) and the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determines (i) that amendments to these Conditions are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the Benchmark Amendments) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 4.2(vi)(E), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders or Couponholders, vary these Conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents and the Calculation Agent shall (at the Issuer's expense and direction), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders or Couponholders, be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments required to the Agency Agreement and these Conditions.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 4.2(vi), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange or other relevant authority on or by which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading;

- (E) the Issuer shall promptly notify the party responsible for determining the Rate of Interest (being the Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent or such other party specified in the applicable Final Terms, as applicable), the Principal Paying Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 13 (Notices), the Noteholders of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, the applicable Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 4.2(vi). Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any; and
- (F) if, following the occurrence of a Benchmark Event and in relation to the determination of the Rate of Interest on the immediately following Interest Determination Date, (i) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (ii) the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) or, in either case, an Adjustment Spread pursuant to this Condition 4.2(vi) prior to the IA Determination Cut-off Date and the Relevant Screen Page is no longer available for use, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Period (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Period in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Period).

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under this Condition 4.2(vi), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 4.2(ii) will continue to apply unless and until the party responsible for determining the Rate of Interest (being the Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent or such other party specified in the applicable Final Terms, as applicable) has been notified of the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) no less than five Business Days prior to the Interest Determination Date, the applicable Adjustment Spread and Benchmark Amendments (if applicable), in accordance with Condition 4.2(vi)(E).

For the purposes of this Condition 4.2(vi):

Adjustment Spread means either a spread (which may be positive, negative or zero), or the formula or methodology for calculating a spread, in either case, which the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) determines is required to be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) and is the spread, formula or methodology which:

- (A) in the case of a Successor Rate, is formally recommended, or formally provided as an option for parties to adopt, in relation to the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate by any Relevant Nominating Body;
- (B) (if no such recommendation or option has been made (or made available), or in the case of an Alternative Rate) the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) determines is recognised or acknowledged as being in customary usage in international debt capital markets transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or
- (C) (if no such customary market usage is recognised or acknowledged) the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) determines is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); or
- (D) (if no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged) the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) determines to be appropriate to reduce or eliminate, to the fullest extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to Noteholders and Couponholders as a result of the replacement of the Original Reference Rate with the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be);

Alternative Rate means an alternative to the Original Reference Rate which the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner and after consultation with the Issuer) determines in accordance with Condition 4.2(vi)(B) has replaced the Original Reference Rate in customary market usage in the international debt capital markets for the purposes of determining rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for the same interest period and in the same Specified Currency as the Notes or, if the Independent Adviser determines there is no such rate, such other rate as the Independent Adviser (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determines is most comparable to the Original Reference Rate;

Benchmark Amendments has the meaning given to it in Condition 4.2(vi)(D);

Benchmark Event means:

- (A) the Original Reference Rate ceasing to be published for a period of at least 5 Business Days or ceasing permanently to be calculated, administered and published;
- (B) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that it will, on or before a specified date, cease publishing the Original Reference Rate permanently or indefinitely (in circumstances where no successor administrator has been appointed that will continue publication of the Original Reference Rate) and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (B)(i);

- (C) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate has been permanently or indefinitely discontinued;
- (D) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that the Original Reference Rate will, on or before a specified date, be permanently or indefinitely discontinued and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the date specified in (D)(i);
- (E) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of the Original Reference Rate that means the Original Reference Rate will be prohibited from being used or that its use will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, in each case on or before a specified date and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (E)(i);
- (F) it has or will prior to the next Interest Determination Date become unlawful for any Paying Agent, the Principal Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Issuer or other party to calculate any payments due to be made to any Noteholder or Couponholder using the Original Reference Rate (including, without limitation, under the Benchmarks Regulation (EU) 2016/1011, if applicable); or
- (G) the later of (i) the making of a public statement by the supervisor of the administrator of such Original Reference Rate announcing that such Original Reference Rate is or will, on or before a date specified, be no longer representative and (ii) the date falling six months prior to the specified date referred to in (G)(i);

Independent Adviser means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial adviser experienced in the international capital markets, in each case appointed by the Issuer at its own expense. For the avoidance of doubt, an Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 4.2(vi) shall act in good faith as an expert and in a commercially reasonable manner and (in the absence of bad faith or fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it pursuant to this Condition 4.2(vi);

Original Reference Rate means the originally-specified Reference Rate used to determine the relevant Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) in respect of any Interest Period(s) provided that if, following one or more Benchmark Events, such originally-specified Reference Rate (or any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate which has replaced it) has been replaced by a (or a further) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and a Benchmark Event subsequently occurs in respect of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, the term "Original Reference Rate" shall include any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate;

Relevant Nominating Body means, in respect of an Original Reference Rate:

- (A) the central bank, reserve bank, monetary authority or any similar institution for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, or any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate; or
- (B) any working group or committee sponsored by, chaired or co-chaired by or constituted at the request of (a) the central bank, reserve bank, monetary authority or any similar institution for the currency to which the Original Reference Rate relates, (b) any central bank or other supervisory authority which is responsible for supervising the administrator of the Original Reference Rate, (c) a group of the aforementioned central banks or other supervisory authorities or (d) the Financial Stability Board or any part thereof; and

Successor Rate means a successor to or replacement of the Original Reference Rate or, where a Successor Rate or an Alternative Rate has been determined pursuant to Condition 4.2(vi)(B), such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, as applicable, which is formally recommended or formally provided as an option for parties to adopt, by any Relevant Nominating Body.

(vii) Notification of Rate of Interest and Interest Amounts

The Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, will cause the Rate of Interest and each Interest Amount for each Interest Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date to be notified to the Issuer and any stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed (by no later than the first day of each Interest Period) and notice thereof to be published in accordance with Condition 13 as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than the fourth London Business Day thereafter. Each Interest Amount and Interest Payment Date so notified may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made by way of adjustment) without prior notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. Any such amendment will be promptly notified to each stock exchange on which the relevant Floating Rate Notes are for the time being listed and to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13. For the purposes of this paragraph, the expression London Business Day means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for general business in London.

(viii) Certificates to be final

All certificates, communications, opinions, determinations, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 4.2, by the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, shall (in the absence of wilful default, bad faith, manifest error or proven error) be binding on the Issuer, the Principal Paying Agent, the other Paying Agents and all Noteholders and Couponholders and (in the absence of wilful default or bad faith) no liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders or the Couponholders shall attach to the Principal Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, as applicable, in connection with the exercise or non-exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions pursuant to such provisions.

4.3 Accrual of interest

Each Note (or in the case of the redemption of part only of a Note, that part only of such Note) will cease to bear interest (if any) from the date for its redemption unless, upon due presentation thereof, payment of principal is improperly withheld or refused. In such event, interest will continue to accrue until whichever is the earlier of:

- (1) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Note have been paid; and
- (2) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Notes has been received by the Principal Paying Agent and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13.

4.4 Sustainability-Linked Bonds Step Up Option

This Condition 4.4 applies to Notes in respect of which the applicable Final Terms indicates that the Step Up Option is applicable (Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes).

The Rate of Interest for Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes will be the Rate of Interest specified in, or determined in the manner specified in, the applicable Final Terms, provided that if a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event has occurred, then for any Interest Period commencing on or after the Interest Payment Date immediately following the Reporting End Date relating to the Reference Year, the Initial Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or the Initial Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) shall be increased by the Step-Up Margin (such increase being a Step Up).

For the avoidance of doubt, a Step Up may only occur once in respect of each Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event during the term of the Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes. The Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) will not decrease to the Initial Rate of Interest or the Initial Margin, as applicable, regardless of whether or not any of the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage or the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage satisfies the relevant SPT for any subsequent period following the occurrence of a Step Up.

The Issuer will cause the occurrence of a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event and the related increase in the Rate of Interest (in the case of Fixed Rate Notes) or Margin (in the case of Floating Rate Notes) to be notified to the Agent, and, in accordance with Condition 13, the Noteholders as soon as reasonably practicable after such occurrence and in no event later than the Reporting End Date relating to the Relevant Year.

One or more of the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 3 Baseline, the KPIs and the SPTs may be recalculated in good faith by the Issuer in accordance with the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework to reflect any significant change in: (i) the calculation methodology of the relevant KPI(s), (ii) any regulation which is relevant to the determination of the relevant KPI(s); (iii) data due to better data accessibility or discovery of data errors, or (iv) the perimeter of the Group as a result of any acquisition, amalgamation, demerger, merger, corporate reconstruction, divestiture or disposal, provided that any such recalculation has been confirmed by the relevant External Verifier in a Recalculation Assurance Report and published by the Issuer in a Sustainability-Linked Progress Report in accordance with Condition 13A.

In these Conditions:

Assurance Report has the meaning given to it in Condition 13A;

External Verifier means in respect of each KPI, a qualified external reviewer, such as an auditor or environmental consultant, with relevant expertise, as outlined in the ICMA's Guidelines for Green, Social, Sustainability and Sustainability-Linked Bonds External Reviews June 2022 (as amended from time to time, the Voluntary Guidelines), to be appointed by the Issuer, or, in the event that such external verifier resigns or is otherwise replaced, such other independent, qualified provider(s) with relevant expertise as outlined in the Voluntary Guidelines, as appointed by the Issuer;

GHG Protocol Standard means the document titled "The Greenhouse Gas Protocol, A Corporate Accounting and Reporting Standard (Revised Edition)" published by the World Business Council for Sustainable Development and the World Resources Institute (as amended, updated, supplemented or replaced from time to time);

Group means the Issuer and its Subsidiaries;

Initial Rate of Interest means, in respect of Fixed Rate Notes, the initial Rate of Interest specified in the applicable Final Terms;

Initial Margin means, in respect of Floating Rate Notes, the initial Margin specified in the applicable Final Terms;

KPI(s) means, Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions and Scope 3 GHG Emissions;

Recalculation Assurance Report has the meaning given to it in Condition 13A;

Reference Year means the calendar year specified in the applicable Final Terms as being the Reference Year;

Relevant Year means a year commencing on 1 January and ending on 31 December, beginning with the year in which the Issue Date of the Notes falls up to (and including) the Reference Year;

Reporting End Date means, in relation to any Relevant Year, the date falling 120 days after 31 December in such Relevant Year;

Scope 1 and 2 Baseline means, in metric tons of carbon dioxide equivalent (mt CO₂e), the sum of Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions for the period from and including 1 January 2021 to and including 31 December 2021, as reported in the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report (as defined in Condition 13A), subject to recalculation in accordance with this Condition 4.4;

Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions means in mt CO₂e, the sum of:

- (i) Scope 1 greenhouse gas emissions as defined by, and calculated in accordance with, the GHG Protocol Standard (the Scope 1 Emissions); and
- (ii) Scope 2 greenhouse gas emissions as defined by, and calculated in accordance with, the GHG Protocol Standard (the Scope 2 Emissions);

Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Condition means the condition that:

- (i) the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and the Assurance Report relating to each Relevant Year and (if applicable) the related Recalculation Assurance Report have been published by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 13A by no later than the relevant Reporting End Date; and
- (ii) the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage in respect of the Reference Year, as shown in the relevant Sustainability-Linked Progress Report referred to in paragraph (i) above, was equal to or greater than the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold, and if the requirements of paragraph(s) (i) and/or (ii) are not met, the Group shall be deemed to have failed to satisfy the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Condition;

a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event occurs if the Group fails to satisfy the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Condition;

Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin means the margin specified in the applicable Final Terms as being the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin;

Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage means, in respect of any Relevant Year, the percentage (rounded to the nearest whole number, with 0.5 rounded upwards) by which the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions for such Relevant Year has been reduced in comparison to the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, as calculated in good faith by the Issuer, reported by the Issuer in the relevant Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and confirmed by the relevant External Verifier in the relevant Assurance Report, in accordance with Condition 13A;

Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold means the threshold (expressed as a percentage) specified in the applicable Final Terms as being the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold;

Scope 3 Baseline means, in mt CO_{2e}, the Scope 3 Emissions for the period 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2021, as reported in the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report, subject to recalculation in accordance with this Condition 4.4;

Scope 3 GHG Emissions means in mt CO_{2e}, Scope 3 greenhouse gas emissions as defined by, and calculated in accordance with, the GHG Protocol Standard;

Scope 3 GHG Emissions Condition means the condition that:

- (i) the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and the Assurance Report relating to each Relevant Year and (if applicable) the related Recalculation Assurance Report have been published by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 13A by no later than the relevant Reporting End Date; and
- (ii) the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage in respect of the Reference Year, as shown in the relevant Sustainability-Linked Progress Report referred to in paragraph (i) above, was equal to or greater than the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold, and if the requirements of paragraph(s) (i) and/or (ii) are not met, the Group shall be deemed to have failed to satisfy the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Condition;

a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event occurs if the Group fails to satisfy the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Condition;

Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin means the margin specified in the applicable Final Terms as being the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin;

Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage means in respect of any Relevant Year, the percentage (rounded to the nearest whole number, with 0.5 rounded upwards) by which the Scope 3 GHG Emissions for such Relevant Year has been reduced in comparison to the Scope 3 Baseline, as calculated in good faith by the Issuer, reported by the Issuer in the relevant Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and confirmed by the relevant External Verifier in the relevant Assurance Report, in accordance with Condition 13A;

Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold means the threshold (expressed as a percentage) specified in the applicable Final Terms as being the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold;

SPT(s) means the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold and/or the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold, as applicable;

Step-Up Margin means the aggregate of:

- (i) where Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event has occurred, the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin; and
- (ii) where Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event has occurred, the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Step-Up Margin;

Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework means the sustainability-linked financing framework published by the Issuer and available on the Issuer's website as at the Issue Date of the Notes;

Sustainability-Linked Progress Report has the meaning given to it in Condition 13A; and Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event means one or both of (i) the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event; and/or (ii) the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event.

5. PAYMENTS

5.1 Method of payment

Subject as provided below:

- (i) payments in a Specified Currency other than euro will be made by credit or transfer to an account in the relevant Specified Currency maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of the country of such Specified Currency (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars, shall be Melbourne and Wellington, respectively); and
- (ii) payments will be made in euro by credit or transfer to a euro account (or any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee.

Payments will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 7 and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, official interpretations thereof, or (without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 7) any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto.

5.2 Presentation of Definitive Notes and Coupons

Payments of principal in respect of Definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner provided in Condition 5.1 above only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Definitive Notes, and payments of interest in respect of Definitive Notes will (subject as provided below) be made as aforesaid only against presentation and surrender (or, in the case of part payment of any sum due, endorsement) of Coupons, in each case at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (which expression, as used herein, means the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia and its possessions)).

Fixed Rate Notes in definitive form (other than Long Maturity Notes (as defined below)) or Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes should be presented for payment together with all unmatured Coupons appertaining thereto (which expression shall for this purpose include Coupons falling to be issued on exchange of matured Talons), failing which the amount of any missing unmatured Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, the same proportion of the amount of such missing unmatured Coupon as the sum so paid bears to the sum due) will be deducted from the sum due for payment. Each amount of principal so deducted will be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of the relative missing Coupon at any time before the expiry of 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 7) in respect of such principal (whether or not such Coupon would otherwise have become void under Condition 8) or, if later, five years from the date on which such Coupon would otherwise have become due, but in no event thereafter.

Upon any Fixed Rate Note in definitive form becoming due and repayable prior to its Maturity Date, all unmatured Talons (if any) appertaining thereto will become void and no further Coupons will be issued in respect thereof.

Upon the date on which any Floating Rate Note, Long Maturity Note in definitive form or Fixed Rate Note in definitive form that is a Sustainability-Linked Step Up Note becomes due and repayable, unmatured Coupons and Talons (if any) relating thereto (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment or, as the case may be, exchange for further Coupons shall be made in respect thereof. A Long Maturity Note is a Fixed Rate Note (other than a Fixed Rate Note which on issue had a Talon attached) whose nominal amount on issue is less than the aggregate interest payable thereon provided that such Note shall cease to be a Long Maturity Note on the Interest Payment Date on which the aggregate amount of interest remaining to be paid after that date is less than the nominal amount of such Note.

If the due date for redemption of any Definitive Note is not an Interest Payment Date, interest (if any) accrued in respect of such Note from (and including) the preceding Interest Payment Date or, as the case may be, the Interest Commencement Date shall be payable only against surrender of the relevant Definitive Note.

5.3 Payments in respect of Global Notes

Payments of principal and interest (if any) in respect of Notes represented by any Global Note will (subject as provided below) be made in the manner specified above in relation to Definitive Notes or otherwise in the manner specified in the relevant Global Note, where applicable against presentation or surrender, as the case may be, of such Global Note at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States. A record of each payment made distinguishing between any payment of principal and any payment of interest, will be made either on such Global Note by the Paying Agent to which it was presented or, on the instruction of the Paying Agent, in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, as applicable.

5.4 General provisions applicable to payments

The holder of a Global Note shall be the only person entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note must look solely to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as the case may be, for their share of each payment so made by the Issuer to, or to the order of, the holder of such Global Note.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Condition, if any amount of principal and/or interest in respect of Notes is payable in U.S. dollars, such U.S. dollar payments of principal and/or interest in respect of such Notes will be made at the specified office of a Paying Agent in the United States if:

- (i) the Issuer has appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment in U.S. dollars at such specified offices outside the United States of the full amount of principal and interest on the Notes in the manner provided above when due;
- (ii) payment of the full amount of such principal and interest at all such specified offices outside the United States is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on the full payment or receipt of principal and interest in U.S. dollars; and
- (iii) such payment is then permitted under United States law without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, adverse tax consequences to the Issuer.

5.5 Payment Day

If the date for payment of any amount in respect of any Note or Coupon is not a Payment Day, the holder thereof shall not be entitled to payment until the next following Payment Day in the relevant place and shall not be entitled to further interest or other payment in respect of such delay. For these purposes, Payment Day means any day which (subject to Condition 8) is:

- (i) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in:
 - (A) in the case of Notes in definitive form only, the relevant place of presentation; and
 - (B) any Additional Financial Centre (other than T2) specified in the applicable Final Terms;
- (ii) if T2 is specified as an Additional Financial Centre in the applicable Final Terms, a day on which the T2 is open; and
- (iii) either (1) in relation to any sum payable in a Specified Currency other than euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the relevant Specified Currency (which if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars or New Zealand dollars shall be Melbourne and Wellington, respectively) or (2) in relation to any sum payable in euro, a day on which the T2 is open.

5.6 Interpretation of principal and interest

Any reference in the Conditions to principal in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable:

- (i) any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to principal under Condition 7;
- (ii) the Final Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (iii) the Early Redemption Amount of the Notes;
- (iv) the Optional Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes;
- (v) the Make-Whole Redemption Amount(s) (if any) of the Notes;
- (vi) the Clean-up Call Redemption Amount; and

- (vii) any premium and any other amounts (other than interest) which may be payable by the Issuer under or in respect of the Notes.

Any reference in the Conditions to interest in respect of the Notes shall be deemed to include, as applicable, any additional amounts which may be payable with respect to interest under Condition 7.

6. REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE

6.1 Redemption at maturity

Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as specified below, each Note will be redeemed by the Issuer at its Final Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Final Terms in the relevant Specified Currency on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Final Terms.

6.2 Redemption for tax reasons

The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time (if this Note is not a Floating Rate Note) or on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is a Floating Rate Note), on giving not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Principal Paying Agent and, in accordance with Condition 13, the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable), if:

- (a) on the occasion of the next payment due under the Notes, the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 7 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, or interpretation of, the laws, published practice or regulations of a Tax Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 7) or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations, which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first Tranche of the Notes; and
- (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition, the Issuer shall deliver to the Principal Paying Agent to make available at its specified office to the Noteholders (i) a certificate signed by two Directors of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred, and (ii) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Notes redeemed pursuant to this Condition 6.2 will be redeemed at their Early Redemption Amount referred to in Condition 6.7 below together (if appropriate) with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date of redemption.

If the Issuer would, on the occasion of the next payment in respect of the Notes, be prevented by Swedish law from making payment to the Noteholders or Couponholders of the full amount then due and payable, notwithstanding the undertaking to pay additional amounts contained in Condition 7, then the Issuer shall forthwith give notice of such fact to the Principal Paying Agent and the Issuer shall, upon giving not less than seven days' prior notice to the Noteholders, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes then outstanding at their Early Redemption Amount referred to in Condition 6.7 below together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption, provided that the due date for redemption, of which notice hereunder shall be given, shall be the latest practicable date at which the Issuer could make payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Notes or, if later, as soon as practicable thereafter.

6.3 Redemption at the option of the Issuer (Issuer Call)

If Issuer Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, having given not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 (which notices shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption), redeem all or some only of the Notes then outstanding on any Optional Redemption Date and at the Optional Redemption Amount(s) specified in, or determined in the manner specified in, the applicable Final Terms together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the relevant Optional Redemption Date. Any such redemption must be of a nominal amount not less than the Minimum Redemption Amount and not more than the Maximum Redemption Amount, in each case as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Notes to be redeemed (Redeemed Notes) will be selected individually by lot, in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Definitive Notes, and in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a Global Note, not more than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption (such date of selection being hereinafter called the Selection Date). In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 13 not less than 10 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. No exchange of the relevant Global Note will be permitted during the period from (and including) the Selection Date to (and including) the date fixed for redemption pursuant to this Condition 6.3 or pursuant to a Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer as described in Condition 6.4 and notice to that effect shall be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 at least five days prior to the Selection Date.

6.4 Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer

This Condition 6.4 applies to Notes which are subject to redemption prior to the Maturity Date at the option of the Issuer (other than for taxation reasons pursuant to Condition 6.2 or pursuant to the Issuer Call described in Condition 6.3), such option being referred to as the Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer. The applicable Final Terms contains provisions applicable to the Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer and must be read in conjunction with this Condition 6.4 for full information on the Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer. In particular, the applicable Final Terms will identify the Make-Whole Redemption Margin, the Reference Bond, the Quotation Time, the Reference Rate Determination Date and, if redeemable in part, any minimum or maximum amount of Notes which can be redeemed.

If Make-Whole Redemption by the Issuer is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer may, having given not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms to the Principal Paying Agent and, in accordance with Condition 13, the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable (other than in the circumstances set out below) and shall specify the date fixed for redemption (the Make-Whole Redemption Date)), redeem all or (if redemption in part is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms) some only of the Notes then outstanding on any Make-Whole Redemption Date and at the Make-Whole Redemption Amount(s) together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the relevant Make-Whole Redemption Date. In relation to Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes only, the following amounts shall also be deemed to be payable: (i) the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Redemption Premium (unless the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage as reported in the most recently published Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and Assurance Report as at the Optional Redemption Date is equal to or greater than the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold) and/or (ii) the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Redemption Premium (unless the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage as reported in the most recently published Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and Assurance Report as at the Optional Redemption Date is equal to or greater than the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold).

Any such notice of redemption may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, in which case such notice shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Optional

Redemption Date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion) by the Optional Redemption Date, or by the Optional Redemption Date so delayed. Any such redemption must be of a nominal amount not less than the Minimum Redemption Amount and not more than the Maximum Redemption Amount, in each case as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

In the case of a partial redemption of Notes, the Redeemed Notes will be selected individually by lot, in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Definitive Notes, and in accordance with the rules of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as either a pool factor or a reduction in nominal amount, at their discretion) in the case of Redeemed Notes represented by a Global Note, on a Selection Date not more than 30 days prior to the Make-Whole Redemption Date. In the case of Redeemed Notes represented by Definitive Notes, a list of the serial numbers of such Redeemed Notes will be published in accordance with Condition 13 not less than 10 days prior to the Make-Whole Redemption Date. No exchange of the relevant Global Note will be permitted during the period from (and including) the Selection Date to (and including) the Make-Whole Redemption Date pursuant to this paragraph and notice to that effect shall be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 at least five days prior to the Selection Date.

In this Condition 6.4, Make-Whole Redemption Amount means: (A) the outstanding nominal amount of the relevant Note or (B) if higher, the sum, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal on such Notes to be redeemed and the Remaining Term Interest on such Notes (not including any portion of such payments of interest accrued to the date of redemption) discounted to the relevant Make-Whole Redemption Date on an annual, semi-annual or such other basis as is equivalent to the frequency of interest payments on the Notes (as determined by the Calculation Agent) (based on the Day Count Fraction specified in the applicable Final Terms) at the Reference Rate plus the Make-Whole Redemption Margin (if any) specified in the applicable Final Terms, where:

CA Selected Bond means a government security or securities (which, if the Specified Currency is euro, will be a German Bundesobligationen) selected by the Calculation Agent as having a maturity comparable to the remaining term of the Notes to be redeemed and that would be utilised, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining term of such Notes;

Calculation Agent means an independent financial institution of international repute or other independent financial adviser experienced in the international capital markets appointed by the Issuer for the purposes of calculating the relevant Make-Whole Redemption Amount, and notified to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13;

Reference Bond means (A) if CA Selected Bond is specified in the applicable Final Terms, the relevant CA Selected Bond or (B) if CA Selected Bond is not specified in the applicable Final Terms, the security specified in the applicable Final Terms, provided that if the Calculation Agent advises the Issuer that, at the time at which the relevant Make-Whole Redemption Amount is to be determined, for reasons of illiquidity or otherwise, the relevant security specified is not appropriate for such purpose, such other central bank or government security as the Calculation Agent may, after consultation with the Issuer and with the advice of Reference Market Makers, determine to be appropriate;

Reference Bond Price means (i) the average of five Reference Market Maker Quotations for the relevant Make-Whole Redemption Date, after excluding the highest and lowest of such five Reference Market Maker Quotations (or, if there are two highest and/or two lowest quotations, excluding just one of such highest quotations and/or one of such lowest quotations, as the case may be), (ii) if the Calculation Agent obtains fewer than five, but more than one, such Reference Market Maker Quotations, the average of all such quotations, or (iii) if only one such Reference Market Maker Quotation is obtained, the amount of the Reference Market Maker Quotation so obtained;

Reference Market Maker Quotations means, with respect to each Reference Market Maker and any Make-Whole Redemption Date, the average, as determined by the Calculation Agent, of the bid and asked prices for the Reference Bond (expressed in each case as a percentage of its nominal amount) quoted in writing to the Calculation Agent at the Quotation Time specified in the applicable Final Terms on the Reference Rate Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms;

Reference Market Makers means five brokers or market makers of securities such as the Reference Bond selected by the Calculation Agent or such other five persons operating in the market for securities such as the Reference Bond as are selected by the Calculation Agent in consultation with the Issuer;

Reference Rate means, with respect to any Make-Whole Redemption Date, the rate per annum equal to the equivalent yield to maturity of the Reference Bond, calculated using a price for the Reference Bond (expressed as a percentage of its nominal amount) equal to the Reference Bond Price for such Make-Whole Redemption Date. The Reference Rate will be calculated on the Reference Rate Determination Date specified in the applicable Final Terms; and

Remaining Term Interest means, with respect to any Note, the aggregate amount of scheduled payment(s) of interest on such Note for the remaining term to maturity of such Note (or, if a Par Call Period is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, the remaining term up to the Par Call Commencement Date as specified in the applicable Final Terms) determined on the basis of:

(i) in the case of Notes that are not Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes, the Rate of Interest applicable to such Note from and including the date on which such Note is to be redeemed by the Issuer pursuant to this Condition 6.4; or

(ii) in the case of Notes that are Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes only, the Rate of Interest specified in, or determined in the manner specified in, the applicable Final Terms, until the Interest Period commencing on or after the Interest Payment Date immediately following the Reporting End Date relating to the Reference Year, at which point the Rate of Interest shall be deemed to be increased by the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Step Up Margin (unless the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage as reported in the most recently published Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and Assurance Report as at the Optional Redemption Date is equal to or greater than the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold) and the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Step Up Margin (unless the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage as reported in the most recently published Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and Assurance Report as at the Optional Redemption Date is equal to or greater than the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage Threshold).

6.5 Clean-up Call

If Clean-up Call is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, in the event that 75 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes initially issued (which shall include, for these purposes, any further Notes issued pursuant to Condition 16) have been redeemed or purchased and cancelled (other than as a result of the exercise by the Issuer of its redemption right under Condition 6.3 or 6.4), the Issuer may, having given not less than the minimum period nor more than the maximum period of notice specified in applicable Final Terms to the Principal Paying Agent and the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13, redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) all but not some only of, the Notes then outstanding at their principal amount (the Clean-up Call Redemption Amount) together with interest accrued to but excluding the date of such redemption. The notice referred to in the preceding sentence shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption.

6.6 Redemption at the option of the Noteholders

(a) Investor Put

If Investor Put is specified as being applicable in the applicable Final Terms, upon the holder of any Note giving to the Issuer in accordance with Condition 13 not less than the minimum period and not more than the maximum period of notice specified in the applicable Final Terms, the Issuer will, upon the expiry of such notice, redeem, such Note on the Optional Redemption Date and at the Optional Redemption Amount together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Optional Redemption Date.

If this Note is in definitive form and held outside Euroclear or Clearstream Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must deliver, at the specified office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the notice period, a duly completed and signed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from any specified office of any Paying Agent (a Put Notice) and in which the holder must specify a bank account to which payment is to be made under this Condition accompanied by this Note or evidence satisfactory to the Paying Agent concerned that this Note will, following delivery of the Put Notice, be held to its order or under its control. If this Note is represented by a Global Note or is in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption of this Note the holder of this Note must, within the notice period, give notice to the Principal Paying Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which may include notice being given on their instruction by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any common depository or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for them to the Principal Paying Agent by electronic means) in a form acceptable to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg from time to time.

Any Put Notice or other notice given in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg given by a holder of any Note pursuant to this Condition 6.6(a) shall be irrevocable except where, prior to the due date of redemption, an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing in which event such holder, at its option, may elect by notice to the Issuer to withdraw the notice given pursuant to this Condition 6.6(a) and instead to declare such Note forthwith due and payable pursuant to Condition 9.

(b) Change of Control Put

If Change of Control Put is specified in the applicable Final Terms and if at any time while any Note remains outstanding:

- (i) a Change of Control occurs, and
- (ii) within the Change of Control Period (A) if the Notes are rated with the agreement of the Issuer, a Rating Downgrade in respect of that Change of Control occurs, or (B) if the Notes are not rated, a Negative Rating Event in respect of that Change of Control occurs (in either case, a Put Event), the holder of each Note will have the option (unless, prior to the giving of the Put Event Notice referred to below, the Issuer gives notice to redeem the Notes (i) under Condition 6.2 or (ii) pursuant to the provisions of this Condition 6.6(b)) to require the Issuer to redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) that Note on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) (as defined below) at the Optional Redemption Amount specified in the Final Terms together with (or, where purchased, together with an amount equal to) accrued interest to but excluding the Optional Redemption Date (Put).

Promptly upon the Issuer becoming aware that a Put Event has occurred, the Issuer shall give notice (a Put Event Notice) to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13 specifying the nature of the Put Event and the circumstances giving rise to it and the procedure for exercising the option contained in this Condition 6.6(b).

If this Note is in definitive form and held outside Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the option to require the Issuer to redeem or, as the case may be, purchase any Notes under this Condition 6.6(b), the holder of that Note must deliver such Note, on any business day in the city of the specified office of the relevant Paying Agent falling within the period (the Put Period) of 30 days after a Put Event Notice is given, at the specified office of any Paying Agent, accompanied by a duly signed and completed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from the specified office of any Paying Agent (a Put Option Notice) and in which the holder must specify a bank account to which payment is to be made under this Condition 6.6(b). The Note should be delivered together with all Coupons appertaining thereto maturing after the date (the Optional Redemption Date (Put)) which is the seventh day after the last day of the Put Period failing which all such missing unmatured Coupons will be void.

If this Note is represented by a Global Note or is in definitive form and held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, to exercise the right to require redemption or, as the case may be, purchase of a Note under this Condition 6.6(b) the holder of the Note must, within the Put Period, give notice to the Principal Paying Agent of such exercise in accordance with the standard procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which may include notice being given on their instruction by Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any common depository for them to the Principal Paying Agent by electronic means) in a form acceptable to Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg from time to time and, if this Note is represented by a Global Note, at the same time present or procure the presentation of the relevant Global Note to the Principal Paying Agent for notation accordingly.

A non-transferable receipt (a Put Option Receipt) (issued by the relevant Paying Agent or the Principal Paying Agent, as the case may be) shall be delivered to each holder of Note(s):

- (a) in the case of a Note in definitive form held outside Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, which has delivered its Note(s) and Put Option Notice to such Paying Agent; or
- (b) in the case of a Global Note or note in definitive form held through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, from whom notice has been received.

The Issuer shall redeem, or at the option of the Issuer purchase (or procure the purchase of), the Notes in respect of which Put Option Receipts have been issued on the Optional Redemption Date (Put), unless previously redeemed and/or purchased. Payment in respect of any Note so delivered will be made, if the holder duly specified a Euro bank account in the Put Option Notice to which payment is to be made, on the Optional Redemption Date (Put) by transfer to that bank account and in every other case on or after the Optional Redemption Date (Put), in each case against presentation and surrender or (as the case may be) endorsement of such Put Option Receipt at the specified office of any Paying Agent in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 6.6(b).

If 75 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased pursuant to this Condition 6.6(b), the Issuer may, having given not less than 30 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13, such notice to be given within 30 days after the Optional Redemption Date (Put), redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) all but not some only of, the Notes then outstanding at their principal amount together with interest accrued to but excluding the date of such redemption. The notice referred to in the preceding sentence shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption (which shall not be more than 60 days after the date of the notice). Upon expiry of such notice, the Issuer will redeem, purchase (or procure the purchase of) the Notes.

In this Condition 6.6(b):

A Change of Control shall be deemed to have occurred if (whether or not approved by the Board of Directors or the Executive Board of the Issuer) any person (a Relevant Person), alone or together with its affiliates (as defined in the Swedish Act Concerning Public Takeover Bids in the Stock Market (2006:451)), at any time directly or indirectly own(s) or acquire(s) such number of the shares in the capital of the Issuer carrying more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights.

Change of Control Period means the period commencing on the earlier of (a) the date of the relevant Change of Control and (b) the date of the earliest Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement (if any) and ending 120 days after the public announcement of the Change of Control having occurred.

Investment Grade Rating means a rating of at least BBB- (or equivalent thereof) in the case of S&P or a rating of at least Baa3 (or equivalent thereof) in the case of Moody's (as defined below) or the equivalent rating in the case of any other Rating Agency.

A Negative Rating Event shall be deemed to have occurred if (i) the Issuer does not within the Change of Control Period seek, and thereafter use all reasonable endeavours to obtain from a Rating Agency, a rating or (ii) if it does so seek and use such endeavours, it has not at the expiry of the Change of Control Period and as a result of such Change of Control obtained an Investment Grade Rating, provided that the Rating Agency publicly announces or publicly confirms in writing that its declining to assign an Investment Grade Rating was the result of the applicable Change of Control.

Rating Agency means S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (S&P) and Moody's Investors Service Limited (Moody's) or any of their respective successors or any other rating agency of equivalent international standing specified from time to time by the Issuer.

A Rating Downgrade shall be deemed to have occurred in respect of a Change of Control if within the Change of Control Period the rating previously assigned to the Notes by any Rating Agency at the invitation of the Issuer is (x) withdrawn and not subsequently reinstated within the Change of Control Period or (y) changed from an Investment Grade Rating to a non-Investment Grade Rating (for example, from BBB- to BB+ by S&P, or its equivalents for the time being, or worse) and not subsequently upgraded to an Investment Grade Rating within the Change of Control Period or (z) (if the rating assigned to the Notes by any Rating Agency at the invitation of the Issuer is already below an Investment Grade Rating) lowered one full rating category (for example, from BB+ to BB by S&P or such similar lower or equivalent rating) and not subsequently upgraded within the Change of Control Period, provided that a Rating Downgrade otherwise arising by virtue of a particular change in (or withdrawal of) rating shall be deemed not to have occurred in respect of a particular Change of Control if the Rating Agency making the change in (or withdrawal of) rating to which this definition would otherwise apply does not publicly announce or publicly confirm that the reduction (or withdrawal) was the result of the applicable Change of Control.

Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement means any formal public announcement or statement by or on behalf of the Issuer or any actual or potential bidder or any adviser thereto relating to any potential Change of Control where, within 180 days of the date of such announcement or statement, a Change of Control occurs.

6.7 Early Redemption Amounts

For the purpose of Condition 6.2 above and Condition 9, each Note will be redeemed at its Early Redemption Amount calculated as follows:

- (i) in the case of a Note with a Final Redemption Amount equal to the Issue Price, at the Final Redemption Amount thereof;
- (ii) in the case of a Note (other than a Zero Coupon Note) with a Final Redemption Amount which is or may be less or greater than the Issue Price or which is payable in a Specified Currency other than that in which the Note is denominated, at the amount specified in the applicable Final Terms or, if no such amount or manner is so specified in the applicable Final Terms, at its nominal amount; or
- (iii) in the case of a Zero Coupon Note, at its Early Redemption Amount calculated in accordance with the following formula:

$$\text{Early Redemption Amount} = \text{RP} \times (1 + \text{AY})^y$$

where:

RP means the Reference Price;

AY means the Accrual Yield expressed as a decimal; and

y is the Day Count Fraction specified in the applicable Final Terms which will be either (i) 30/360 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the number of days (calculated on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of 12 months of 30 days each) from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 360) or (ii) Actual/360 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the actual number of days from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 360) or (iii) Actual/365 (in which case the numerator will be equal to the actual number of days from (and including) the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption or (as the case may be) the date upon which such Note becomes due and repayable and the denominator will be 365), or on such other calculation basis as may be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

6.8 Purchases

The Issuer or any Subsidiary (as defined in the Agency Agreement) of the Issuer may at any time purchase Notes (provided that, in the case of Definitive Notes, all unmatured Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto are purchased therewith) at any price in the open market or otherwise. Such Notes may be held, reissued, resold or, at the option of the Issuer, surrendered to any Paying Agent for cancellation.

6.9 Cancellation

All Notes which are redeemed will forthwith be cancelled (together with all unmatured Coupons and Talons attached thereto or surrendered therewith at the time of redemption). All Notes so cancelled and any Notes purchased and cancelled pursuant to Condition 6.8 above (together with all unmatured Coupons and Talons cancelled therewith) shall be forwarded to the Principal Paying Agent and cannot be reissued or resold.

6.10 Late payment on Zero Coupon Notes

If the amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note upon redemption of such Zero Coupon Note pursuant to Condition 6.1, 6.2, 6.3, 6.4 above or upon its becoming due and repayable as provided in Condition 9 is improperly withheld or refused, the amount due and repayable in respect of such Zero Coupon Note shall be the amount calculated as provided in Condition 6.7(iii) above as though the references therein to the date fixed for the redemption or the date upon which such Zero Coupon Note becomes due and payable were replaced by references to the date which is the earlier of:

- (i) the date on which all amounts due in respect of such Zero Coupon Note have been paid; and
- (ii) five days after the date on which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of such Zero Coupon Notes has been received by the Principal Paying Agent and notice to that effect has been given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 13.

6.11 Sustainability-Linked Redemption

This Condition 6.11 applies to Notes in respect of which the applicable Final Terms indicates that the Sustainability-Linked Redemption Option is applicable (Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes).

For such Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes, following the occurrence of a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event, the Final Redemption Amount, the Optional Redemption Amount, the Early Redemption Amount or the Clean-up Call Redemption Amount, in each case as applicable, shall be increased by the Sustainability-Linked Redemption Premium (without double-counting of any Sustainability-Linked Redemption Premium applied pursuant to Condition 6.4).

The Issuer will cause the occurrence of a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event to be notified to the Agent and, in accordance with Condition 13, the Noteholders as soon as reasonably practicable after such occurrence and in no event later than the Reporting End Date relating to the Relevant Year.

In this Condition:

Sustainability-Linked Redemption Premium means the aggregate of:

- (i) where Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event has occurred, the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Event Redemption Premium specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (ii) where Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event is specified as applicable in the applicable Final Terms and a Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event has occurred, the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Event Redemption Premium specified in the applicable Final Terms.

7. TAXATION

All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Notes and Coupons by or on behalf of the Issuer will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of any Tax Jurisdiction unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, the Issuer will pay, subject to Condition 6.2, such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holders of the Notes or Coupons after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would otherwise have been receivable in respect of the Notes or Coupons, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction, except that no such additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Note or Coupon:

- (i) presented for payment in the Kingdom of Sweden; or
- (ii) the holder of which is liable for such taxes or duties in respect of such Note, Talon or Coupon by reason of the holder having some connection with a Tax Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of the Note, Talon or Coupon; or
- (iii) presented for payment more than 30 days after the Relevant Date (as defined below) except to the extent that the holder thereof would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day assuming that day to have been a Payment Day (as defined in Condition 5.5).

As used herein:

- (i) Tax Jurisdiction means the Kingdom of Sweden or any other jurisdiction or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax; and
- (ii) the Relevant Date means the date on which such payment first becomes due, except that, if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been duly received by the Principal Paying Agent on or prior to such due date, it means the date on which, the full amount of such moneys having been so received, notice to that effect is duly given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 11.

8. PRESCRIPTION

The Notes and Coupons will become void unless claims in respect of principal and/or interest are made within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 7) therefor.

There shall not be included in any Coupon sheet issued on exchange of a Talon any Coupon the claim for payment in respect of which would be void pursuant to this Condition or Condition 5.2 or any Talon which would be void pursuant to Condition 5.2.

9. EVENTS OF DEFAULT

If:

- (i) there is failure to make payment in the Specified Currency for more than five days of any principal or any interest in respect of any Note when and as the same is due to be paid; or
- (ii) the Issuer fails to comply with any other terms of the Notes and such failure (unless it is not capable of being cured) continues unremedied for 30 days after written notice thereof shall have been given to the Issuer in the manner specified below; or
- (iii) any indebtedness for borrowed money of the Issuer becomes, or is declared due and payable prior to its scheduled maturity as a result of a default thereunder or any such indebtedness for borrowed money or interest thereon is not paid when due or within any applicable grace period therefor or any guarantee or indemnity given by the Issuer in respect of any indebtedness for borrowed money is not honoured when due and called upon or within any applicable grace period therefor, and, in each case, the aggregate principal amount of such indebtedness amounts to a least 0.7 per cent. of Consolidated Total Assets; or
- (iv) a resolution is passed or an order of a court of competent jurisdiction is made that the Issuer be wound up or dissolved (otherwise than for the purposes of a reconstruction, merger or consolidation under which the Issuer is the continuing corporation or the terms whereof have previously been approved by an Extraordinary Resolution of the Noteholders); or
- (v) an encumbrancer takes possession or a receiver is appointed of the whole or substantially all of the assets or undertaking of the Issuer and is not paid out in full or discharged within thirty days; or
- (vi) a distress, execution or other process is levied or enforced upon or sued out against the whole or substantially all of the property of the Issuer and is not discharged within 30 days thereof; or
- (vii) the Issuer stops payment or (otherwise than for the purposes of such reconstruction, merger or consolidation as is referred to in sub-paragraph (iv) of this Condition) ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business or is unable to pay its debts as and when they fall due; or
- (viii) proceedings are initiated against the Issuer under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, composition or other similar laws and such proceedings are not discharged or stayed within a period of 30 days; or
- (ix) the Issuer initiates or consents to proceedings relating to itself under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, composition or other similar laws or makes a conveyance or assignment for the benefit of, or enters into any composition with, its creditors generally;

then any Noteholder may, by written notice to the Issuer at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent, declare the Notes held by such Noteholder to be forthwith due and payable at their Early Redemption Amount referred to in Condition 6.7 together, if appropriate, with interest accrued to the date of payment, and the same shall become immediately due and payable, unless prior to the time when such written notice is received all such defaults shall have been remedied.

As used herein, Consolidated Total Assets means the value of the consolidated total assets of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries, as such amount appears, or would appear, on a consolidated balance sheet of the Issuer prepared in accordance with IFRS as shown in the most recent published audited annual, unaudited semi-annual or unaudited quarterly interim, as the case may be, consolidated financial statements of the Issuer.

10. REPLACEMENT OF NOTES, COUPONS AND TALONS

Should any Note, Coupon or Talon be lost, stolen, mutilated, defaced or destroyed, it may be replaced at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent upon payment by the claimant of such costs and expenses as may be incurred in connection therewith and on such terms as to evidence and indemnity as the Issuer may reasonably require. Mutilated or defaced Notes, Coupons or Talons must be surrendered before replacements will be issued.

11. PAYING AGENTS

The names of the initial Paying Agents and their initial specified offices are set out below. If any additional Paying Agents are appointed in connection with any Series, the names of such Paying Agents will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The Issuer is entitled to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent and/or appoint additional or other Paying Agents and/or approve any change in the specified office through which any Paying Agent acts, provided that:

- (a) there will at all times be a Principal Paying Agent;
- (b) there will at all times be a Paying Agent in a jurisdiction within Europe, other than the jurisdiction in which the Issuer is incorporated; and
- (c) so long as the Notes are listed on any stock exchange or admitted to listing by any other relevant authority, there will at all times be a Paying Agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant stock exchange or other relevant authority.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent having a specified office in New York City in the circumstances described in Condition 5.4. Notice of any variation, termination, appointment or change in Paying Agent will be given to the Noteholders promptly by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 13.

In acting under the Agency Agreement, the Paying Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligation to, or relationship of agency or trust with, any Noteholders or Couponholders. The Agency Agreement contains provisions permitting any entity into which any Paying Agent is merged or converted or with which it is consolidated or to which it transfers all or substantially all of its assets to become the successor Paying Agent.

12. EXCHANGE OF TALONS

On and after the Interest Payment Date on which the final Coupon comprised in any Coupon sheet matures, the Talon (if any) forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent or any other Paying Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet including (if such further Coupon sheet does not include Coupons to (and including) the final date for the payment of interest due in respect of the Note to which it appertains) a further Talon, subject to the provisions of Condition 8.

13. NOTICES

All notices regarding the Notes will be deemed to be validly given if published in (a) a leading English language daily newspaper of general circulation in London, and (b) if and for so long as the Notes are admitted to trading on, and listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, a daily newspaper of general circulation in Luxembourg or the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's website (www.luxse.com). It is expected that any such publication in a newspaper will be made in the Financial Times in London and the Luxemburger Wort or the Tageblatt in Luxembourg. The Issuer shall also ensure that notices are duly published in a manner which complies with the rules of any stock exchange or relevant authority on which the Notes are for the time being listed or by which they have been admitted to trading. Any such notice will be deemed to have been given on the date of the first publication or, where required to be published in more than one newspaper, on the date of the first publication in all required newspapers.

Until such time as any Definitive Notes are issued, so long as any Global Notes representing the Notes are held in their entirety on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, be substituted for such publication in such newspaper(s) the delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg for communication by them to the holders of the Notes and, in addition, for so long as any Notes are listed on a stock exchange or are admitted to trading by another relevant authority and the rules of that stock exchange or relevant authority so require, such notice will be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in the place or places required by those rules. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given to the holders of the Notes on such day as is specified in the applicable Final Terms after the day on which the said notice was given to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Notices to be given by any Noteholder shall be in writing and given by lodging the same, together (in the case of any Note in definitive form) with the relative Note or Notes, with the Principal Paying Agent. Whilst any of the Notes are represented by a Global Note, such notice may be given by any holder of a Note to the Principal Paying Agent through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, in such manner as the Principal Paying Agent and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, may approve for this purpose.

13A. AVAILABLE INFORMATION

This Condition 13A applies only to Sustainability-Linked Step Up Notes and Sustainability-Linked Redemption Notes (each Sustainability-Linked Bonds).

In respect of each Relevant Year, the Issuer will publish on its website, and in accordance with applicable laws:

(i) a report (the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report) containing (A) the then current Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions and the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage for the Relevant Year; and (B) the then current Scope 3 Baseline, the Scope 3 GHG Emissions and the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage for the Relevant Year;

(ii) one or more assurance report(s) issued by the External Verifier(s) (the Assurance Report(s)) in respect of the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions, the Scope 1 and 2 GHG Emissions Percentage, the Scope 3 GHG Emissions, the Scope 3 GHG Emissions Percentage contained in the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report for the Relevant Year; and

(iii) following any recalculation of the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 3 Baseline, any KPI(s) or SPT(s) by the Issuer in or relating to the Relevant Year, an assurance report issued by the relevant External Verifier confirming such recalculation of the Scope 1 and 2 Baseline, the Scope 3 Baseline, the relevant KPI(s) or SPT(s) (as applicable) (the Recalculation Assurance Report).

The Assurance Report(s), the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and (if applicable) the Recalculation Assurance Report(s) relating to any Relevant Year of the Issuer will be published no later than the Reporting End Date relating to such Relevant Year.

The Assurance Report(s), the Sustainability-Linked Progress Report and any Recalculation Assurance Report(s) may be published as separate reports or included in the Issuer's annual report.

For the avoidance of doubt, any failure to comply with the provisions of this Condition 13A shall not constitute an Event of Default and shall be relevant only in respect of determining whether a Sustainability-Linked Trigger Event has occurred.

14. MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS, MODIFICATION AND WAIVER

Pursuant to the Agency Agreement, the Issuer may at any time, and upon a request in writing made by Noteholders holding not less than one-tenth of the nominal amount of the Notes outstanding at any time after any Note shall have become payable owing to default shall, convene a meeting of Noteholders (including by way of conference call or by use of a videoconference platform). Any such request in writing by Noteholders shall be made by lodging the same together with the relative Note or Notes at the specified office of the Principal Paying Agent or any Paying Agent. The provisions concerning meetings of Noteholders are contained in Schedule 5 to the Agency Agreement. The Principal Paying Agent may agree, without the consent of the Noteholders or Couponholders, to any modification of any of the provisions of the Agency Agreement which is of a formal, minor or technical nature or which is made to correct a manifest error or to comply with any mandatory law.

15. CURRENCY INDEMNITY

The Issuer agrees to indemnify any Noteholder or Couponholder against any loss incurred by such holder as a result of any judgment or order being given or made by any court for any reason not attributable to such holder for the payment of any amount due hereunder and such judgment or order being expressed by reason of applicable law in a currency other than the Specified Currency and as a result of any variation having occurred in rates of exchange between the date as of which the Specified Currency amount is converted for such judgment or order and the date of actual payment thereof.

This indemnity shall constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations contained herein, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any Noteholder or Couponholder from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum or sums in respect of amounts due hereunder or under any such judgment or order. Any such loss or damage as aforesaid shall be deemed to constitute a loss suffered by the Noteholder or Couponholder and no proof or evidence of any actual loss shall be required by the Issuer. Nothing in this Condition shall prevent the Issuer from discharging its obligations in respect of any Note or Coupon by making payment in accordance with Condition 7.

16. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer shall be at liberty from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders or the Couponholders to create and issue further notes having terms and conditions the same as the Notes or the same in all respects save for the amount and date of the first payment of interest thereon and so that the same shall be consolidated and form a single Series with the outstanding Notes.

17. THE CONTRACTS (RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) ACT 1999

No person shall have any right to enforce any term or condition of this Note under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 but this does not affect any right or remedy of any person which exists or is available apart from that Act.

18. GOVERNING LAW AND SUBMISSION TO JURISDICTION

18.1 Governing law

The Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant, the Notes, the Coupons and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant, the Notes and the Coupons are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

18.2 Submission to jurisdiction

- (a) Subject to Condition 18.2(c) below, the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with the Notes and/or the Coupons including any dispute as to their existence, validity, interpretation, performance, breach or termination or the consequences of their nullity and any dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes and/or the Coupons (a Dispute) and accordingly each of the Issuer and any Noteholders or Couponholders in relation to any Dispute submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
- (b) For the purposes of this Condition 18.2, each of the Issuer and any Noteholders or Couponholders in relation to any Dispute waives any objection to the English courts on the grounds that they are an inconvenient or inappropriate forum to settle any Dispute.

- (c) This Condition 18.2(c) is for the benefit of the Noteholders and the Couponholders only. To the extent allowed by law, the Noteholders and the Couponholders may, in respect of any Dispute or Disputes, take (i) proceedings in any other court, provided that court would be competent to hear the Dispute pursuant to Regulation (EU) No 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters (recast), or the 2007 Lugano Convention on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters; and (ii) concurrent proceedings in any number of those jurisdictions.

18.3 Appointment of Process Agent

The Issuer irrevocably appoints Electrolux Plc. of Addington Way, Luton, Bedfordshire, LU4 9QQ, United Kingdom as its agent for service of process in any proceedings before the English courts in relation to any Dispute, and agrees that, in the event of Electrolux Plc. being unable or unwilling for any reason so to act, it will immediately appoint another person as its agent for service of process in England in respect of any Dispute. Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve proceedings in any other manner permitted by law.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from each issue of notes will be applied by the Issuer for its general corporate purposes, or, if specified in the applicable Final Terms, an amount equal to the net proceeds will be applied to finance or re-finance certain green assets that meet the eligibility requirements set out in the Issuer's Green Financing Framework 2025 (as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time, the Green Financing Framework), which is available for viewing on the Issuer's website at the following address: <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/wp-content/uploads/sites/2/2019/03/Electrolux-Group-Green-Financing-Framework-2025.pdf> (Eligible Green Assets and thereto related notes, Green Bonds).

Eligible Green Assets (as defined and used in the Green Financing Framework) have been (or will be, as the case may be) selected by the Issuer from time to time in accordance with the categorisation of eligibility for Green Bonds set out in the Green Financing Framework which sets out the added environmental criteria required for such issuances (the Green Terms). As at the date hereof and subject to future amendments, under the Green Financing Framework, projects must fall within eligible green categories in order to qualify as Eligible Green Assets (the Eligible Projects). In order to be evaluated by the Issuer under the Green Financing Framework, Eligible Projects are divided into categories which are aligned to the International Capital Market Association (ICMA) Green Bond Principles, including, but not limited to: (i) renewable energy (ii) energy efficiency; (iii) pollution prevention and control; (iv) sustainable water and wastewater management; (v) green buildings; (vi) circular economy adapted products, production technologies and processes, (vii) climate change adaptation and (viii) clean transportation.

Potential Eligible Green Assets will be identified periodically by the Issuer's Green Financing Committee, verified through the Issuer's regular investment request process, and then evaluated in relation to the eligibility criteria set out in the Green Financing Framework. Pursuant to the Green Financing Framework, assets will only be approved as Eligible Green Assets if decided in consensus by the Green Financing Committee. The criteria for qualification as an Eligible Green Asset under the Green Financing Framework may change from time to time. Recognising that the green bond market and best practices are still evolving, the Issuer will strive to monitor market developments and, when deemed necessary, make appropriate updates to the Green Financing Framework in order to reflect best market practice.

The Issuer has obtained a second-party opinion dated 19 December 2025 from S&P Global Ratings (a provider of independent reviews of green bonds) on the Green Financing Framework confirming that these align with the Green Bond Principles, as published by ICMA, and providing a "medium green" shading (the Green Financing Second Party Opinion). The Green Financing Second Party Opinion is valid only at its date of issue and the Green Financing Framework is subject to amendment by the Issuer from time to time. The Green Financing Second Party Opinion and the Green Financing Framework are, and any updates to the Green Financing Framework will be, available for viewing on the Issuer's website at <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/en/green-financing-framework-29317>.

The Issuer publishes a yearly report (the Green Financing Impact Report) which will describe the use of proceeds and adherence to the Green Terms set out in the Green Financing Framework. The report will (i) include details of the Eligible Green Assets including information on certain key environmental indicators (such as energy consumption and carbon footprint), (ii) adhere to the ICMA handbook on Core Principles and Recommendations for Reporting June 2024 and (iii) be published annually and be generally available on the Issuer's website at <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/en/green-financing-framework-29317> for so long as the Issuer has Green Bonds outstanding.

No assurance or representation is given as to the suitability or reliability for any purpose whatsoever of any opinion, report or certification of any third party (whether or not solicited by the Issuer) which may be made available in connection with the issue of any Green Bonds and in particular with any Eligible Green Assets to fulfil any environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. For the avoidance of doubt, neither any such opinion, report or certification nor the Green Financing Framework are, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus. Neither such opinion, report or certification nor the Green Financing Framework are, nor should be deemed to be, a recommendation by the Issuer, the Arranger, any Dealer or any other person to buy, sell or hold any such Green Bonds. Any such opinion, report or certification is only current as at the date that opinion, report or certification was initially issued. Prospective investors must determine for themselves the relevance of any such opinion, report or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such opinion, report or certification for the purpose of any investment in such Green Bonds. Currently, the providers of such opinions, reports and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other regime or oversight. See further information under the risk factor above headed, "In respect of any Notes issued with the specific purpose of financing or refinancing Eligible Green Assets in accordance with the Issuer's Green Financing Framework, there can be no assurance that such use of proceeds will be suitable for the investment criteria of an investor".

Any additional information related to the use of proceeds will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

SUSTAINABILITY-LINKED FINANCING FRAMEWORK

On 3 May 2024, the Issuer published its Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework (as amended, updated, supplemented or replaced from time to time, the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework). The Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework has been published in accordance with (amongst other things) the Sustainability-Linked Bond Principles published in June 2023, administered by ICMA (the SLBP).

The Issuer has appointed Morningstar Sustainalytics (Sustainalytics) as an external reviewer to assess the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework. Sustainalytics has reviewed the content as well as its alignment with the SLBP, providing the Issuer with a second party opinion dated 3 May 2024 in respect of the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework (the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion). The objective of the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion is to provide investors with an independent assessment on the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework. The Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion is valid only at its date of issue and the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework is subject to amendment by the Issuer from time to time.

The Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework and the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion are, and any updates to the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework will be, available for viewing on the Issuer's website at the following address: <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/en/sustainability-linked-financing-framework/>.

For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework, the Sustainability-Linked Financing Second Party Opinion, nor any other certification, report or opinion relating to the Sustainability-Linked Financing Framework or Notes issued as Sustainability-Linked Bonds are, nor shall be deemed to be, incorporated in and/or form part of this Base Prospectus.

DESCRIPTION OF AB ELECTROLUX (PUBL)

Business Overview

The Issuer is the parent company of the Group, which is a global leader in household appliances. The Group develops and offers, under its core brands including Electrolux, AEG and Frigidaire, thoughtfully designed, innovative and sustainable solutions for consumers within three innovation areas of Taste, Care and Wellbeing. The Group's products include products for consumers comprising major appliances (including refrigerators, freezers, cookers, dryers, washing machines, dishwashers, room air-conditioners and microwave ovens). In addition to major appliances, other important areas for the Group include floor-care products, water heaters, heat pumps and small domestic appliances as well as consumables, accessories and the provision of servicing. The Group has sales in approximately 120 markets. In 2025, the Group had sales of SEK 131 billion and maintained an average of approximately 39,000 employees throughout the year.

History

The Issuer was incorporated and operates under the laws of the Kingdom of Sweden on 10 February 1910 with registered number 556009-4178. The Issuer was the product of a merger between Elektromekaniska AB and AB Lux and was subsequently listed on the London Stock Exchange (the LSE) in 1928 and on the Stockholm Stock Exchange (now Nasdaq Stockholm) (Nasdaq Stockholm) in 1930. In 1987, trading of American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) representing the Issuer's class B shares commenced on the NASDAQ National Market (Nasdaq). In 2005 and 2010 respectively, the Issuer de-listed its ADRs from Nasdaq and de-listed its shares from the LSE in response to the internationalisation of capital markets and the increase in international ownership of shares on the Nasdaq Stockholm. Following these de-listings, all trading in the Issuer's shares is now concentrated on the Nasdaq Stockholm.

The Issuer steadily expanded its business through the mid-twentieth century with a programme of gradual acquisition and product development. In 1984, following the acquisition of Italian company Zanussi, the Group emerged as a leader in the European household appliance and food-service appliance markets. In 1994, the Group acquired the white goods division of German manufacturer, AEG. In 1996, the Group acquired Refripar, one of the largest producers of appliances in Brazil at that time. A period of restructuring and strengthening of the Issuer's core business followed throughout the 1990s and into the next century, including significant expansion into the North American market and the development of the Group's global presence (for example, through the acquisition of the household division of the Australian company, Email Limited, in 2001). To increase its exposure to emerging markets, the Issuer acquired two companies in 2011: the Egyptian appliances company, Olympic Group, and the Chilean appliances company, CTI. In 2014, the Group acquired Australian company, BeefEater Barbecues. In 2016, the Group acquired Vintec, a company based in Australia and Singapore, which supplies a wide range of climate-controlled wine cabinets throughout the Asia Pacific region.

In 2017, the Group acquired Kwikot Group, a major market participant in South Africa's water heater market; Best, a European manufacturer of innovative kitchen-hoods; and the rights to the Continental trademark in home appliances in Brazil. In the United States, the Group acquired Anova, the United States based provider of the Anova Precision Cooker which is an innovative connected device for sous vide cooking that enables restaurant-quality results in the home.

In 2019, the Group acquired Sydney Appliance Installations, an Australian appliance installation and repair service operator.

In March 2020, the Issuer (and the Group) was divided into two listed companies whereby the equity in Electrolux Professional was distributed pro rata to the Issuer's shareholders and listed on Nasdaq Stockholm, resulting in the Issuer and Electrolux Professional becoming separate entities and Electrolux Professional no longer forming part of the Group. The split has enabled the Issuer to increase its focus on the opportunities in the household appliance sector, enabling the Group to drive profitable growth by employing distinct strategies for innovation with an increased customer focus, as well as increasing the capital efficiency within the Group.

In August 2020, the Group acquired 60 per cent. of the shares in the Chinese company Guangdong De Yi Jie Appliances Co., Ltd, which sells AEG household appliances in China. Prior to the acquisition, the Group held 40 per cent. of the shares in the company and it was accounted for as a fully owned subsidiary from 31 August 2020.

In July 2021, the Group acquired La Compagnie du SAV (CSAV), a French service provider specialising in repairing domestic appliances. Through the acquisition, the Group strengthened its service network in France.

In December 2021, the Group acquired the remaining 50 per cent. of the shares in Swedish company Gångaren 13 Holding AB that it did not already hold to increase its ownership to 100 per cent. of the shares in the company. Gångaren 13 Holding AB was accounted for as a fully owned subsidiary of the Group from 7 December 2021.

In 2022, the Group decided to exit Russia and thus divested the business through the sale of its Russian subsidiary to local management on 9 September 2022.

In September 2023, the Group closed and divested its manufacturing facility in Nyíregyháza, Hungary.

In December 2023, the Group completed the divestment of its factory in Memphis, Tennessee, United States, and transferred operations to a new facility in Springfield, Tennessee, United States. Cooking manufacturing and production from the Group's old plant in Springfield was also transferred to the new Springfield facility.

In December 2024, the Group completed its divestment of its water heater business (Kwikot brand) in South Africa as part of its strategic focus on divestment of non-core assets, as well as the Group's divestment from all its potential legacy asbestos exposure in the United States by selling three wholly-owned subsidiaries that held the relevant liabilities and related insurance assets, improving long-term financial visibility for the Group and freeing up operational resources.

In July 2025, the Group completed the divestment of its Kelvinator trademark portfolio in India, which contributed a positive impact of SEK 180 million to operating income for the financial year ended 31 December 2025.

Business profile

Strategy

The Group employs a focused strategy for profitable growth with the aim of achieving its purpose, to 'shape living for the better', and creating long-term value for its stakeholders. The strategy, firmly based in the market trends that drive the development of a changing household appliance market, is supported by four strategic drivers: consumer preference, lifetime value creation, cost leadership and cash generation. The Group has three defined areas of innovation, 'Taste', 'Care' and 'Wellbeing', which allow it to maintain a streamlined and innovative product portfolio with proven consumer benefits. In addition, the Group is aiming to strengthen its position and expand in the aftersales market, which represents important business opportunities. On 23 April 2026, the Group announced a series of business transformation initiatives, including a plan to optimise its global manufacturing footprint and increase organisational agility, and a long-term strategic partnership in North America with Midea Group covering food preservation (refrigeration) manufacturing and sales and fabric care (laundry) manufacturing.

The Group has a strong track-record of delivering cost reductions. In September 2022, the Group announced the implementation of a new cost reduction programme focussed on addressing variable and structural costs and eliminating cost inefficiencies in the supply chain and in production. The measures included increasing productivity in operations as well as optimising the Group's research and development portfolio, administration, sales, and marketing activities. With Group-wide cost reductions and the North America turnaround programme contributing positively to earnings in 2023, and following a significant step-up in cost reduction efforts for the Group announced in October 2023, cost reduction activities continued into 2024 and 2025. In 2025, the Group delivered SEK 4 billion in cost reductions, following SEK 4 billion of cost reductions in 2024, with the focus shifting to product cost reductions, optimised sourcing and industrial efficiency. For 2026, the Group is targeting SEK 3.5-4 billion in cost reductions, with SEK 0.7 billion achieved in the first quarter of 2026, on track to reach the cost efficiency target for the full year. Moving forward, the Group's cost reduction efforts will primarily focus on product costs through lower-cost sourcing, value engineering, global supplier consolidation, and industrial efficiency to restore margins in line with the Group's target of achieving an operating margin of at least 6 per cent. The Group's Financial Policy states that its target is to maintain a long-term investment grade credit rating.

Sustainability is an integrated part of the Group's strategy for profitable growth. The Group's most resource-efficient products accounted for 26 per cent. of total units sold and 36 per cent. of gross profit in 2025. The Issuer is recognised as a leader in the household durable goods industry: it remains part of the Dow Jones Sustainability Europe index and is one of a small number of companies that has received a CDP Climate score of "A" in 2025. Additionally, the Group has received recognition from other indexes and organisations such as S&P Global, MSCI and ISS ESG. Having achieved its climate targets for 2025 three years ahead of schedule, in 2024 the Group announced a new, expanded science-based climate target, encompassing a greater proportion of its value chain. The Group aims to reduce scope 1 and 2 emissions by 85 per cent. by 2030 compared to 2021 levels and to reduce scope 3 emissions by 42 per cent. in the same period.

Company structure

The Group's operations are organised into three regions: (i) Europe, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific; (ii) North America; and (iii) Latin America. Asia-Pacific was previously a separate region but since 1 January 2026 has constituted a commercial region within the Europe, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific region.

The regions cover commercial and industrial operations, collaborating closely with a global Product organization, including sourcing finished products between regions. In relation to the Group's sales in 2025, Europe, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific accounted for 43.5 per cent., North America accounted for 34.4 per cent., and Latin America accounted for 22.1 per cent.

On 30 January 2026, the Group announced a new Product organisation effective as of 1 February 2026. The new Product organisation is responsible for product strategy, research and development, design, electronics, connectivity and procurement, and the technology, digital and sustainability (TDS) organisation is integrated into the Product organisation.

The Group has three innovation areas: Taste, Care and Wellbeing. Taste encompasses products within Food Preparation and Food Preservation. Care encompasses products within Laundry and Dish. Wellbeing & SDA encompasses products within Floor Care, Air Care, Water Care and small domestic appliances (SDA). Management of the product categories within Taste and Care are integrated into the Product organization since 1 February 2026, while Wellbeing & SDA remains a separate strategic focus area.

The Group also consists of the global functions: Finance; IT; People & Communications; Legal; and Business Development & Strategy.

Financial Overview 2025

Global

In 2025, net sales amounted to SEK 131,282 million (2024: SEK 136,150 million) and operating income amounted to SEK 3,657 million (2024: SEK 1,100 million), corresponding to an operating margin of 2.8 per cent. (2024: 0.8 per cent.). Operating income for 2025 included a positive contribution of SEK 180 million from the divestment of the Kelvinator trademark portfolio in India. Excluding non-recurring items, operating income for 2025 amounted to SEK 3,657 million (2024: SEK 1,666 million), corresponding to a margin of 2.8 per cent. and income for the period amounted to SEK 878 million (2024: SEK -1,394 million), corresponding to SEK 3.25 in earnings per share (2024: SEK -5.16).

Excluding currency translation effects, net sales increased by 3.0 per cent. in 2025, with currency translation having a negative impact of -6.6 per cent. Organic sales increased by 3.9 per cent. (compared with a 5.1 per cent. increase in 2024) and divestments had a negative impact of -0.8 per cent. The organic sales growth was driven by higher volumes in all the Group's business areas, and the product mix was favourable. Price development was negative driven by business area Europe, Asia-Pacific, Middle East and Africa with a higher share of sales under promotion, increased competitive pressure, and predominantly replacement driven demand. Aftermarket sales decreased.

The increase in operating income in 2025 was driven by cost efficiency, which contributed SEK 4.0 billion to earnings, mainly driven by product cost reductions. Whilst the impact from external factors was significantly negative due to increased costs for U.S. tariffs and negative currency effects, lower raw material costs partly offset the negative effect from labour cost inflation. Operating income in the second quarter of 2025 included a positive contribution of SEK 180 million from the divestment of the Kelvinator trademark portfolio in India. Higher volumes and improved product mix, supported by the focus on growth in higher-value categories, more than offset a slightly negative impact from price. Investments in innovation and marketing increased to support the Group's product portfolio and new product launches.

Market demand

Market demand for core appliances in Europe remained largely unchanged in 2025, while the Group's main markets varied between regions, with demand in North America remaining resilient and demand in Latin America estimated to have increased. Geopolitical uncertainty weighed on consumer sentiment in Europe. This contributed to consumers shifting to lower price points and postponing discretionary purchases. Demand for built-in kitchen products remained subdued. Competitive pressure and promotional activity was high in all regions, with a higher share of sales under promotion and predominantly replacement driven demand.

In 2025, market demand for core appliances in Europe was unchanged from 2024. In Asia-Pacific, consumer demand is estimated to have increased slightly. In the United States, market demand for core appliances was unchanged in 2025. Consumer demand in Latin America is estimated to have increased. In Brazil, growth in consumer demand was positive, however at a slower rate compared to the prior year. In Argentina, consumer demand recovered after a decline in 2024.

Region Europe, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific

Region Europe, Middle East & Africa and Asia-Pacific reported an organic sales increase of 1.6 per cent. in 2025, driven by slightly higher volumes and improved product mix. The roll-out of new AEG and Electrolux built-in kitchen products contributed to market share gains in Europe. Benefitting from the positive development in higher-value product categories, product mix was also supported by the phase-out of the Zanussi brand in Europe. Price development was negative with a higher share of sales under promotions due to the increased competitive pressure and predominantly replacement driven demand.

Operating income improved to SEK 2,353 million in 2025 (2024: SEK 1,332 million) with an operating margin of 4.1 per cent. (2024: 2.2 per cent.). Earnings growth was driven mainly by cost efficiency, primarily from product cost reductions. Investments in innovation and marketing increased to support the product portfolio and new products. Volume growth and favourable product mix partly offset the negative impact from price. Lower raw material costs offset most of the labour cost inflation and currency headwinds. Operating income included a positive contribution of SEK 180 million from the divestment of the Kelvinator trademark portfolio in India (2024: negative non-recurring item of SEK -566 million relating to the divestment of the water heater business in South Africa).

Region North America

Region North America reported an organic sales increase of 6.1 per cent. in 2025. Organic sales growth was supported by new product launches contributing to increased shop floor space with retailers. The Group gained market share, with higher volumes across main product categories, including laundry products and the Frigidaire Gallery freestanding cookers with the new stone-baked pizza mode. Price was positive despite the highly competitive market. Operating income remained negative in 2025, yet with a considerable improvement year-over-year despite significant negative effects in 2025 from increased U.S. tariff costs and a weaker U.S. dollar.

In a pressured pricing environment, the Group managed to offset the majority of the U.S. tariff related cost increases. Positive price and volume growth contributed positively to earnings. Improved cost efficiency had a significant positive impact mainly through product cost reductions. Investments increased in innovation and marketing to support the product offering and launch of new innovations. Raw material costs were lower while labour cost inflation had a negative impact. In 2024, operating income excluding non-recurring items was positively impacted by SEK 185 million related to the divestment of all of the Group's potential legacy asbestos exposure in the U.S.

Region Latin America

Region Latin America business area reported an organic sales growth of 5.2 per cent. in 2025 (2024: 22.3 per cent.), with increased volumes, improved price and favourable product mix. The Group's market position remained strong. In Argentina, a positive price and product mix development in Brazil contributed positively, as well as higher volumes recorded.

In 2025 operating income increased to SEK 2,226 million (2024: SEK 2,202 million) with an operating margin of 7.7 per cent. (2024: 7.2 per cent.), primarily driven by cost efficiency and organic sales growth. Cost reductions were driven mainly by improved product engineering and sourcing. Currency headwinds, particularly the depreciation of the Argentine peso and Brazilian real, as well as labour and energy cost inflation, negatively affected earnings. Investments increased in brand-building activities and direct consumer sales capabilities.

Major financing arrangements

The major financing arrangements of the Group as at 31 December 2025 are described in note 18 in the 2025 Annual Report and on page 11 of the Q1 2026 Interim Report. The Group mainly raises financing under its Euro Medium-Term Note programme (including through the issuance of green bonds) and via bilateral loans, with a majority of the Group's long-term borrowings (SEK 37,392 million as at 31 March 2026) being at the parent company level. As at 31 March 2026, the Group had unused committed revolving credit facilities of approximately SEK 16,943 million (31 December 2025: approximately SEK 16,818 million, comprising a revolving credit facility of EUR 1,000 million maturing in 2028, and two revolving credit facilities of SEK 3,000 million each, maturing in 2027).

The list of shareholders is based on compiled and processed data from various sources, including Euroclear, Morningstar and the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority as at 30 April 2026. It should be noted that the actual ownership may be different, since shareholders may have their shares registered in the name of a bank or trustee in the share register kept by Euroclear Sweden, and not in their own name.

So far as the Issuer is aware, none of the major shareholders listed above are indirect owners of share capital of the Group.

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the share capital of the Issuer amounted to approximately SEK 1,544 million, corresponding to 283,077,393 shares. The share capital of the Issuer consists of Class A shares and Class B shares. A Class A share entitles the holder to one vote and a Class B share to one-tenth of a vote. All shares entitle the holder to the same proportion of assets and earnings and carry equal rights in terms of dividends. In accordance with the Swedish Companies Act, the Articles of Association of the Issuer also provide for specific rights of priority for holders of different types of shares, in the event that the Issuer issues new shares or certain other instruments.

According to the Issuer's Articles of Association, owners of Class A shares have the right to have such shares converted to Class B shares. The purpose of the conversion clause is to give holders of Class A shares an opportunity to achieve improved liquidity in their shareholdings. Conversion reduces the total number of votes in the Issuer.

As at the date of this Base Prospectus, the total number of registered shares in the Issuer amounts to 283,077,393 shares, of which 8,191,804 are Class A shares and 274,885,589 are Class B shares, and the total number of votes amounts to 35,680,362.9. As at the same date the Issuer holds 12,581,075 treasury shares of Class B, corresponding to 1,258,107.5 votes.

⁸ As at 13 May 2026, Causeway Capital Management LLC increased its holdings to 15.12 per cent. of share capital, and 12 per cent of voting rights.

The forthcoming rights issue will, if fully subscribed, result in an increase of the number of shares in Electrolux from 283,077,393 shares (of which 8,191,804 are Class A shares and 274,885,589 are Class B shares) to 824,070,029 shares (of which 24,575,412 are Class A shares and 799,494,617 are Class B shares), representing an increase of 200 per cent.

Recent developments

Rights Issue

On 23 April 2026, the Board of Directors of the Issuer resolved, subject to approval by an Extraordinary General Meeting, on a fully underwritten rights issue of approximately SEK 9 billion (the Rights Issue). The detailed terms and conditions of the Rights Issue, including the subscription price and the subscription ratio, were determined by the Board of Directors of the Issuer on 21 May 2026, and the Extraordinary General Meeting approved the Board of Directors' resolution regarding the Rights Issue on 27 May 2026. The Issuer's shareholders have preferential right to subscribe for the new shares, with two (2) subscription rights being received for each share held on the record date and one (1) subscription right of each class entitling the holder to subscribe for one (1) new share of the corresponding class. The subscription price has been set at SEK 16.75 per share and, assuming the Rights Issue is fully subscribed, the Issuer will raise gross proceeds of SEK 9,062 million before transaction costs (estimated at approximately SEK 207 million).

The Rights Issue is intended to finance and accelerate the Group's profitable growth initiatives, expedite the achievement of its financial targets and strengthen the Group's balance sheet. The Group intends to allocate the gross proceeds of the Rights Issue approximately as follows: SEK 1.0–1.5 billion to support the strategic partnership with Midea Group in North America; SEK 2.0–2.5 billion to support the Group's plans to improve efficiency across its organisation over the next two years, including targeted optimisation of the global manufacturing footprint and a net reduction of approximately 3,000 employees globally over the same period; SEK 1.0 billion to support other long-term profitable growth initiatives, including product category and market expansion and increasing lifetime value offerings; and SEK 4.0–5.0 billion to strengthen the balance sheet.

Investor AB, the Issuer's largest shareholder, has undertaken to subscribe for its pro rata share of the Rights Issue, corresponding to 18.78 per cent. of the Rights Issue, and has in addition undertaken to guarantee subscription in the amount of SEK 1,701 million, corresponding to a further 18.78 per cent. of the Rights Issue (subject to certain conditions), such that Investor AB's subscription and guarantee undertakings cover in total 37.56 per cent. of the Rights Issue. Morgan Stanley and SEB (as Joint Global Coordinators) and Deutsche Bank (as Co-Bookrunner) have, subject to customary terms and conditions, entered into an underwriting agreement with the Issuer in respect of the remaining portion of the Rights Issue, up to a maximum amount of SEK 5,659 million, corresponding to 62.44 per cent. of the Rights Issue. A prospectus in respect of the Rights Issue was published on 28 May 2026. The record date for participation in the Rights Issue was 29 May 2026, the subscription period runs from 2 June 2026 to and including 16 June 2026, the final outcome of the Rights Issue is expected to be announced on or around 22 June 2026, and delivery of the new shares is expected on or around 3 July 2026.

Partnership with Midea Group

On 23 April 2026, the Group announced a long-term strategic partnership with Midea Group in North America, structured as three joint ventures, covering Food Preservation (refrigeration) manufacturing and sales, and Fabric Care (laundry) manufacturing. The partnership is expected to commence in the third quarter of 2026 and is intended to strengthen the Group's product offering in these categories, improve cost efficiencies and increase operational flexibility in the North America region, as part of the Group's wider efforts to transform its business in North America.

The Group and Midea Group will jointly co-develop and sell Food Preservation products for North America through a sales JV, in which each company will hold 50 per cent. of the shares. Midea Group will purchase 65 per cent. of the legal entities holding the operational assets associated with Food Preservation in Juarez, and the Group will retain 35 per cent. The Group's Fabric Care operations in Juarez will be carved out prior to closing of the transaction and will continue to serve the Group exclusively. A manufacturing JV will be established that will own and operate the Anderson factory, with the Group holding 55 per cent. and Midea Group holding 45 per cent. of the shares. The current Food Preservation production in Anderson is expected to be phased out by July 2026, with the Fabric Care production expected to commence in the first half of 2027.

The Group expects the partnership to have a positive effect on its sales and to generate gradually increasing cost efficiency improvements, aiming for approximately SEK 0.6 billion in year three. The partnership is expected to affect approximately 1,500 employees in 2026, principally through redundancies giving rise to severance costs, while the manufacturing joint venture for the Anderson site is expected to hire up to approximately 1,200 employees gradually across 2027 and 2028 as the site is repurposed for Fabric Care production.

The partnership is expected to give rise to total negative non-recurring items of approximately SEK 2.4 billion, expected to be recognised in the second quarter of 2026. This comprises a negative cash non-recurring item of approximately SEK 0.9 billion, relating mainly to the severance costs associated with the reduction in employees referred to above, and a write-off of approximately SEK 1.5 billion mainly related to the Food Preservation production in Anderson. The sale of assets in Juarez to the manufacturing JV, expected to occur in the third quarter of 2026, is expected to have a neutral effect on the Group's income statement but to generate a positive cash flow effect of approximately SEK 1.0 billion, with a corresponding reduction in assets. The partnership is also expected to require approximately SEK 1.1 billion in capital expenditure over the next three years, related to the start-up of Fabric Care production in Anderson and investment in new platforms for refrigeration in Juarez.

Optimisation of the Group's Footprint in Italy

On 11 May 2026, the Group announced the initiation of a process to optimise its organisational and manufacturing footprint in Italy. The optimisation impacts the Group's entire footprint in Italy, including its five manufacturing sites, and reflects a comprehensive assessment of the Group's industrial setup in the country. The plan to improve efficiency in Italy focuses on selective optimisation of activities, rationalisation of product and volume configurations and a stronger focus on higher-value product ranges. Italy will remain a strategic country within the Group given its strong manufacturing presence and ongoing contribution to product development, and expertise and capabilities based in Italy will continue to play a relevant role in the Group's global product development. Approximately 1,700 positions in Italy are expected to be impacted. Any workforce-related implications will be managed through relevant formal procedures and dialogue with institutions and trade-unions.

TAXATION

Luxembourg Taxation

The following information is of a general nature only and is based on the laws presently in force in Luxembourg, though it is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice. The information contained within this section is limited to Luxembourg withholding tax issues and prospective investors in the Notes should therefore consult their own professional advisers as to the effects of state, local or foreign laws, including Luxembourg tax law, to which they may be subject.

Please be aware that the residence concept used under the respective headings below applies for Luxembourg income tax assessment purposes only. Any reference in the present section to a withholding tax or a tax of a similar nature refers to Luxembourg tax law and/or concepts only.

Withholding Tax

(i) Non-resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force, there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to non-resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of the Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of the Notes held by non-resident holders of Notes.

(ii) Resident holders of Notes

Under Luxembourg general tax laws currently in force and subject to the law of 23 December 2005, as amended (the Relibi Law), there is no withholding tax on payments of principal, premium or interest made to Luxembourg resident holders of Notes, nor on accrued but unpaid interest in respect of Notes, nor is any Luxembourg withholding tax payable upon redemption or repurchase of Notes held by Luxembourg resident holders of Notes.

Under the Relibi Law, payments of interest or similar income made or ascribed by a paying agent established in Luxembourg to an individual beneficial owner who is a resident of Luxembourg will be subject to a withholding tax of 20 per cent. Such withholding tax will be in full discharge of income tax if the beneficial owner is an individual acting in the course of the management of their private wealth. Responsibility for the withholding of the tax will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. Accordingly, payments of interest under the Notes coming within the scope of the Relibi Law would be subject to a withholding tax at a rate of 20 per cent.

Swedish Taxation

The following summary outlines certain Swedish tax consequences relating to holders of Notes. The summary is based on the laws of Sweden as currently in effect and is intended to provide general information only. The summary does not address, inter alia, situations where Notes are held in an investment savings account (Sw. investeringssparkonto) or an endowment insurance (Sw. kapitalförsäkring) or the rules regarding reporting obligations for, among others, payers of interest. Further, the summary does not address credit of foreign taxes in Sweden. Investors should consult their professional tax advisers regarding the Swedish tax and other tax consequences (including the applicability and effect of tax treaties for the avoidance of double taxation) of acquiring, owning and disposing of Notes in their particular circumstances.

Holders not tax resident in Sweden

Payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes to the holder of any Note should not be subject to Swedish income tax, provided that such a holder (i) is not resident in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes and (ii) does not have a permanent establishment in Sweden to which the Notes are effectively connected.

Swedish withholding tax, or Swedish tax deduction, is not imposed on payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes, except in relation to certain payments of interest (and other returns on Notes) to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) who is (or was) resident in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes (see "Holders tax resident in Sweden" below).

Furthermore, Swedish companies are as a main rule liable to withhold 30 per cent. tax at source for payments to foreign legal entities if the payment relates to work deemed performed in Sweden by the foreign legal entity or its representatives.

Holders tax resident in Sweden

In general, for Swedish corporations and private individuals (and estates of deceased individuals) with residence in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, all capital income (for example, income that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes and capital gains on Notes) will be taxable. Specific tax consequences may be applicable to certain categories of corporations, for example, life insurance companies. Moreover, specific tax consequences may be applicable if, and to the extent that, a holder of Notes realises a capital loss on the Notes and to any currency exchange gains or losses.

If amounts that are deemed as interest for Swedish tax purposes are paid by a legal entity domiciled in Sweden, including a Swedish branch to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) with residence in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, Swedish preliminary taxes are normally withheld by the legal entity on such payments. Swedish preliminary taxes should normally also be withheld on other returns on Notes (but not capital gains), if the return is paid out together with such a payment of interest referred to above.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have in an amended and restated programme agreement (such programme agreement as modified and/or supplemented and/or restated from time to time, the Programme Agreement) dated 3 June 2026 agreed with the Issuer a basis upon which they or any of them may from time to time agree to purchase Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under “Form of the Notes” and “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”. In the Programme Agreement, the Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Dealers for certain of their expenses in connection with the establishment and any further update of the Programme and the issue of Notes under the Programme and to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities incurred by them in connection therewith. The Dealers are entitled in certain circumstances to be released and discharged from their obligations under the Programme Agreement prior to the closing of an issue of the Notes, including in the event that certain conditions precedent are not delivered or do not meet their satisfaction on the relevant Issue Date of such Notes. In this situation, the issuance of the Notes may not be completed, and investors will have no rights against the relevant Dealers in respect of any expense incurred or loss suffered in these circumstances.

Selling Restrictions

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

The Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and the Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder. The applicable Final Terms will identify whether TEFRA C rules or TEFRA D rules apply or whether TEFRA is not applicable.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will not offer, sell or deliver Notes (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of all Notes of the Tranche of which such Notes are a part, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S of the Securities Act. Each Dealer has further agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it will send to each dealer to which it sells any Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of any Series of Notes, an offer or sale of such Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with an available exemption from registration under the Securities Act.

Prohibition of sales to EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to any retail investor in the EEA. For the purposes of this provision:

- (a) the expression retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of the following:
 - (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, MiFID II); or
 - (ii) a customer within the meaning of the Insurance Distribution Directive where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; and
- (b) the expression an offer includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes.

United Kingdom

Prohibition of sales to UK Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies “Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors” as “Not Applicable”, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold, distributed or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell, distribute or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to any retail investor in the United Kingdom. For the purposes of this provision:

- (a) the expression retail investor means a person who is either one (or both) of the following:
 - (i) not a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or
 - (ii) not a qualified investor as defined in paragraph 15 of Schedule 1 to the POATRs; and
- (b) the expression offer includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to buy or subscribe for the Notes.

Other regulatory restrictions

Each Dealer has represented and agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree that:

- (i) in relation to any Notes having a maturity of less than one year, (a) it is a person whose ordinary activities involve it in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of its business and (b) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell any Notes other than to persons whose ordinary activities involve them in acquiring, holding, managing or disposing of investments (as principal or as agent) for the purposes of their businesses or who it is reasonable to expect will acquire, hold, manage or dispose of investments (as principal or agent) for the purposes of their businesses where the issue of the Notes would otherwise constitute a contravention of Section 19 of the FSMA by the Issuer;
- (ii) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of Section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue of any Notes in circumstances in which Section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Issuer; and
- (iii) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to any Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Belgium

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that an offering of Notes may not be advertised to any individual in Belgium qualifying as a consumer within the meaning of Article 1.1 of the Belgian Code of Economic Law, as amended from time to time (a Belgian Consumer) and that it has not offered, sold or resold, transferred or delivered, and will not offer, sell, resell, transfer or deliver, the Notes, and that it has not distributed, and will not distribute, any prospectus, memorandum, information circular, brochure or any similar documents in relation to the Notes, directly or indirectly, to any Belgian Consumer.

Singapore

Each Dealer has acknowledged, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to acknowledge, that the Base Prospectus has not been registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent, warrant and agree, that it has not offered or sold any Notes and will not offer or sell any Notes or caused the Notes to be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase and will not offer or sell any Notes or cause the Notes to be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, and has not circulated or distributed, nor will it circulate or distribute, this Base Prospectus or any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of any Notes, whether directly or indirectly, to any person in Singapore other than (i) to an institutional investor (as defined in Section 4A of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore, as modified or amended from time to time (the “SFA”)) pursuant to Section 274 of the SFA or (ii) to an accredited investor (as defined in Section 4A of the SFA) pursuant to and in accordance with the conditions specified in Section 275 of the SFA.

Notification under Section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA – Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Final Terms, all Notes issued or to be issued under the Programme shall be prescribed capital markets products (as defined in the Securities and Futures (Capital Markets Products) Regulations 2018 of Singapore) and Excluded Investment Products (as defined in MAS Notice SFA 04-N12: Notice on the Sale of Investment Products and MAS Notice FAA-N16: Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products).

Japan

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended; the FIEA) and each Dealer has represented and agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree that it has not, and will not offer or sell any Notes, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan (as defined under Item 5, Paragraph 1, Article 6 of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act (Act No. 228 of 1949, as amended)), or to others for re-offering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, a resident of Japan, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the FIEA and any other applicable laws, regulations and ministerial guidelines of Japan.

Switzerland

Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that the offering of the Notes in Switzerland is exempt from the requirement to prepare and publish a prospectus under the Swiss Financial Services Act (FinSA) as long as such offering is made to professional clients within the meaning of the FinSA only or as long as the Notes have a minimum denomination of CHF 100,000 (or equivalent in another currency) or more and the Notes will not be admitted to trading on any trading venue (exchange or multilateral trading facility) in Switzerland. This Base Prospectus does not constitute a prospectus pursuant to the FinSA, and no such prospectus has been or will be prepared for or in connection with the offering of the Notes.

General

Other than as described in this Base Prospectus, no action has been taken in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of any of the Notes, or possession or distribution of this Base Prospectus or any other offering material or any Final Terms, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

Each Dealer has agreed and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree that it will (to the best of its knowledge and belief) comply with all applicable securities laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or possesses or distributes this Base Prospectus and will obtain any consent, approval or permission required by it for the purchase, offer, sale or delivery by it of Notes under the laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers, sales or deliveries and neither the Issuer nor any of the other Dealers shall have any responsibility therefor.

None of the Issuer and the Dealers represents that Notes may at any time lawfully be sold in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any jurisdiction, or pursuant to any exemption available thereunder, or assumes any responsibility for facilitating such sale.

Persons into whose hands this Base Prospectus and any Final Terms comes are required by the Issuer and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in or from which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver Notes or have in their possession or distribute such offering material in all cases at their own expense.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Authorisation

The update of the Programme and the issue of Notes thereunder have been duly authorised by a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Issuer dated 23 April 2026.

Approval, Listing and Admission to Trading of Notes on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange

Application has been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Notes issued under the Programme to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to be admitted to trading on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange's regulated market is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU).

Documents Available

For the period of 12 months following the date of this Base Prospectus, copies of the following documents will, when published, be available for inspection from the registered office of the Issuer and from the specified offices of the Paying Agents for the time being in London and Luxembourg:

- (i) the Articles of Association (with an English translation thereof) of the Issuer; and
- (ii) the Agency Agreement, the Deed of Covenant, and the forms of the Global Notes, the Notes in definitive form, the Coupons and the Talons.

A copy of this Base Prospectus together with any future base prospectuses, information memoranda, supplements and Final Terms (save that a Final Terms relating to a Note which is neither admitted to trading on a regulated market in the EEA nor offered in the EEA in circumstances where a prospectus is required to be published under the Prospectus Regulation will only be available for inspection by a holder of such Note and such holder must produce evidence satisfactory to the Issuer and the Paying Agent as to its holding of Notes and identity) related to this Base Prospectus and any other documents incorporated herein or therein by reference, will be available for a period of 10 years following the date of this Base Prospectus at: <https://www.electroluxgroup.com/en/long-term-bond-issues-363/>. The telephone number of the Issuer is +46 8 738 6000 and its website address is <https://www.electroluxgroup.com>.

Clearing Systems

The Notes have been accepted for clearance through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (which are the entities in charge of keeping the records). The appropriate Common Code and ISIN for each Tranche of Notes allocated by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will be specified in the applicable Final Terms. If the Notes are to clear through an additional or alternative clearing system, the appropriate information will be specified in the applicable Final Terms.

The address of Euroclear is Euroclear Bank SA/NV, 1 Boulevard du Roi Albert II, B-1210 Brussels and the address of Clearstream, Luxembourg is Clearstream Banking, 42 Avenue JF Kennedy, L-1855 Luxembourg.

Conditions for determining price

The price and amount of Notes to be issued under the Programme will be determined by the Issuer and each relevant Dealer at the time of issue in accordance with prevailing market conditions.

Yield

In relation to any Tranche of Fixed Rate Notes, an indication of the yield in respect of such Notes will be specified in the applicable Final Terms. The yield is calculated at the Issue Date of the Notes on the basis of the relevant Issue Price. The yield indicated will be calculated as the yield to maturity as at the Issue Date of the Notes and will not be an indication of future yield.

Significant or Material Change

There has been no significant change in the financial performance or position of the Issuer or the Group since the end of the last financial period for which audited or interim consolidated financial information has been published.

There has been no material adverse change in the prospects of the Issuer or the Group since the date of its last published audited consolidated financial statements.

Litigation

Save as disclosed in: (i) this Base Prospectus at page 32 under “Pending lawsuits in the United States claiming asbestos-related personal injuries”, at pages 32-33 under “Legal disputes and investigations” and page 32 under “Pending lawsuits in the United States claiming asbestos-related personal injuries”, (ii) in the 2024 Annual Report of the Issuer at page 30 as described in the final two sentences of the final paragraph under “Operating income”, at page 122 under Note 6 “Other operating income and expenses” and at pages 142-143 under Note 26 “Acquired and divested operations”, and (iii) in the 2025 Annual Report of the Issuer at page 147 under Note 6 “Other operating income and expenses”, at page 167 under Note 25 “Contingent assets and liabilities” and at pages 167-168 under Note 26 “Acquired and divested operations”, neither the Issuer nor any of its subsidiaries is or has been involved in any governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer is aware) in the 12 months preceding the date of this document which may have or have in such period had a significant effect on the financial position or profitability of the Issuer or the Group.

Auditors

The auditor of the Issuer is Öhrlings PricewaterhouseCoopers AB, an authorised accounting firm in the Kingdom of Sweden and member of FAR, who audited the Group financial statements, without qualification in accordance with IFRS, and the Issuer's financial statements, without qualification, in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards applicable in the Kingdom of Sweden for the financial years ended 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2025.

Dealers transacting with the Issuer

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services to the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Notes issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or the Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in the securities of the Issuer, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.
